The Most Holy
BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST

He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many." - Mk 14:24

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

As our world faces so much turmoil and change, it is now more important than ever to remember who God is, who we are and where we are going. It is easy to get distracted and lose focus, especially when we are being pulled in so many directions. We can not only lose sight of God but one another. Maintaining our well developed and mature relationships with God and one another is essential to continuing to live, healthy, happy, and focused lives. In a message to young people, Pope Benedict XVI said, "the happiness you are seeking, the happiness you have a right to enjoy has a name and a face: it is Jesus of Nazareth, hidden in the Eucharist." What is true for those who are younger is even truer for those who are older. Regardless of how the particulars of life change over time, human beings are still hard-wired to seek the fullness of life and happiness. How we embark on this journey and what we choose along the way will indicate whether we meet success.

There is so much brokenness and pain in our world. Many people are lost, feeling lonely, anxious, marginalized, victimized, isolated, oppressed, and abused. Every time we receive the Body of Christ, we have an opportunity to become what we eat. The power and presence of Christ in the Eucharist becomes present in us and effects change in ourselves and in the lives of those we meet. We are given the grace to become temples of justice and peace, carrying God's sacred Presence within us wherever we go. Our faith community is ignited with the fire of God's love and stands out as a beacon of hope in a world that is lost. This is the only way we can discover peace-filled resolutions to violence and create innovative solutions to what is fueling its need in the first place. True happiness, for the young and old alike, becomes an obtainable goal.

St. John Maria Vianney says it so well. "There is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, he would have given it to us." Only the Eucharist has the ability to connect, sustain, strengthen, and properly orient us, not only on the road of this life but the road to life eternal. Knowing this, when life gets challenging, unsettling, and difficult, we can rely on and cling to this gift we have in the Real Presence of Christ. This actual encounter with God celebrates God's unconditional love for us and grounds us to the truth of who we are in a way nothing else is able to do. Because through the Eucharist we really do become the Body of Christ, we are also bonded together in a most perfect way to one another as that Body. Nourished, united, and strengthened by the Eucharist, let us individually and collectively, bring this wonderful gift to all we meet, especially the poor with whom we have a special connection. ©LPi

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Reflection questions for Sunday, June 13th

The Kingdom of God is like a mustard seed... the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants.
- Mark 4:31-32

- The prophet Ezekiel's image of God growing Israel into a mighty majestic cedar tree bearing fruit, with birds nesting in its branches was intended to be words of comfort for the exiled Israelites in Babylon. How do you find God's comfort in times of distress?
- Paul encourages the believers in Corinth to be courageous in knowing one day all will appear before "the judgment seat of Christ." How confident are you in reflecting on judgment day?
- Mark tells us that Jesus often spoke in parables to the crowds about the kingdom of God. Today's parables speak to the often unseen and subtle growth of the kingdom of God in our midst. How might you better observe the kingdom of God at work in your life?

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

As we gather today to reaffirm our faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, we are reminded that we are also the Body of Christ. The mission of the Gospel calls us to be Christ for others. There is so much brokenness and pain in our world. Many people are lost and feeling lonely, marginalized and oppressed, victimized and abused. Every time we receive the Body (and Blood) of Christ, we are asked to become what we eat. Are we willing to step aside from our preoccupations and concerns so that we can be Christ for others? The power and presence of Christ in the Eucharist becomes present in us. In receiving this transforming presence of Christ, we can truly effect change in the lives of those we meet. We can show them God's unconditional, ever-present love and the beauty that can come from loving others. We are given the grace to become temples of justice and peace, carrying God's sacred Presence within us wherever we go. ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

We Can Prepare the Upper Room

We all know that person, don't we? Hey, maybe we've even been that person.

"I have a great relationship with God, but I don't go to church regularly. God and I are on good terms. I can talk to Him just fine on my own."

There isn't anything false in these statements. It's important to have an intimate, even conversational prayer relationship with God. But the problem with this attitude is that it implies that churches don't matter. Community worship doesn't matter. Today, we are reminded exactly why that is so untrue. Why we need our parishes, our priests, and each other.

The Body and Blood of Christ — that's what it's all about. If it's not about that, it's not about anything. If we don't have the Eucharist, we're just like the ancient priests, making sacrifices that don't have the power to redeem anybody.

Where do we receive the Body and Blood of Christ? For most of us, it's in our parishes. The altar of sacrifice is also the table we gather in front of, as a family, to become one with Christ in the truest and realest way possible, recreating the scene in the Upper Room over and over again every time Mass is celebrated.

The disciples were commissioned by Christ to prepare the Upper Room for the Last Supper. How can we take up that work ourselves? How can we strengthen the bonds in our spiritual family? How can we serve our parish, always remembering that the table is not meant to be set only for two?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS 2021 MILWAUKEE DIOCESAN FAMILY OF THE YEAR

The Scordato family, St. Charles parishioners, are being awarded the Knights of Columbus 2021 Milwaukee Diocesan Family of the Year award! Archbishop ListECKi will be here on Sunday, June 13 at the 11:00 am Mass to celebrate and present this award to this wonderful family.

Joseph and Maureen Scordato Family 2021 Milwaukee Diocesan Family of the Year Kettle Moraine Council 3562, Pewaukee

The Scordato Family are members of Saint Charles parish in Hartland. They have seven children: Emily (23), MaryKathleen (21), Joseph (19), Christopher (17), Christiana (14), Nicholas (11) and Cecilia (9).

During his 20 years of being a Knight, Joseph received his 4th degree and is a member of the Honor Guard. After college, he joined the Missionary Servants of the Most Holy Trinity where he served the homeless in California and slept on the streets with them for three months. He was trained in Jail ministry, worked with gang members, and ministered to transients in Tijuana, Mexico. He is currently a lector at St. Charles parish and Holy Hill Basilica.

While in college, Maureen joined the National Evangelization Team (NET) where she put on retreats for high school kids across the nation. She was a member of the greeting party that welcomed Saint Pope John Paul II in Denver for World Youth Day in 1993. She became active in the Legion of Mary. At St. Peter's parish, she developed a children's afterschool devotion to the Divine Mercy know as Chapel Time. Maureen home schools the children through eight grade and has tutored other children in need.

Joseph and Maureen first ministered together on a Teens Encounter Christ retreat and were catechists for grade school and confirmation candidates. They were active in Youth ministry at Holy Family and St. Peter parishes, helping develop the Kyrios retreat program and peer ministries. They are professed Secular Franciscans where they have ministered at nursing homes as well as various Franciscan council positions such as Minister and Formation Director. They also provided hospitality with the Hands of Faith homeless ministry. They consecrated their family to the Immaculata, fondly referred to as "Momma Mary". Joseph teaches his children how to defend their faith with regular weekly gatherings the children call Apologetics with Dad and conducted an at home family retreat during the COVID lockdown. MaryKathleen and Emily founded the UW-Waukesha Catholic Club and are respectively pursuing degrees in nursing and music.

Joseph, a member of the Catholic Writer's Guild, has written faith-based stories for his children throughout their lives. The Family now dramatizes and produces these stories in a popular podcast, Catholic Family Stories Podcast (www.CatholicFamilyStories.org). Each story creatively brings new perspectives on the sacraments, faith, and morality. Through Maureen's management, the entire family creates original music with harps, flutes, Bodhran and violin for the podcast as well as performs their beautiful and inspiring music throughout Southern Wisconsin, Northern Illinois and annually at the Milwaukee Irish Fest as Emerald Wind (www.emeraldwindmusic.com).

Thank you, Scordato Family for being the Milwaukee Diocesan Family of the Year!

4 STAGES OF MARRIAGE

The 4 stages of marriage are: (1) Romance, (2) Disillusionment, (3) Misery, and (4) Awakening. Many marriages experience the first 3 Stages. Marriages that end in divorce never make it to the 4th Stage of Awakening. Don't give up without learning about the 4th Stage of Awakening. If your marriage suffers from Disillusionment or Misery, please contact Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-VI with a long I).
