Reflection questions for Sunday, October 11th

- Isaiah prophesied God's salvation and delivery for all the nations, not just for Israel. In what ways do you see this prophecy fulfilled today?
- As his letter to the Philippians draws to a close, Paul speaks of his constant focus on Christ regardless of his life's circumstances. How do you draw strength from Christ in the ebb and flow of your life?
- Jesus' parable of the wedding feast speaks to the importance of being properly prepared for the return of Christ. How would you assess your own spiritual readiness for Jesus' Second Coming and the final judgment?

Let's Welcome
St. Charles'
Newest Seminarian!

We welcome our newest Saint Francis de Sales seminarian intern, David Sweeney, who is in his third year at the seminary.

David introduced himself at all the Masses the weekend of September 26 & 27. This is David's first year of theology, which is when seminarians are assigned to a teaching parish for four years to walk with them on their journey to the priesthood.

David grew up in Brookfield, went to St. John Vianney grade school and Marquette High School, and then to UW-Madison, where he studied finance and accounting. He worked for an investment banking firm in Milwaukee for three years before making the decision to enter the seminary after it became increasingly clear that God wanted him to be a priest. You will get to know more about David in an upcoming bulletin feature article.

BECOMING FULLY CATHOLIC
ST. CHARLES PARISH & SCHOOL

Where do you find joy? I don't mean mere happiness, or even a moment of good and boisterous laughter- I mean joy- a lasting, knowing happiness that lingers even when good feelings fade and the knowledge that Jesus Christ is always chasing after you. When does this joy come to the front of your mind?

About a month ago, we welcomed our final member of the most recent Becoming Fully Catholic (BFC) cohort into the Catholic Church. Her baptism was not only the culmination of years of meetings, discipleship, and service in this group's apprenticeship in the Catholic faith (welcome to all of our former seekers – they're all initiated!), but it also gave us our Easter back. Many of you came to me after Mass on August 15th and expressed a great, intangible joy due to witnessing this.

One of my favorite children's books about the Faith ends with these lines:

This party in heaven continues today,
The joy of God's love will not fade away.

And you can go, too!
If you share in His love,
Join with the saints
Up in heaven above.

That's why we love Easter,
Since thanks to this day,
We can see God in heaven,
Forever! to stay.

(God the Father and the Best Day Ever, by Gracie Jagla)

As we enter into a new season of Becoming Fully Catholic, already with many new seekers who want this joy more fully for themselves, we ask for your continued prayers over this ministry. Pray for our seekers and inquirers, for the continued success of St. Charles BFC, for our hardworking team, and for God's will to be made known to us. Pray for those who hear the still, small voice calling them to Become Fully Catholic. For courage, for unapologetic boldness in following Jesus Christ, and for yourselves- anyone reading this knows someone who is searching for something. We challenge you to pray for the courage to bring them to St. Charles.

Thanks be to God, who gives us victory,
Jess Panlener, staff minister for Become Fully Catholic (BFC)

MORNING OF GRACE RETREAT

October 10 at St. Charles Parish!

Join your fellow sisters in Christ by coming together for a morning of reflection, sacramental grace and a rebuilding of our relationship with God on October 10 in the church! This event is being held simultaneously at parishes throughout the Archdiocese in lieu of the annual Women of Christ Conference that has traditionally been held in November. The morning will start with Mass by our very own Fr. Nick Baumgardner at 7:15 am, followed by pre-recorded, short presentations by Fr. Jacob Strand, Fr. Patrick Burns and Fr. Nick (all former or current St. Charles rockstar priests!). Confession and Adoration will also be available with the morning concluding no later than 10:45 am. There is no fee; however, we only ask that you register due to a limited amount of seating in order to follow the distancing and safety protocols set by the Archdiocese. Registration info can be found at WomenofChrist.net and on the St. Charles website under News. When registering, you will need to select St. Charles Parish since other parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Milwaukee will also be serving as host sites for this retreat. Any questions, feel free to email womenofchrist@gmail.com.

Respect for Life Month
Look for the pink & blue flags at St. Charles!

During October, there will be pink & blue flags placed on the grounds at St. Charles. October is Respect for Life Month. The St. Charles Respect for Life Ministry asks that everyone continue to pray for the Holy Innocents who are aborted every hour in the United States. We also ask that you pray for all the mothers and fathers who are seeking our love and forgiveness. Please know your prayers are being heard by our loving and merciful Father as Wisconsin abortions are decreasing.

"By abortion, the mother does not learn to love, but kills even her own child to solve her problems. And by abortion, the father is told that he does not have to take any responsibility at all for the child he has brought into the world. That father is likely to put other women into the same trouble. So abortion just leads to more abortion. Any country that accepts abortion is not teaching the people to love, but to use any violence to get what they want. That is why the greatest destroyer of love and peace is abortion," - Mother Teresa

Support Our Grocers & Help St. Charles

Please use the drop slot located next to the Parish Office to deposit the receipts. Please do not turn in Pick 'n Save or McDonald's receipts as those programs have been discontinued. Also we are not accepting Sendik's receipts at this time.

PLEASE NOTE: When turning in your receipts, remember that we need the whole receipt. Do not cut the top or bottom off of any receipt or we cannot use it.

Also, please turn in your receipts weekly because they expire after six months. Please do not staple, tape, roll or rubberband them together and keep them as FLAT as possible. Also no duplicates. Thank you for supporting St. Charles.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Who has authority over God's kingdom? While we know that the obvious answer is Jesus, that is not the answer our lives always reveal. We struggle with wanting control over God's kingdom. We wrestle with ownership, privilege, status, and the protection of our rights. However, at the end of the day nothing in this world or in the one to come belongs to us. All that we see and know to be true belong to God, and Jesus is the only one who has any authority. How often do we defer any of our decision making to God? We often conduct our business as if we are the owner, lord and master of it all, but sadly we are not. God gives us the means and the potential to bear good Gospel-centered fruit. This desire and capacity exist within each individual. Unless we really acknowledge and accept who is ultimately in charge, the type of love, justice, peace, and other good fruits God desires for the world will never be realized.

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Do you ever wonder why things never seem to come together? We see glimpses of consistency, equity, justice, peace, harmony, and wellbeing, but it always falls short. Human life is still expendable and manipulated, people are used for personal advancement, countries are at war, the economy continues to face turbulence, anger and frustration are widespread, and happiness is the possession of just a few and not the many. Could it be that we are serving the wrong kingdom? We keep trying to make our kingdom work and find ourselves still scratching our heads after repeatedly failed attempts to do so. It is almost as if people are saying, "we'll get it right this time if we do ...," as if some new and secret innovation has yet to be tried.

We serve God's kingdom. We may not like hearing that, but it is true. God did not make only a few of us. God made all of humanity, and all of humanity is called into service. How often do we defer any of our decision making to God? Secular leaders enjoy winking at the Sacred Scriptures and using them when they advance a cause, but are they really listened to? Even those who consider themselves believers tend to sift through God's Word, taking what seems to fit and apply and discarding the rest. After all, if we were really serving God's kingdom, we would see an abundance of fruit testifying to this fact. But what's growing on the vine is anything other than good Gospel-centered fruit.

Nothing in this world or the next belongs to us. We have such a hard time believing this and live our lives as if everything belongs to us. And, the fruit does not lie. Trees that are neglected and not properly fertilized reveal that fact. They cannot keep these deep secrets from being discovered. If God's kingdom was really being served, then life would have looked much differently after the crucifixion. By now, there would be plenty of fantastic fruit to harvest in abundance: faith, hope, love, prudence, temperance, justice, and fortitude. Do we see these in abundance around us? Why not?

Still we grapple with ownership, privilege, status, and the protection of our rights. It's all about us and what we want, think we need, and expect to acquire. When did this change of focus occur? We may be struggling with this since humanity's day in the garden and have never understood that the focus cannot be on us and the apple but on God and God's justice. Maybe the only answer is that the Kingdom be taken from us and given to someone who is willing to do a better job. Is that the fate we really want?
