Reflection questions for Sunday, November 8th

- Our Jewish sage personifies wisdom as someone eager to be found by those seeking her. Is the virtue of wisdom something you actively seek?
- Paul teaches the believers in Thessalonica about the sequence of events leading to the end-times. When do you find yourself thinking about the return of Christ and the final judgment?
- Jesus' parable of the ten virgins is a lesson about being prepared for the Second Coming of Christ. How prepared are you for this event?

WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

SOLEMNITY OF All SAINTS

I remember as a child the meticulousness my father would bring to a task. Whether it be tending to a chore in the yard, repairing something, or painting a room, the tiniest of every detail demanded his attention. He had great patience. I benefited greatly by his example and remember these lessons well. We all need examples to follow. It is important to identify folks who excel at simple things and show us how to do things well. There are those among us and those who have gone before us who serve as these models and witnesses. They are ordinary people who in their "extraordinary ordinariness" capture our attention and allow us to see things more clearly.

These are the prophets, martyrs, teachers, witnesses, heralds, and innovators who bring a single-minded devotion to God to even the simplest of tasks they perform. They have an openness to being used and become vessels of Divine justice, mercy, and presence. They call us to the "more" of life and point us to the Gospel in all of its simplicity and splendor. They remind us of the little ones of the Kingdom and the values we all need to cultivate and possess. They are the poor in spirit, the meek, the merciful, and the peacemaker who often are rejected not only by those who have far different agendas but by those you think would welcome them.

All of the saints in heaven and on earth form this cloud of witnesses who journey with us as we make our way through life. They offer us inspiration, wisdom, intercession, and support. They direct us toward true happiness and remind us that we are all called to be saints. All it takes is desire, love, and fidelity. There is much we can learn from the official saints of the church. Their guidance is ever before us and ever with us. But there is also a lot to learn from the unofficial saints of the church. They sit beside us every Sunday, are our neighbors and ordinary people we meet every day. Because of the devotedness of their faith, they remind us to keep going, remain focused, and cultivate purpose and meaning, and give voice to those who have none. The inspiration is all around us.

Pay attention to the details. Do what you do with great love. Know that you are not alone. Believe that you can persevere. Have great faith.

PRIEST, PROPHET, KING

ADULT CATECHESIS FOR ADVENT

On Tuesdays, Nov. 10th thru Dec. 15th, from 7 pm to 8:30 pm our parish will begin Bishop Robert Barron's DVD-based Study Program: Priest, Prophet, King.

Jesus is the Anointed One – the ultimate priest, prophet and king foreshadowed throughout the Hebrew Scriptures. Join us as we deepen our relationship with Jesus Christ.

Explore the biblical archetypes of priest, prophet and king and see how Jesus is the ultimate fulfillment of each one. Throughout this experience, you will better understand who Jesus really is and also realize your own priestly, prophetic and kingly mission.

Due to safe distancing, we only have 50 spots available. To register please visit the St. Charles Parish website, click on the "News" story and then click on the Google Form link to sign up. For more information, please contact Jess Panlener, Director of Discipleship and Evangelization, at (262) 367-0800, ext. 214 or jpanlener@stcharleshartland.org.

If you would like to consider helping someone living on a limited income, please donate today. The donations of food and hygiene items you place in the SVdP barrel will be shared with those who are hungry. The monies you place in the SVdP collection box will be used to help those with no other resources to pay rent, security deposits, utility bills, vehicle repairs, or purchase household goods and clothing. Gift cards you donate will stock the pantry and provide groceries for holiday meals.

If you are interested in joining our ministry, please contact us at 262-367-0800. If you need assistance, we can be reached at that same number. If you need food, or know someone who does, the pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland. It is open Tuesdays between 10 AM and noon. It is open evenings on the second and fourth week of the month between 5:30 PM and 7 PM. Protective face masks are required in the pantry.

Meet Our Teaching Parish Seminarians (Part 2 of 2)

Have you had a chance to meet our Teaching Parish seminarians Robert Ross and David Sweeney yet? This is David's first year at St. Charles and Robert's second year of the four total years they each will spend here. Please help us welcome them and keep reading to learn more about them!

MEET DAVID

David grew up locally in Brookfield and took an indirect path to the seminary. After attending college at UW-Madison, he worked at an investment banking firm for three years. However, he first had the thought of becoming a priest during his sophomore year of college and applied to the seminary five years later after deciding that it was the path he was meant to be on.

"After catching up with a friend who was in the seminary, I received a voicemail from Fr. Luke Strand, Milwaukee's Vocation Director," he says. "This began a period of much more intentional discernment, including retreats and spiritual direction. I learned that thoughts and desires to become a priest weren't external impositions from God on my mind. Rather, they came from within. They revealed the deepest desires of my heart, desires God had placed there when he formed my heart."

Although his experience at the seminary has been different from the corporate life he experienced after college, he is finding his time there to be filled with joy.

"We live a privileged rhythm of daily life at the seminary," he says. "We pray, we study, we eat, we work, we play — and it's all done in a community of sixty men striving for a very unique vocation. One of my favorite moments of each day is at the end of evening prayer, all sixty of us sing the Salve Regina together in the chapel, raising our voices in praise and supplication of our Blessed Mother."

Similarly to Robert, he is pleased to be at St. Charles to learn more about our parish.

"I look forward to watching Fr. Ken and Fr. Nick live out their priesthood in the parish, seeing the faithful live out Christian marriages and lives of Christian love, and coming to know Christ himself through the people of St. Charles."

Please keep David, Robert, and Dcn. Tim (in his final year here) in your prayers as they continue their studies at the seminary!
