SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CELEBRATING THE SACRAMENTS FIRST COMMUNION

After months of waiting, we are delighted to be bringing our children back to St. Charles to celebrate their First Holy Communion! Most of our 80+ children are receiving at our three Sunday afternoon First Communion Masses, but there will also be First Communions at a smattering of regular Masses over the next month or so. It has also been a real joy to gather our children for small rehearsal sessions beforehand, which have given us the opportunity to reconnect with them, to review the most essential concepts of who Jesus is and who they are receiving in the Eucharist, and to practice how to receive Him reverently at Mass. We are grateful to the children and their parents for their patient cooperation during this long wait. Thanks also to our many great parish prayer partners for their kindness and support throughout this challenging time! Please continue to pray for our children and their families!

Get to know JESUS by spending
15 minutes every day in prayer with Scripture!

Reflection questions for Sunday, August 2nd

- Near the end of Israel's captivity in Babylon (597-538 BC), the prophet Isaiah spoke of the Lord's desire to be unimaginably generous and life-giving to his people. How has the Lord been generous in gifts to you and your family?
- In the immediate aftermath of the news of the death of John the Baptist, Matthew reports that Jesus, "moved with pity," cured those who were sick in the crowds and fed the entire crowd of 5,000. How do you react toward others for whom you feel "pity"?

FIRST COMMUNION BLESSING

Jesus rejoices as you received Him in your heart, soul and life.

May you always be united with the Holy Spirit at the Lord's table and may Jesus bless you as you walk through life's beautiful journey.

May He be your Shepherd and guide you on your way and for all eternity.

2020 COMMUNION CLOTHING DRIVE

Do you have communion dresses, veils, suits, pants, shirts and other accessories that you would be willing to pass along to other families?

St. Charles Parish and School is collecting communion clothing that will be donated to families at St. Anthony School in Milwaukee. The Communion Clothing Drive takes place the weekends of July 25th and 26nd & August 1st and 2nd. During the weekends drop off the clothing as you enter or leave the church for Mass.

Thank you for your generosity. The families at St. Anthony's School will truly benefit from your kindness. For questions please email Terri Blazek, Outreach Services Committee Chair, at jtblazek@wi.rr.com.

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A single mother who has a child with special needs works two jobs and sacrifices much of her own pleasures in order to be available for her son. Being the best mother possible is important to her and brings her joy. We are willing to make great and often heroic sacrifices for those people and things that matter most to us. Unless there is something of obvious importance to us in our immediate path, we can easily approach life in a more haphazard and chaotic way. We jump from one thing to another, responding to whatever it is that is competing for our attention at that moment. When everything is important, nothing is important.

If we do not wear the right pair of glasses, we can get all too easily caught up in the superficial stuff and neglect paying attention to the things that really matter. The kingdom of God is like the pearl of great price that is worth selling everything for so that it can be obtained. Based on where I invest my time and energy each day, I really wonder whether I am serving God's kingdom or my own. Have you ever considered tracking how you spend your time? You may be surprised! We allow our agendas to set the clock of our lives. We forget that joy and a true sense of purpose are not going to be found in following that timepiece. Joy is the expression of the happiness that is discovered when living in the kingdom of God. When our agenda matches God, not only do we leap for joy but God leaps with delight as well. Our well-being is what matters most to God.

Can you imagine God delighting in you? It is easy to deaden our senses to the whole reality of God and the joy that living the Gospel can bring. The demands of secular life and the agendas competing for our attention can quickly do that. We can get tired and spiritually apathetic. But if we can see our way through all of the conflicting voices and hear the voice of God, we can rediscover our zeal and passion and redirect our efforts. When we begin to see as God sees, we can rise each day and notice what really needs our attention and embrace it with exuberance. Be careful, though. It may not be what we originally had on our list. Responding to it, however, will be worth putting everything else aside.

THEN IN HIS JOY HE GOES AND SELLS

Matthew 13:44

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What do you really hope and hunger for? We are most familiar with our physical hungers and cravings as they are quite obvious. What we don't always realize is that we also have emotional and spiritual hungers. Many are starving for acceptance and love. Many others hunger for a sense of purpose, more focused direction, and deeper connection and meaning. Our hungers can easily get confused. We think we are in need of one thing but are actually being driven by another. We need to recognize and pursue our spiritual hungers. If we do not do so, we will attempt to fill these needs with lesser, and not always healthier, things. God, ultimately through the Eucharist, is the only One who can quench our more profound thirsts. Have we discovered this yet?

The annual Mass of Atonement will be held on July 28th at 5:30 pm at St. Dominic Parish at 18255 W. Capital Drive in Brookfield, Wisconsin. This Mass is one of the ways that the current leadership of the archdiocese publicly atones for the clergy abuse crisis and scandal. This year's Mass will be available for limited, in-person attendance. Due to COVID-19 health concerns, the Mass will be recorded, closed-captioned and made accessible through the Archdiocese of Milwaukee website for those unable to attend in-person. Please visit www.archmil.org for more information. We invite you to join us in support of the survivors, family members, and communities that have spoken or unspoken stories of survival and pain. If you are unable to attend, we would ask that you please remember all those that suffer from the wounds of abuse in your prayers for peace, healing, and justice. Also St. Charles will hand out the book "The Letter to a Suffering Church" during this weekend's Masses, July 25th & 26th.
