Spend 15 minutes every day in prayer with Scripture!

- We often think of the Old Testament as legalistic and the New as loving, and yet God tells the people through Moses to love their neighbor as themselves. Take some time this week to read more of the Old Testament and ask God for the wisdom to understand in your heart that he is unchanging.
- Who do I resist loving? Is there a family member, acquaintance, politician, coworker whom I really do not desire to pray for? Ask God for the desire to love your enemies. How can I grow in love and prayer for those I dislike this week?
