15 minutes every day in prayer with Scripture!

—Reflection questions for Sunday, August 23rd—

- We hear today Paul's concluding remarks from Romans 9:11 (reflections on God's plan of salvation for Jews and Gentiles). Paul contends that God's ways are beyond our understanding. Do you find this comforting or unsettling?
- Jesus informs Peter that his confession of him as "the Messiah, the Son of the living God" is divinely inspired. How do you imagine Peter personally reacted to the news of this revelation?

"IT IS TIME TO STAND AND FIGHT":
CANON LAW IN A TIME OF SPIRITUAL AND CULTURAL WARFARE

Livestream the Talk on Wednesday, August 19 at 6:30 pm

Bishop Robert Barron, in his Letter to a Suffering Church, repeatedly makes the point that Catholics must "stand and fight" - not just despite the recent crises that have weakened the Catholic Church in the USA but because of such crises. Barron claims it is time for every Catholic - not just clergy or religious - to "stand and fight" by proclaiming their Catholic identity, by practicing their faith, and by proudly defending the Church as the presence of Christ in today's world.

But what does this look like in practice? What kind of "battles" should we fight, and what "weapons" should we use? And what does canon law have to do with all this? Does the presence of rights and law in the Church have anything to offer in light of today's spiritual and cultural crises?

Michael Mazza, a Milwaukee native and civil attorney presently studying canon law in Italy, will address these topics in a talk Wednesday, August 19 at 6:30 pm. The talk will be live-streamed on the parish website. All are invited to this stimulating and inspiring presentation.

In addition to many years of work in the Church as a teacher and catechist, Michael has over 20 years of experience practicing civil law in the US. He has one year remaining at the Pontifical University of the Holy Cross in Rome for a license in canon law.

If you would like to support Michael, you may do so through our e-giving on our website or drop off a check in the parish office.

A Conversation with Deacon Michael Malucha

A BACKGROUND OF FAITH

The eldest of four children, Dcn. Michael Malucha and his family joined St. Charles Parish at the beginning of his senior year of high school. He credits his parents Julie and Joe Malucha for providing a strong, faith-filled background while he was growing up.

"I'm grateful to God for my parents," he says. "They really introduced my siblings and I to the Lord. On Saturday evenings after dinner, we would always pray with the Sunday readings together and talk about what stood out, what we believe. Being able to live our faith at home was a great foundation of growing with the Lord."

While his family started attending St. Charles, Dcn. Michael was finishing his time at Marquette University High School, a place that proved to be very influential as he considered his future.

"I went on a semi-silent retreat in Canada after sophomore year," he says. "During Eucharistic Adoration, I received a still, quiet invitation from the Lord to draw closer to Him, beginning my journey to the priesthood."

"Our son began verbalizing an interest in discerning a call to the priesthood in the summer before his senior year of high school," his mother Julie says. "In Michael's discernment journey, I have learned that God's plans are always way better than mine."

He applied to the seminary during his senior year, and after speaking with Fr. Luke Strand, Vocation Director, Dcn. Michael committed to his path to the priesthood.

WHEN IN ROME

As he begins his eighth year of seminary in Fall, Dcn. Michael is reflecting on his four years at St. Joseph Seminary at Loyola University-Chicago as well as his three years at The Pontifical North American College (the American seminary) in Rome.

"Life in the seminary has been what I expected in terms of the formation for priesthood," he says. "There's a focus on growing in virtue, academic studies, community life, and service work. In the same way, though, it has been unexpected. I couldn't imagine all of these places that the Lord would bring me — parishes, Rome. All of these places and all of these people have fostered my love of the Church."

Dcn. Michael was invited to attend the American seminary in Rome during his senior year of college. Nearly two hundred seminarians from all across the United States are there, and usually, one seminarian from Milwaukee goes every year.

"It was humbling," he says of the invitation. "I was privileged to go there. To live in Rome is to be in a city so important to our Catholic faith. To be close to the Holy Father, stop in beautiful churches, and see tangible signs of our faith is incredible."

Although the coronavirus pandemic cut his time in Rome short, Dcn. Michael enjoyed his final few weeks there before returning home. It also gave him a chance to reunite with his family sooner than previously planned.

"Michael's Ordination day was the first time we had seen him since he left for Rome," Julie says. "Our emotional reunion was one of pure joy and thanksgiving to God for the invitation He presented to Michael to be ordained in Milwaukee with his classmates here instead of at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome."

PREPARING FOR THE PRIESTHOOD

Dcn. Michael is actively preparing for and anticipating his ordination to the priesthood.

"I'm very much excited and looking forward to the priesthood," he says. "Ordination day is hugely important, and everything changes on that day. But it's just one day — everyday after that is just as important."

He and his fellow deacons will be going through a process of discernment for placement at parishes in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee.

"We will meet with pastors at parishes who have positions open as well as with the Priest Placement Board to determine what might be a good fit," he says.

They will then be notified of their placement a few weeks before ordination.

"There's a great freedom," he says. "Wherever I go, I'll be in a parish community. This is what the Lord wants me to do."

Both Dcn. Michael and his mother Julie have words of wisdom for those considering a vocation to the priesthood.

"We fall into a trap that we have to do everything by ourselves, figure out the right path," he says. "The Church will discern with you, help you figure out what the Lord wants you to do. Make yourself available, even if it's only for one year. Be not afraid."

"I think the best thing to do to help teens consider this vocation is to talk about discernment from the time children are little," she adds. "Seek out the many opportunities within the Archdiocese and beyond to grow in faith and your relationship with Jesus. God is in control, and He knows who He is calling."

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME

Dcn. Michael is very happy to be back home after spending the last seven years at seminaries near and far.

"It's a great opportunity to be back in Milwaukee," he says. "Having the gift of time with my family and friends is a gift."

He served as deacon at St. Francis Borgia throughout July and is now attending St. Francis de Sales Seminary alongside Dcn. Tim Schumaker.

Please keep Dcn. Michael Malucha and his fellow seminarians in your prayers as they continue following after our Lord!
