Reflection questions for Sunday, September 20th

- While still in captivity in Babylon, Isaiah urged the Israelites to seek the Lord, for the Lord is near even in exile. When have you felt the Lord's presence in dark periods of your life?
- In his letter to the Philippians written from prison and toward the end of his life, Paul reflects on his spiritual dilemma between life and death. How do you work through spiritual dilemmas?
- Jesus' parable of the workers in the vineyard of the Lord offers us important insights into the Kingdom of Heaven and God's generosity. To whom do you think this parable is unsettling?

A Conversation with Dcn. Rob Mitchell

AN INDIRECT PATH

A parishioner for about ten years, you may have seen Dcn. Rob Mitchell and his wife Julie at St. Charles before. After four years of intense study, he is delighted to be ordained into a life of service as a deacon. If you ask him, though, he will tell you that his path to becoming a deacon took a bit more time.

“I was raised without religious instruction,” Rob says. “I was baptized into an evangelical denomination at the age of 27 after my first real encounter with scripture.”

It was years later after continuing to read scripture and exploring church history that Rob turned to the Catholic Church and signed up for RCIA, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, and was welcomed into the Church in 2002.

“I consider the Catholic faith a real gift,” he says. “I’m very fortunate to have been given the fullness of the faith.”

It was also during his time in the RCIA program that becoming a deacon entered his mind.

“My first pastor encouraged me,” he says. “A year after the end of the program, he gave me a piece of paper with the phone number of the Diaconate Office.”

But due to life circumstances, it took another dozen or so years before applying and completing discernment classes. Rob began his studies in the diaconate program four years ago, attending classes on Tuesday evenings and all day every other Saturday. In addition, he is also the Executive Director of Holy Hill Basilica and National Shrine of Mary, Help of Christians.

“During formation, in addition to all the theology, you learn a lot about yourself, your strengths and weaknesses,” Rob says. “I like to give Dcn. Allen Olson credit for one of his quotes about formation. ‘It’s a lot of work, but it’s worth it. It’ll change you, but it’s all good.’ I think I have become a better-rounded individual. I also hope I am a better husband and father after going through the process. Formation gave me the opportunity to recognize where I needed to grow and change.”

SHARING THE LIGHT

Dcn. Rob will be one of four men ordained on September 12 at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist. He will celebrate his Mass of Thanksgiving on September 13 at our 9 a.m. Mass.

Overall, his experience of becoming a deacon has been both rewarding and fulfilling. He is very much so looking forward to being a deacon and embracing the gifts God has bestowed upon him.

“I’m excited to share the light of Christ through word and service,” he says. “I’m not sure of all that lies ahead, but I’m open to whatever God has in store for me.”

Please join us in congratulating Dcn. Rob Mitchell when you see him at Mass!

THE PONTIFICAL GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION
HELD ON SEPTEMBER 12TH & 13TH

This year, due to the Coronavirus pandemic, it was not possible to take up the Good Friday Collection dedicated to supporting Christians living in the Land of Jesus.

This is why Pope Francis has accepted the request to move this gesture of sharing that concerns the whole Church to Sept. 13th.

Why September 13th, you may ask? Because it is the Sunday closest to the Feast of the Exultation of the Holy Cross, which we celebrate here with particular solemnity in Jerusalem. On this feast we remember how far the love of the son of God has come for us: giving His life on the Cross for our salvation and reconciling us to the Father and to each other. This gives birth to a new humanity founded on solidarity and love.

The collection in favor of the Holy Land is a small gesture of solidarity that the whole Church is called to make in order to support through the Custody of the Holy Land, the Christian communities that are in the Holy Land and feel the weight and also the glory of the Cross of Jesus on their shoulders.

This is what we have tried to do during an eight centuries-long history in the Holy Land, and this is thanks to the help of Christians from all over the world. This is what we hope to be able to continue to do thanks to the help of each of you on the Sept. 13th.

For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.

WE WILL SERVE THE LORD

A VIRTUAL EVENING FROM OUR HOME
FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25

For 17 years, the Annual St. Francis de Sales Seminary Dinner has been an amazing opportunity to welcome people into its mission. The pandemic may prevent them from gathering a thousand people at the Wisconsin Center this year, but it will not stop their efforts to share the Seminary's good news with everyone!

The Seminary will live stream their Annual Dinner program from the front steps of the Seminary located in St. Francis on Friday, September 25, beginning at 6:30 p.m. CDT. Please support the formation of holy priests by celebrating with us during the event, by praying for our men, and by contributing generously to their formation.

This year the Seminary is blessed with 60 (that's SIXTY!) seminarians. Six of those seminarians are part of the St. Charles community!

As health regulations will allow, people will be invited to register for in-person viewing; however, they expect most will watch online. A limited number will be allowed on a first-registered, first-served basis, so if you are one of the lucky ones, bring a lawn chair or blanket to the viewing.

To make a donation, register or watch the live stream, visit www.sfs.edu/AnnualDinner. There is no fee for online viewing.

WHY COME BACK TO MASS? FOR HEAVEN'S SAKE!

by Fr. Nick Baumgardner

Ideally there would be one Mass. Not one Mass per parish. Not one Mass per diocese. Not even one Mass per country. Just one Mass, period. And all of us—all the angels and saints, all the members of the Church in heaven and on earth—would participate in it at once. This, of course, is not currently possible. We're limited by space and time. And it will not be possible until the end of time when all the members of the Church are perfectly united with Jesus in heaven. But that doesn't mean we shouldn't attempt to realize this heavenly ideal as much as we can while still on earth.

Every time a member of the Church is missing from Mass, the ideal is less perfectly realized. The foretaste of heaven which we are meant to have, the glimpse of heaven which we are meant to see, is diminished. The Christian poet John Donne said that "any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind." That is true on a natural level, but it is even more true on a supernatural level. Any member's absence diminishes our worship, because we are all members of the same worshiping Body—the Mystical Body of Christ, which is the Church. We come to Mass not only for our own spiritual well-being, but for the spiritual well-being of the entire Church.

Since March 15, we have not been required to attend Mass in person on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. And our worship has been diminished because of it. The worship of God has still taken place, of course. It takes place at every Mass regardless of how many people attend. But its heavenly ideal has not been fully realized, not by a long shot. Coming back to Mass, participating in Mass in person in a full, active, and conscious manner, would go a long way to helping realize that ideal.

Beginning the weekend of September 20, we will once again be required to attend Mass in person on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. Why? For heaven's sake! Because we're made for heaven, and we're meant to begin to live the life of heaven while still on earth. That's why we come to Mass and that's why the Church requires us to do so: so that we might experience a foretaste of heaven, that we might catch a glimpse of it, while we're still on earth. When we don't attend Mass, not only are we depriving ourselves of participating in the heavenly life for which we are made, but we are diminishing our fellow parishioner's participation in that life. The foretaste becomes weaker, the vision dimmer—not just for you, not just for me, but for all of us.

That being said, the Church has always acknowledged, and continues to acknowledge, circumstances which may legitimately excuse someone from attending Mass in person on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. The Church's official law—called Canon Law—acknowledges that a "grave cause" may make it impossible for someone to do so (Canon 1248). Beginning on September 20 and going forward, what are some circumstances that would constitute a "grave cause" and legitimately excuse someone from attending Mass in person? Archbishop ListECKI has offered some examples in a recent letter: (1) If someone is sick. (2) If someone is caring for another person who is sick. For example, a parent caring for a sick child or for an elderly relative. (3) If someone is at risk because of age, underlying medical conditions, or a compromised immune system. These circumstances would legitimately excuse someone from attending Mass in person. Those who are legitimately excused, however, should still devote themselves to some suitable time of prayer as they are able. This could be done by watching a livestreamed Mass, praying with the Mass readings, or praying the rosary or another devotion.

These coming weeks and months offer us an opportunity to come to a deeper understanding and appreciation of the obligation to attend Mass in person on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. Perhaps you've fulfilled this obligation out of a well-formed habit over these past years. Perhaps you've gotten out of that habit in recent months. This is an opportunity to understand the reason for having that habit in the first place. It's so that you—and me—and all of us—can begin to live the life of heaven while still on earth. And how desperately do we need to live that life these days! 2020 has been challenging, but you can make it better by coming back to Mass. Do it! For heaven's sake!

LIVESTREAM CHRISM MASS - SEPTEMBER 14

When the Chrism Mass was postponed during Holy Week, it was announced that a new date would be determined. The Blessing of Oils and Consecration of the Chrism will take place during the celebration of the Mass for the Exaltation of the Holy Cross on Monday evening, September 14, 2020. Due to the social distance guidelines, attendance and concelebration of the Chrism Mass will be by invitation only. The Mass will be live streamed from the Cathedral. Please visit St. Charles website, under 'News Stories', for the link to watch the livestream Mass.
