THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION
2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

A pregnant woman was walking in the store and met an old friend. Her friend exclaimed, "You are absolutely beaming!" The new life God placed in her womb radiated throughout her body. It was brightly visible on her face and in her eyes. Transformation and change usually happen from the inside out. It is very rare that simply imposing structure from the outside does any good. Yes, it is true that routines and habits can change when things are done differently. But, for this change to last, there has to be an interior renewal and metamorphosis, as well. Simply regulating behavior and bringing someone into conformity with accepted protocols doesn't mean their heart and soul come with them.

Peter was a homeless man who lived in a very remote and rudimentary tent community. He was happy to make his daily trip to McDonald's and always welcomed a gift card or two so that he could buy some coffee and something to eat. A generous advocate worked to secure him an apartment in hopes of moving Peter out of his makeshift housing and into something safer. Peter finally got the grand tour of his new "digs," received his own key, remarked how wonderful the place was, closed the door behind him when they left and never returned. He preferred his tent. No matter how much things changed on the outside, Peter was happy where he was. A poignant lesson was learned that day.

How is your Lent going? By now you ought to have a sense of whether you're really "into it" this year and something transformational is happening. For many, it's only the stuff on the outside that changes for a few weeks and then they return to business as usual. For others, there are some real inner changes happening that are deepening their relationships with God, others, self, and creation. If we are serious about moving to a new place and radiating with the presence of new life and joy, then we have to clear the way to listen for God's call. Then, there is God's request to change things up a bit and order our lives differently. After realizing we have been called and given a mission, we have to trust that this is where we need to be. And then, after all of this hard work we are asked to act. The fruit that is revealed will indicate whether our journey is authentic. The brilliance of conversion will begin to shine on our faces as we contemplate the One to whom we are asked to listen.

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Reflection questions for Sunday, March 7th

- In God's revelation to Moses of His "10 Commandments," seven of the ten Commandments regulate how we are to relate to each other. Which of these seven Commandments challenges you most?
- Paul speaks of Jesus as both the "power of God and the wisdom of God." How could you prove Paul's assertion to a non-believer?
- John connects Jesus' cleansing of the Temple in Jerusalem to Jesus' bodily resurrection from the dead with a quote from Psalm 69: "Zeal for your house will consume me." During this season of Lent, how passionate is your faith?

TRANSFORMED TESTIMONIAL LENTEN VIDEOS

This year, St. Charles will be releasing a Transformed Testimonial Video every week throughout Lent. These videos highlight how parishioners have grown in the areas of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving through their participation in a Small Group. The new videos will be released every Friday, and all videos will be on our website during Lent.

We created these videos to show our parishioners that Small Groups are an integral part of our community at St. Charles. Small Groups are one of the ways parishioners meet Christ, know Christ, love Christ and serve Christ. We'd like you to take the Lenten Season to prayerfully consider joining a Small Group for the Easter Season. Sign Ups will begin the weekend of April 10th/11th.

Start the process of prayer now, in Lent, by taking the 1% Prayer Challenge, which is spending just 15 minutes a day in prayer. You can find details on how to do this both on page 4 in the bulletin and on our website on the Small Groups Videos 'News' page.

Use this Lenten Season to open the Scriptures a little every day and ask the Lord if He's calling you to go deeper in your faith by joining a Small Group after Easter.

Please contact Maria Notch at 262-367-0800 Ext. 220 if you want to learn more about Small Groups.

DANIELLE CRUISE SHARES WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN A SMALL GROUP!

How has your participation in a Small Group impacted your personal prayer life?

Of all the things that have strengthened my relationship with God and led me closer to Him, the small group I attend has been the most impactful. In terms of my prayer life specifically, the small group I attend has opened my eyes to different ways to pray just by listening to others share their stories, how they pray, and praying together. We also share sources-books, upcoming conferences, prayer opportunities, etc.-with each other, which has given me so many new opportunities to learn and pray. And the prayer intentions of our group are always emailed each week, so I can pray with and for my group members, even when I am unable to attend, which helps me stay connected.

What do you enjoy most about being in a St. Charles Small Group?

Learning from others! I have learned so much about Catholicism, prayer and even parenting through our small group! I love that everyone feels safe to share, and we all learn and grow by listening to other's perspectives and experiences. I walk away each week refreshed and inspired!

In what ways have you grown in your Catholic faith because of your time in Small Group?

The ways I have grown are immeasurable. I have learned so much about scripture, prayer, and Catholicism in general. I now seek ways to deepen my faith outside of group because of what we discuss within our group.

Has your experience in Small Group enhanced your Mass experience? If so, how?

Each week our Small Group reads and discusses the upcoming Sunday Gospel. This has significantly enhanced my Mass experience because I come into Mass having some background about what we will hear that week. Being a mom of three boys who are still pretty young, Mass can be a challenging time. Before Small Group, I often didn't get much out of it because I was distracted with the kids. Now I come to Mass with some background on the Gospel, and I love listening to the homily to hear the priest's perspective and compare it to our discussion at small group.

What would you share with someone contemplating joining a Small Group?

I encourage anyone who has thought about joining a small group to give it a try and come with an open heart! Don't be discouraged if the group you join doesn't feel like the right fit. There are so many Small Groups offered at St. Charles-you may end up trying a few before you find what's best for you.

Describe any fears or anxieties you may have had about joining a Small Group and how do you feel now?

I was definitely nervous when I went to Small Group the first few times. I was afraid that I wouldn't know as much as everyone else or that I would be put on the spot and wouldn't know what to say. But I quickly learned that no one is there to judge; we all have a unique perspective to offer and we can all learn from each other.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS ABOUT LENT & LENTEN PRACTICES

Q. Why do we say that there are forty days of Lent? When you count all the days from Ash Wednesday through Holy Saturday, there are 46.

A. It might be more accurate to say that there is the "forty day fast within Lent." Historically, Lent has varied from a week to three weeks to the present configuration of 46 days. The forty day fast, however, has been more stable. The Sundays of Lent are certainly part of the Time of Lent, but they are not prescribed days of fast and abstinence.

Q. So does that mean that when we give something up for Lent, such as candy, we can have it on Sundays?

A. Apart from the prescribed days of fast and abstinence on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday and the days of abstinence every Friday of Lent, Catholics have traditionally chosen additional penitential practices for the whole Time of Lent. These practices are disciplinary in nature and often more effective if they are continuous, i.e., kept on Sundays as well. That being said, such practices are not regulated by the Church but by individual conscience.

Q. I understand that all the Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence from meat, but I'm not sure what is classified as meat. Does meat include chicken and dairy products?

A. Abstinence laws consider that meat comes only from animals such as chickens, cows, sheep or pigs - all of which live on land. Birds are also considered meat. Abstinence does not include meat juices and liquid foods made from meat. Thus, such foods as chicken broth, consomme, soups cooked or flavored with meat, meat gravies or sauces, as well as seasonings or condiments made from animal fat are technically not forbidden. However, moral theologians have traditionally taught that we should abstain from all animal-derived products (except foods such as gelatin, butter, cheese and eggs, which do not have any meat taste). Fish are a different category of animal. Salt and freshwater species of fish, amphibians, reptiles, (cold-blooded animals) and shellfish are permitted.

Q. I've noticed that restaurants and grocery stores advertise specials on expensive types of fish and seafood on Fridays during Lent. Some of my Catholic friends take advantage of these deals, but somehow I don't feel right treating myself to the lobster special on Fridays during Lent.

A. While fish, lobster, and other shellfish are not considered meat and can be consumed on days of abstinence, indulging in the lavish buffet at your favorite seafood place sort of misses the point. Abstaining from meat and other indulgences during Lent is a penitential practice. On the Fridays of Lent, we remember the sacrifice of Christ on Good Friday and unite ourselves with that sacrifice through abstinence and prayer.

Q. I understand that Catholics ages 18 to 59 should fast on Ash Wednesday and on Good Friday, but what exactly are the rules for these fasts?

A. Fasting on these days means we can have only one full, meatless meal. Some food can be taken at the other regular meal times if necessary, but combined they should be less than a full meal. Liquids are allowed at any time, but no solid food should be consumed between meals.

Q. Are there exemptions other than for age from the requirement to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday?

A. Those that are excused from fast and abstinence outside the age limits include the physically or mentally ill including individuals suffering from chronic illnesses such as diabetes. Also excluded are pregnant or nursing women. In all cases, common sense should prevail, and ill persons should not further jeopardize their health by fasting.

BETTER MEALS IN MADAGASCAR

In Madagascar, half of all children are undernourished. That means 50% of kids won't grow to reach their full potential. But communities are changing this by focusing on improving health and nutrition. What role has food played in your life? How can you help those who lack access to enough nutritious food. Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

Operation Rice Bowl began at St. Charles on Ash Wednesday and ends on Holy Thursday. Instead of putting your pocket change into the family penny jar, please consider giving this Lent to other families who need your help. Rice Bowls are still available in the Parish Office. Thank you for your support of this program!

PARISH UPDATE & THE GIFT OF GIVING DURING LENT

Dear St. Charles Parishioners,

As your pastor, I want you to know that I am required to be a good steward of our parish resources and to balance the budget. With this in mind, I am informing you of a very difficult decision made by me and the parish leadership. After careful consideration of the financial stresses of the past Covid year, we have released four persons from our staff, three part-time and one full-time. I am so grateful to all of these individuals for sharing their talents and being dedicated to St. Charles, so I ask for your prayers as we say goodbye and during their transition. If you would like to send a card of appreciation and encouragement to Kathleen Latzke-Daley, Joann Papa, Laura Zgrabik and Jess Panlener, please drop them off at the Parish Office and we will forward them. This is not to be taken as a sign that we are a struggling parish. We are not. It is a sign that in tough times it is important to be prudent. With the help of St. Charles Borromeo, our patron, we will come through.

May you have all God's Blessings,

Fr. Ken Omernick

February 17th to March 28th

40 Day prayer partners are there to support the mothers of unborn babies with prayer, comforting words and practical information. Many are directed to the Women's Care Center of Milwaukee for free counseling about life-saving alternatives.

Please join the St. Charles Respect for Life Ministry every Tuesday. We meet at 11:30 am in the St. Charles parking lot and carpool to Affiliated Medical Services, 1428 N Farwell Ave., Milwaukee. We peacefully pray outside the abortion clinic from noon until 2:00 pm.

Please note that if you are unable to join us in prayer during these times, please pray and fast for the unborn and their parents.

To learn more about 40 Days for Life, visit the Milwaukee website at 40daysforlife.com/local-campaigns/Milwaukee.
