TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

HAPPY LABOR DAY

I know that there is nothing better for people than to be happy and to do good while they live. That each of them may eat and drink, and find satisfaction in all their toil – this is the gift of God.

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From the time we are born into this world until we die, our human radar picks up signals about how to respond to life. What we picked up on when we were very young carries an even greater power. The messages we receive and process tell us what we are “supposed” to do with our feelings, how to understand and cope with disappointment, anxiety, failure, death, illness, and what to expect out of life. As life unfolds for us, these radar messages kick in and resonate in us at very deep levels. Sometimes what we have learned is helpful and sometimes it is not. The stories we have been told, especially when we are young, about how life is best lived and how to negotiate its pain carry a heavy weight.

Life can be challenging and frightening. Sometimes, it really hurts to be a human being. It also can be quite unpredictable and, at times, unfair. We face our vulnerability and brokenness of all kinds: physical, emotional, and spiritual. It doesn't take much for life to quickly fall apart. What we knew to be familiar and true is gone and something we relied upon, physically, emotionally, or spiritually, can be taken away. It is hard to confront our limitations and sit with our incompleteness. Often, life hurts us so much that we find ourselves sitting in a pool of sadness, not sure what we are supposed to do. It is particularly hard when the signals we have inherited tell us that we need to be successful in what we do, and we have to avoid life's unfairness. We can feel like a failure, wondering what precisely we did to deserve this fate, or ruminate about what we did not do correctly. But it's really not about us. We are part of a bigger picture and a much more fascinating story!

If we cease doing battle with life's incompleteness and see ourselves, as God does, on a journey toward wholeness and completeness we can better accept our disappointments and stand firm. The prophets told us, and Jesus reassured us: Be strong! Fear not! Sometimes we have to update our stories and replace them with newer, more accurate ones. When we make God's story our own and tune our radar into His voice, what we hear is all about restoration, healing, and rejuvenation! This is true even when we think we have hit rock bottom and can go no further. There is always hope. Remember the words of Julian of Norwich: God made us, God loves us, and God keeps us. Now, listen to God when He says, “be opened!” Be healed and allow your stories to change. ©LP

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

— Reflection questions for Sunday, September 12th —

AND HE SAID TO THEM ALL, IF ANY MAN WILL COME AFTER ME, LET HIM DENY HIMSELF, AND TAKE UP HIS CROSS DAILY, AND FOLLOW ME.

- LUKE 9:23 (KJV) -

- Despite his suffering, the prophet Isaiah insisted “the Lord God is my help.” In what way do you need the Lord's help today?
- James sees faith alone as insufficient for Christians. He even asserts: “I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works.” Could you do the same?
- We hear today Jesus' definition of discipleship: “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” How well do you measure up to this definition of discipleship?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

CHOOSING DEAFNESS

If you're a parent, you know that hearing evaluations are usually done at a child's annual physical exam starting around age four. The little person gets hoisted up onto the exam table, fitted with a pair of special headphones, and then they need to raise their hand when they hear a sound.

I bet all of us parents who have sat through one of these tests with a preschooler — especially a particularly strong-willed one — have experienced a moment where we ask ourselves: I wonder if there's something wrong with her hearing. Is that why she doesn't listen to me? 'Come here, put on your shoes, pick up your toys, finish your carrots, don't touch that' — she isn't being naughty, she just can't hear it!

And then that moment, for those of us whose kids passed the hearing test with flying colors, comes crashing down into a realization that, yep, they can hear just fine. They're just choosing deafness.

But how can we really get mad when we remember that we do the same thing to God day in and day out? I often wonder if God, sitting in His Heaven, tires of calling to us in the same way young parents tire of calling out unheeded directions to their small children. Help that person. Hear My voice. Open your heart. Give of yourself here. Talk to Me.

What is the call He wishes you to hear today? Can you hear it? Are you listening?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

PRAYER TO HEAR GOD

Father God, as I come into your presence, with request laid upon my heart, I ask you to draw near. Help me to hear and obey your voice, and teach me to trust it and put all of my hope in your words. Increase my faith, according to your will. In Jesus' name, Amen!

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Life can be challenging and frightening. Sometimes, it really hurts to be a human being. We face brokenness of all kinds: physical, emotional, and spiritual. For no apparent reason, life can quickly fall apart. What we knew to be familiar is gone and something we relied upon is taken away. We are left sitting with our incompleteness and swimming in the pools of our sadness. Be strong! Fear not! These admonitions flow from the mouths of prophets and are echoed by Jesus. It is difficult to trust that restoration, healing, and rejuvenation will one day come, and remain steadfast in our faith. But we are here because of a God who loves us, not as the result of a random occurrence. When we reach for that truth about who we are and who God is, life changes for us. We are healed from our old distorted way of seeing things. Our eyes, heart, and soul are opened to the beauty and magnificence of life. The pulse of our loving Creator is felt in all things and we can't wait for God to come and touch us again. God made us, God loves us, and God keeps us. He has done all things well. ©LPi

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: spaghetti sauce

On September 9, Vincentians will celebrate the feast day of its founder Blessed Frederic Ozanam. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul was founded in 1833 by Frederic Ozanam who sought to alleviate the suffering of poor Parisians. Frederic chose St. Vincent de Paul as his patron, embracing the spirituality and values encouraged by his patron saint. Today, the ministry of SVdP has grown to be an international organization whose vision is to embrace the world in a network of charity. This Catholic lay organization is dedicated to the spiritual growth of its members through service to the poor and needy. Thank you for supporting St. Charles' SVdP through your donations to our general fund and food pantry.

St. Charles' SVdP operates a food pantry located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland. It is open Tuesday mornings between 10 AM and noon. Evening hours are on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of the month between 5:30 PM and 7PM. If you need other assistance or would like more information about joining our ministry, please contact SVdP at 262-367-0800.

ST. CHARLES PARISH

KEY MINISTRIES COMEBACK

SEPTEMBER 2021

Over the next couple of months, we will be re-engaging parishioners in our ministries. Here are some of our key ministries and the opportunities where you may use your gifts to serve God and our parish community. We welcome you to prayerfully consider being involved in our ministries, whether you are new or a returning ministry member. If you need help in deciding where your gifts may best serve our Lord or parish, we can help you!

HOSPITALITY MINISTRY

hos·pi·tal·ity

The friendly and generous reception and entertainment of guests, visitors, or strangers.

We want all who enter God's house at St. Charles to feel welcome! If you have a passion for food and love to greet people, we want to hear from you! Whether it's Fellowship Weekend (aka Donut Sunday), greeting those who come to Mass or events, organizing or serving food at funeral luncheons or parish events. For more information, contact Nancy Neuser at nneuser@stcharleshartland.org

LIFE TEEN

CORE TEAM

Our Core Team is an amazing group of adults who are passionate about leading teens to Meet, Know, Love, & Serve Christ. They walk alongside teens in all of our ministries and in life. They lead activities, facilitate small group discussions, run Bible studies, give talks, chaperone trips and overnight retreats, and lend their many gifts and talents to our young people. You do not need to have studied Theology to be a Core member. The most important qualifications are a deep love of Christ, His church and a passion for working with teens.

PARENT SUPPORT

We ask parents of teens involved in Life Teen to help us create a warm and welcoming environment for our middle and high school ministries. This can range from providing snacks and drinks for the teens for our normal gatherings to helping with the handful of receptions we host annually. Some of our ministries take place in Host Homes where a small group and their core team member are welcomed into the host's home to provide an extra warm and welcoming environment to these groups.

Note: Life Teen is also bringing back Large Group events/format this year. We're keeping some of the good things we gained from the past year (like consistent small groups throughout the year) but bringing back more of the large group games and talks and using the cafe again as our main meeting space. We're also bringing back Summer Camps in a big way in 2022. For more information, contact Nick Scanlan at nscanlan@stcharleshartland.org.

SMALL GROUP MINISTRY

St. Charles is excited to announce that the Fall Session for Small Groups begins this month! Small Groups meet weekly in parishioners' homes to pray through the upcoming Sunday scriptures and journey through life together. We have men's groups, women's groups, couple's group, young adult groups and groups specifically for moms and dads of school-age children. Contact Maria Notch with any questions and to join a group at mnotch@stcharleshartland.org.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) is a Montessori-based, hands-on religious education program for children 3 years old through 6th grade that we are implementing parish-wide at St. Charles. This program provides a thoughtful and carefully-prepared room (called an atrium) in which the child can listen to God, talk to God and learn about God. The coordinated efforts of many people, with a variety of skill-sets (such as cleaning, plant care, sewing and woodworking,) are needed to help this wonderful program operate. There is an opportunity in the Children's Discipleship ministry for part-time paid help (Sunday mornings and several weekday evenings) in working with CGS. Please contact Alicia Van Hecke at avanhecke@stcharleshartland.org for more information.

MUSIC MINISTRY

We are excited to embark upon a new season of music ministry this month at St. Charles! One of the most comprehensive programs in the Archdiocese, St. Charles has something for everyone who is interested in sharing their gift of music. We have two Children's Choirs, a Praise Group, Adult Choir, Men's Choir, Women's Choir, Resurrection Choir, Cantors, Psalmists, Instrumentalists, Handbells, and a Seasonal Choir. Some are scheduled regularly, some based on availability according to your schedule.

On Wednesday, September 15, we are hosting the Catholic Choir Comeback beginning at 6:00pm in the Borromeo Room. This is an opportunity for everyone who is interested in Music Ministry to come together to share food, fun, and fellowship and get to know other music ministers. For more information, contact Scott Currier (scurrier@stcharleshartland.org) or Peg Kasun (pkasun@stcharleshartland.org).

LITURGICAL MINISTRY

Fall is a traditional time of year for parish ministries to be refreshed and rejuvenated, especially the ministries of prayer and worship. As Catholics, we believe that the Eucharist is the "source and summit" of our faith, and we have many opportunities for anyone who wants to share their gifts with our parish community in the celebration of the Eucharist. Ministries include Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Servers (4th grade through adulthood), Ushers and Sacristans. Training is provided, and scheduling is flexible according to your needs. For more information, contact Elizabeth Thompson at ethompson@stcharleshartland.org.

OTHER MINISTRIES COMING BACK OR GROWING THIS FALL...

THURSDAY MORNING MEN'S GROUP: A weekly, in-person fellowship gathering for men, this group starts Thursday, September 16th in the Borromeo Room. Doors open at 5:30 am (with coffee of course!) and the program at 6 am, followed by discussion at 7am. All men are welcome, and young men and fathers are encouraged to join us. If you have any questions, email Jim Dunn at mensgroup@stcharleshartland.org.

OUTREACH SERVICES TEAM: The team ministers to both local Wisconsin communities and abroad, organizing events and programs that bring together volunteers of all ages to engage in projects that better the living, learning, and general condition of all! Opportunities to become involved as a volunteer include ministries such as the monthly Bread of Life Community Meal, the seasonal gift and clothing drives, Meals to the homebound and shelters, or volunteering at seasonal church events such as Fall Fest and more. For more information about specific events or to become involved, please contact Terri Blazek, Outreach Services Team Chairperson, at jtblazek@wi.rr.com or 262-367-7608.

They sew and craft everything from prayer shawls to baby booties, which benefit Parish and local Ministries including SVDP, Elizabeth Ministry, Sienna House, CGS and St. Anthony's Food Pantry. All are welcome to join, including remote knitters. Contact Ann Hansen at hansendairy97@gmail.com or call the Parish Office 262-367-0800.
