THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Let God be who God is. This is often one of the hardest things to do. Rather than allowing the mystery of being created in the image and likeness of God unfold and take root in our lives, we change the dynamic. We want to be the creators who want to make God into the image and likeness we need God to be. We have a hard-enough time letting the people in our lives be who they are. We struggle even more so with God. It is almost as if we want God to be our imaginary friend who is not only with us whenever we need but becomes the Being we need God to be. Who is it that we want God to be today? A protector, disciplinarian, champion for justice, healer, advocate for our cause, grantor of prayers, guardian of my life, or the avenger? Our prayers tell an interesting story. When you pray, what does God look like?

Recently, a young woman who was feeling invisible, overlooked, ignored, and misunderstood by her husband struggled to make her feelings known and get his attention. Finally, she screamed, "Listen to me!" Thus, birth was given to a renewed and healthier relationship. We spend so much time storming heaven with our agenda and trying to make God into a "god" of our desires that we do not hear God saying, "Listen to me!" God is desperately trying to get our attention. God is saying, I am here among you as not one but three, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Many people seldom notice God's presence because they are so caught up with other spiritual cares and concerns. And, when the "god" they fashion and create doesn't produce as they desire, they shake the dust from their feet and move on. "I tried," they exclaim, "but God didn't listen."

Healthy relationships aren't built on making someone be who we need them to be. Healthy relationships are built on encounters of persons and the development of an appreciation of someone solely for who they are. Deeper relationships can even be found with two people marveling at each other and almost experiencing a childlike joy and giddiness when they see the other coming. Do you ever have these feelings about God? Believe it or not, God does for you! There is a joyful laughter that gives rise to and connects all three members of the Holy Trinity. It is this laughter, flowing from the very depths of the Godhead that not only keeps the Trinity in joyful unity but spills over into the creation of all beings and things. It is an expression of Divine Delight! Have you ever taken time away from your agenda to experience the Divine Joyfulness of God?

We can reach a connection of Presence wherein even the smallest of creatures suddenly radiate the fullness of God: the wonderful creation of their being, the innocence and playfulness of their movements, and the sustaining life breath that flows through their veins. The same God who created the heavens and the earth is the same God who wants you to call him 'Dad' and the same God who preserves your life and has all things in His care. ©LPi

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Reflection questions for Sunday, June 6th

- Moses and the ancient Israelites ratified the covenant God established with them at Mount Sinai with the blood of a sacrificed animal. The sacrificed animal affirmed Israel's commitment: "We will do everything the Lord has told us." Why do you think Israel tied sacrificed blood to their verbal commitment?
- The author of Hebrews teaches us that the sacrificed blood of Christ sanctifies us and offers us eternal redemption. How do you see this connected to ancient Israel's practice of sacrificing animals for their blood?
- Mark's account of the institution of the Eucharist is linked to the Jewish Feast of Unleavened Bread when a Passover lamb was sacrificed. What do you think Mark is teaching us in making this connection?

Do you have the gift of planning and organizing? A passion for food and fun? Or know people in our community who would support these events? We need you to be on the Curbside 2021 team! We want to build on the success of last year's Curbside event, adding a special twist, and can only do it with your help. We are looking for core team members to coordinate sponsors, volunteers, logistics and day-of event activities.

As we plan ahead for 2022, we want to build our Fall Fest Team now to begin brainstorming so we can hit the ground running right after Curbside.

If you are interested in being a part of these core teams or have any questions, please email fallfest@stcharleshartland.org. A team lead will reach out to you directly. We are so excited to kick off our Fall fundraising events and look forward to seeing everyone out there!

We will also no longer require social distancing at these Masses, and every pew will be available for seating. For now, at our 5 pm Saturday and 7 am Sunday Masses, we will still require masks and social distancing, including seating every other pew.

At our non-school weekday Masses, masks and social distancing will be optional. Thank you in advance for your patience and understanding as we move forward.

CONGRATULATIONS FR. KEN!
2020 VATICAN II AWARD RECIPIENT

As you may be aware, Fr Ken was one of the recipients of the 2020 Vatican II Awards from Archbishop Listeck. He received the award for Service to the Priesthood. Unfortunately, due to Covid considerations, the Archdiocese was not able to hold the annual awards presentation event at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist in October as planned. The recipients will now gather for a private awards service on June 1 at 7pm.

The Vatican II Awards were established in 1991 to honor men, women and young adults who exemplify the Catholic Church's vision set forth in the Second Vatican Council. We count our blessings at St. Charles for all that Fr. Ken does here!
