THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The author of The Cloud of Unknowing prays, "That which I am and the way that I am, with all my gifts of nature and grace, you have given to me, O Lord, and you are all this. I offer it all to you, principally to praise you and to help my fellow Christians and myself." Knowing that God sustains us in being is the key to faith. All that we need to do is to love God as God is and the rest will begin to fall into place. God made us in His image and desires that we have life. God also desires that we be healed of all of our wounds, especially those caused by sin, and know his loving touch. Being weighed down by negativity, imperfections, the cares of the world, and weakness is not something that God desires.

Faith can profoundly change how we see God, ourselves, and one another. It gives a clearer lens through which to see life and connects us with the powerful virtues of love and hope. Three friends journeying with us through all that we encounter, faith, hope, and love, help us experience God's embrace and heal us. All we have to do is let God be who God is and not foolishly try to make Him into what we need or want Him to be. Without God we cease to be. It's that simple. The very blood that flows through my veins and the life that I have come directly from Divine origins. With this knowledge of who God is and who I am, I can open my ears and hear the powerful words Jesus speaks, "Do not be afraid, just have faith." Trust begins.

When we are struggling, we naturally reach out for God because we know that a divine remedy is the only remedy. But, in doing so we wrestle with letting God take charge. We want something more miraculous and visible than the obvious and have difficulty in finding consolation simply resting in God's presence. Our naked being, stripped of any pretense or self-serving agenda, is being called to rest in and love the uncreated Presence of God. Reach out in love to God. Ask God to heal you from all that separates you from Him. Put aside any ideas of God that create barriers between you and God's tender and endearing presence. The Cloud of Unknowing leaves us with wisdom, "think of yourself and of him in the same way, that is, with the simple awareness that he is as he is and that you are as you are." This is a meeting of two friends who desire nothing more than to share life together. ©LPi

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Reflection questions for Sunday, July 4th

- Today's reading is an excerpt from the prophetic call Ezekiel received while in exile in Babylon (Ez 1:1-3:27). The Lord commissioned Ezekiel to go and confront the "rebellious house" of Israel. How do you imagine the Israelites received Ezekiel's message?
- Paul learned that the "thorn in his flesh" taught him to be humble and dependent upon God's grace alone. Where do you see God's grace most present in your life?
- Jesus was "amazed" at the lack of faith his fellow Nazareans had in him, suggesting Jesus expected a different response. Why do you think the villagers of Nazareth "took offense" at Jesus?

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Help increase awareness of St. Charles' food pantry!

St. Charles' Society of St. Vincent de Paul operates a food pantry which is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland. We service anyone in our community in need of food or other assistance regardless of religious affiliation. The pantry is well-stocked with food and hygiene items that are able to free up income for those in need. Yet, there are many hungry people in Hartland who are not aware of our pantry or its benefits. Please promote our food pantry and help us help others by spreading the good news.

The SVdP food pantry is open Tuesdays between 10 AM and noon. Evening hours are on the second and fourth Tuesday of the month between 5:30 PM and 7PM. If you need other assistance or are interested in joining our ministry of service to the poor and needy, please contact SVdP at 262-367-0800.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS ARE WELCOME TO JOIN AND SERVE!

Are you a high school boy interested in deepening your faith through charity and good works? If so, St. Charles has an opportunity for you called the
