Spend 15 minutes every day in prayer with Scripture!

- The glory of the Lord was revealed in the birth of Christ. Do I recognize his coming in my life? How can I better learn to hear his voice? What is he asking of me in this coming season?
- Place yourself at the Jordan with Jesus, John, and the people. What do you picture when John says that one greater than he is coming? Observe Jesus, and watch the dove descend. How does the voice from heaven move you? How will you be different after this experience?

Everyday Stewardship - The Epiphany

"The Story of the Other Wise Man" by Henry Van Dyke was first published in 1895. It tells the fictional story of Artaban, a fourth wise man who began a journey to visit Jesus, the newborn King. Unlike his fellow Magi, he failed to make it there for the birth of Jesus because he kept pausing to help various people in need. In fact, it took him about 33 years of searching before his quest comes to an abrupt end when he is hit in the head with a falling roof shingle. His final breath takes place in Jerusalem near the place where Jesus is being crucified. As he lies dying, he hears the voice of Jesus telling him that the gifts he has given all along the way to "the least of these" he has actually given to Jesus himself.

If you have never read this story or seen the made-for-television movie based on the tale, you really should seek it out. It is a story that reminds us of a profound truth: Jesus himself rests in the lives of all those around us in need. In the story, it was the wise man's constant response to a stewardship call that prevented him from getting where he wanted to go. In the end, where he needed to go was more significant than where he thought he should go.

If we live lives of generosity and graciousness, we may find ourselves on constant detours from the road on which we are traveling. It is in the detours and the unexpected circumstances of our journey that often times we find our true purpose in life. We think God is somewhere we must travel to, when in reality, God is closer than we think in the least likely of places.

4 Stages of Marriage

The four stages of marriage are: (1) romance, (2) disillusionment, (3) misery and (4) awakening. Many marriages experience the first three stages. Marriages that end in divorce never make it to the fourth stage of awakening. Don't give up without learning about the fourth stage! If your marriage suffers from disillusionment or misery, please contact Retrouvaille. For confidential information or to register for the program beginning with a weekend retreat in the Milwaukee area on Feb. 15th-17th at the Siena Center in Racine please call 414-502-7685, email: lakeshore@retrouvaille.org or visit our website at <http://www.HelpOurMarriage.com>.
