PALM SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION

PALM SUNDAY PRAYER

Matthew 21:1-11; Psa 118:1-2;
Psa 118:19-29

Lord God,
I give you thanks, for you are good, and your mercy is endless. Here I stand, at the start of this holy week, this week in which your church remembers Jesus' passion and death,

And I am distracted by many things. Turn my eyes now to the One who comes in your name, the One who opens the gates of righteousness, the One who answers when we call.

I bless you, Lord, for shining your light upon me, and for sending your son to us, in human frailty. To walk the road we walk. Open my eyes that I may see Him coming,

And may praise Him with a pure heart. And may walk in the way of His suffering, and share also in His resurrection. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever.

Amen

DIFFERENCES IN HOLY WEEK AND EASTER SUNDAY THIS YEAR

Holy Week and Easter Sunday will look a little different this year due to COVID protocols. Here is what to expect:

HOLY THURSDAY: Please bring your bells to ring during the Gloria. Adoration will be in the church until midnight. Parishioners will be able to bring their Rice Bowls and Lenten alms to the Altar during offertory. There will not be foot washing, and the entire sanctuary will be stripped down after the conclusion of Mass.

GOOD FRIDAY: Adoration of the Cross will be "touch free," bowing and genuflecting only. Touching and/or kissing the Cross will not be allowed as a safety precaution. Baskets will be in the Narthex for the collection for the Holy Land.

EASTER SUNDAY: Reservations are required to reserve seats for our 7am, 9am, and 11am Masses. There will be no 6 pm Mass that evening. We are blessed to have so many of our parishioners register for our Easter Masses! If you were unable to register, please keep checking availability because it may change or consider joining us through our livestream on our website.

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION
PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Many struggle with Jesus. Some who consider themselves faithful hail him in their churches but still struggle to figure out what to do with him on our streets. The message is somehow more palatable when it echoes pious renderings and sentiments and involves singing hosannas during worship. It becomes a bit trickier when it gets to the part about changing the way we conduct the business of our lives, becoming more sensitive to the disadvantaged, poor, and marginalized, and living as servants of our Loving Creator. Ultimately, it is a struggle between wanting to be God ourselves and letting God be God as God is. That's why it's so easy to become hypocritical. We, like those who hailed Christ as he arrived in Jerusalem and sent Christ to the cross to die, also talk out of both sides of our mouths. We entertain what suits us at the time and walk away from the rest.

Many neglect God's beautiful creation because they prefer what humans have made instead. Progress isn't seen in preserving and enhancing what God has made but replacing it with something we believe is better and more useful. The earth, flowers, and animals are all expendable if they stand in the way of the "more" we want to achieve. We seek to remove as many obstacles and hurdles as possible in search of the easiest, quickest, and most efficient path we can find. We have created drugs and laws that preserve our free choice, even though it may mean setting aside God's vision and example. Why suffer when we can easily be put to rest? Why endure insult or injury when we can retaliate, eliminate or subdue? Why accept life when it is acceptable to choose otherwise? We want to be God and resist accepting the fact that our real Creator has already given us the blueprints for the life we need to live in the Beatitudes and in the example of his Passion. We don't like being stewards and managers and really want the power to do as we wish and desire. We want to create our own way.

Where has the true, effective Christian voice been through all of the wars and violence, prejudice and unjust conquests, abuse of human beings and attempted extinctions of nationalities, the establishments of procedures and protocols that serve only a few and not the many and all of the injustices and exploitations that are a part of our human history? A few courageous prophets have stood up and out throughout all of the comings and goings of our human journey with many receiving the same fate as the Crucified One we hail this week. Some still walk among us as shining stars showing us how it really can be. How would Jesus' journey have ended if he lived life as we do? Unless we encounter the good with the bad, the just with the unjust, the grace with the sin, the glory with the cross, the death with the life, we most certainly risk rendering God obsolete. After all, haven't we already convinced ourselves that we can do better?

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Reflection questions for Sunday, April 4th

- We hear today part of the speech that Peter delivered in the household of Cornelius, a centurion and Gentile-believer in Christ. Peter bore witness to his experiences with Jesus, including Jesus' resurrection. To whom do you bear witness to your faith in the resurrected Jesus?
- Paul urges the Colossians to remain focused on Jesus' resurrection, ascension, and final return – to "seek what is above." What do you find appealing in this spiritual exercise?
- Mark's account of Jesus' resurrection focuses on the women's discovery of the empty tomb. In fact, Jesus risen from the tomb is the original ending of the Gospel of Mark. Why do you think Mark would end his Gospel with the empty tomb?

PALM SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION MARCH 28TH

Reflections from the Fathers of the Church

In His humility Christ entered the dark regions of our fallen world and He is glad that He became so humble for our sake, glad that He came and lived among us and shared in our nature in order to raise us up again to Himself. And even though we are told that He has now ascended above the highest heavens – the proof, surely, of His power and godhead – His love for man will never rest until He has raised our earthbound nature from glory to glory, and made it one with His own in heaven.

So let us spread before His feet, not garments or soulless olive branches, which delight the eye for a few hours and then wither, but ourselves, clothed in his grace, or rather, clothed completely in Him. We who have been baptized into Christ must ourselves be the garments that we spread before Him. Now that the crimson stains of our sins have been washed away in the saving waters of baptism and we have become white as pure wool, let us present the conqueror of death, not with mere branches of palms but with the real rewards of His victory. Let our souls take the place of the welcoming branches as we join today in the children's holy song: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Blessed is the king of Israel.

MONDAY OF HOLY WEEK MARCH 29TH

Reflections from the Fathers of the Church

[O]ur Lord and Savior Jesus Christ ... effected a wonderful exchange with us, through mutual sharing: we gave Him the power to die, He will give us the power to live.

The death of the Lord our God should not be a cause of shame for us; rather, it should be our greatest hope, our greatest glory. In taking upon Himself the death that He found in us, He has most faithfully promised to give us life in Him, such as we cannot have of ourselves.

He loved us so much that, sinless Himself, He suffered for us sinners the punishment we deserved for our sins. How then can He fail to give us the reward we deserve for our righteousness, for He is the source of righteousness? How can He, whose promises are true, fail to reward the saints when He bore the punishment of sinners, though without sin himself?

Brethren, let us then fearlessly acknowledge, and even openly proclaim, that Christ was crucified for us; let us confess it, not in fear but in joy, not in shame but in glory.

St. Augustine (b. 354 A.D.)

TUESDAY OF HOLY WEEK
MARCH 30TH

Reflections from the Fathers of the Church

To attain holiness, then, we must not only pattern our lives on Christ's by being gentle, humble and patient, we must also imitate Him in his death. Taking Christ for His model, Paul said that He wanted to become like Him in his death in the hope that He too would be raised from death to life.

We imitate Christ's death by being buried with Him in baptism. If we ask what this kind of burial means and what benefit we may hope to derive from it, it means first of all making a complete break with our former way of life, and our Lord Himself said that this cannot be done unless a man is born again. In other words, we have to begin a new life, and we cannot do so until our previous life has been brought to an end. When runners reach the turning point on a racecourse, they have to pause briefly before they can go back in the opposite direction. So also when we wish to reverse the direction of our lives, there must be a pause, or a death, to mark the end of one life and the beginning of another.

WEDNESDAY OF HOLY WEEK
MARCH 31ST

Reflections from the Fathers of the Church

Dear brethren, the Lord has marked out for us the fullness of love that we ought to have for each other. He tells us: No one has greater love than the man who lays down his life for his friends. In these words, the Lord tells us what the perfect love we should have for one another involves. John, the evangelist who recorded them, draws the conclusion in one of his letters: As Christ laid down His life for us, so we too ought to lay down our lives for our brothers...

This is surely what we read in the Proverbs of Solomon: If you sit down to eat at the table of a ruler, observe carefully what is set before you; then stretch out your hand, knowing that you must provide the same kind of meal yourself. What is this ruler's table if not the one at which we receive the Body and Blood of Him who laid down his life for us? What does it mean to sit at this table if not to approach it with humility? What does it mean to observe carefully what is set before you if not to meditate devoutly on so great a gift? What does it mean to stretch out one's hand, knowing that one must provide the same kind of meal oneself, if not what I have just said: as Christ laid down his life for us, so we in our turn ought to lay down our lives for our brothers? This is what the apostle Paul said: Christ suffered for us, leaving us an example, that we might follow in his footsteps.

This is what is meant by providing "the same kind of meal." This is what the blessed martyrs did with such burning love. If we are to give true meaning ... to our approaching the Lord's table in the very banquet at which they were fed, we must, like them, provide "the same kind of meal."

Reflections from the Fathers of the Church

There was much proclaimed by the prophets about the mystery of the Passover: that mystery is Christ...He was led forth like a lamb; He was slaughtered like a sheep. He ransomed us from our servitude to the world as He had ransomed Israel from the land of Egypt; He freed us from our slavery to the devil, as He had freed Israel from the hand of Pharaoh. He sealed our souls with His own Spirit and the members of our body with His own blood.

He is the One who covered death with shame and cast the devil into mourning, as Moses cast Pharaoh into mourning. He is the One who smote sin and robbed iniquity of offspring, as Moses robbed the Egyptians of their offspring. He is the One who brought us out of slavery into freedom, out of darkness into light, out of death into life, out of tyranny into an eternal kingdom; who made us a new priesthood, a people chosen to be his own for ever. He is the Passover that is our salvation.

GOOD FRIDAY APRIL 2ND

Reflections from the Fathers of the Church

There flowed from his side water and blood. Beloved, do not pass over this mystery without thought; it has yet another hidden meaning, which I will explain to you. I said that water and blood symbolized Baptism and the Holy Eucharist. From these two Sacraments the Church is born: from Baptism, the cleansing water that gives rebirth and renewal through the Holy Spirit, and from the Holy Eucharist. Since the symbols of Baptism and the Eucharist flowed from his side, it was from his side that Christ fashioned the Church, as he had fashioned Eve from the side of Adam. Moses gives a hint of this when he tells the story of the first man and makes him exclaim: Bone from my bones and flesh from my flesh! As God then took a rib from Adam's side to fashion a woman, so Christ has given us blood and water from his side to fashion the Church. God took the rib when Adam was in a deep sleep, and in the same way Christ gave us the blood and the water after His own death.

Do you understand, then, how Christ has united His bride to Himself and what food He gives us all to eat? By one and the same food we are both brought into being and nourished. As a woman nourishes her child with her own blood and milk, so does Christ unceasingly nourish with His own blood those to whom He Himself has given life.

HOLY SATURDAY APRIL 3TH

Reflections from the Fathers of the Church

Something strange is happening – there is a great silence on earth today, a great silence and stillness. The whole earth keeps silence because the King is asleep. The earth trembled and is still because God has fallen asleep in the flesh and He has raised up all who have slept ever since the world began. God has died in the flesh, and hell trembles with fear.

He has gone to [hell in] search for our first parent, as for a lost sheep. Greatly desiring to visit those who live in darkness and in the shadow of death, He has gone to free from sorrow the captives Adam and Eve, He who is both God and the son of Eve. The Lord approached [Adam and Eve] bearing the cross, the weapon that had won Him the victory ... [The Lord said:]

Rise, let us leave this place. The enemy led you out of the earthly paradise. I will not restore you to that paradise, but I will enthrone you in heaven. I forbade you the tree that was only a symbol of life, but see, I who am life itself am now one with you. I appointed cherubim to guard you as slaves are guarded, but now I make them worship you as God. The throne formed by cherubim awaits you, its bearers swift and eager. The bridal chamber is adorned, the banquet is ready, the eternal dwelling places are prepared, the treasure houses of all good things lie open. The kingdom of heaven has been prepared for you from all eternity.

EASTER SUNDAY APRIL 4TH

Reflections from the Fathers of the Church

The Lord, though He was God, became man. He suffered for the sake of those who suffer, He was bound for those in bonds, condemned for the guilty, buried for those who lie in the grave; but He rose from the dead, and cried aloud: Who will contend with me? Let Him confront me. I have freed the condemned, brought the dead back to life, raised men from their graves. Who has anything to say against me? I, He said, am the Christ; I have destroyed death, triumphed over the enemy, trampled hell underfoot, bound the strong one, and taken men up to the heights of heaven: I am the Christ.

Come, then, all you nations of men, receive forgiveness for the sins that defile you. I am your forgiveness. I am the Passover that brings salvation. I am the lamb who was immolated for you. I am your ransom, your life, your resurrection, your light, I am your salvation and your king. I will bring you to the heights of heaven. With my own right hand I will raise you up, and I will show you the eternal Father.

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: $25 Gift Cards to local grocery stores

Today is Palm Sunday and the beginning of Holy Week. Your Lenten almsgiving to SVdP helps feed, house, and clothe the poor. We wish to extend our gratitude to all who have supported SVdP and its food pantry. A special thank you to St. Charles' Cub Scout Pack 24 and Troop 224 for their Scouting For Food drive. The Scouts' efforts have filled the shelves of our St. Charles' SVdP food pantry and will bless many needy families..

If you need assistance or would like information on becoming a member of SVdP, please contact us at 262-367-0800. If you need food, the pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland. It is open Tuesdays between 10:00 AM and noon. Evening hours are on the second and fourth Tuesday of the month between 5:30 PM and 7 PM. Masks are required.

The food pantry will close when Arrowhead Schools close for inclement weather or when the food pantry manager deems conditions are unsafe.
