Each encounter with Jesus fills us with joy, with that deep joy which only God can give.

Pope Francis

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There is something about being first. Whether it be first in line, first to be picked for the team, or the first one to finish their work, great satisfaction is achieved. Our egos love being first. It somehow sets us apart from everyone else, gives us a sense of pride and positions us to feel better than others. When we are first, we can glory in our efforts, skills, and achievements. Isn't that what really matters? After all, we are taught from a very young age to be proficient, stay on top, be the best at what we do, and win the praise and esteem of others. This is the stuff that makes us successful and provides us with a comfortable, satisfying life.

Jesus wants none of it. All of the details we anguish over mean little to the kingdom of God. You want to be first? Then, be a servant and welcome a child. All of this is the opposite of our often vehement pursuits. If we are serious about following Jesus and living the Gospel, then we must put the needs of others before our own. If we continue to listen only to the noise of the world, we are going to continue to believe the illusions we inherit. Those illusions come in many forms, but all have things in common: me before you, being on top and not the bottom, us versus them, personal security over universal harmony and peace. When are we going to learn that always striving to be the best and first is an empty pursuit in our struggle for happiness? While satisfying our ego with this momentary boost of esteem may feel good for a moment, is it what we really desire?

If we can break from the world's noise and create a space of sacred silence in our lives, we can begin to listen and see that we are being called in another direction. What we really desire is not the bolstering of our egos but the innocence we lost somewhere along the way. When we can be playful, joyful, and even somewhat carefree, life is good. We want our relationships to work, a place to call home, and to live peaceful lives with our sisters and brothers. Only a servant can do this. The servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. Rather than worrying about being first and coming out on top, we can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led to do good works. Stop worrying about being first and put greater energy into feeling joy. ©LP

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Reflection questions for Sunday, September 19th

Sin is unwillingness to trust that what God wants for me is only my deepest happiness.

Ignatius of Loyola

- Early in their Exodus journey, Moses taught the young Joshua an important lesson on avoiding jealousy and trusting the Lord's providence. How do you avoid the trap of jealousy and envy?
- James speaks of the trappings and dangers of excessive wealth. What do you think should be the believer's proper disposition toward money?
- Jesus warns his disciples against the danger of causing other believers to sin. What do you think would motivate a Christian to do this?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

THE VIEW FROM THE BACK OF THE LINE

Have you known that person? The one who leaves every person they encounter feeling a little more blessed for having met them? They're the friend you can count on when nothing is going well. They're the one who's always "doing" for others. They're never gossiping or sniping or complaining.

We wonder how they do it, how they have it in them. We're a little envious, even if we don't let ourselves acknowledge it. That, folks, is what the view is like from the front of the line, gazing at those suckers in the way back and wondering why they're smiling so much.

We've all been at the front of a line and felt no shame about it. We show up early, we put in the time and the legwork, and we "earn" whatever it is we came for — sports tickets, the latest Apple product, whatever. That's how it works here on Earth, where the fastest win the race, the fittest survive and the first shall be first, always.

It's exactly why stewardship is such a tall order. Stewardship calls us to play by the rules of another kingdom — one where the richest have the least amount in their bank accounts and the happiest don't seem to have anything to show for it, at least materially.

If you have a person in your life who always seems happy "doing" for others, it's because by a boatload of God's grace, they play by the rules of the other place. Watch and take notes — and don't be afraid to join them at the back of the line.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

PRAYER TO TRUST GOD

God, I don't know how to get there. I feel like I trust You. I try to trust You. But I keep walking around in my own limited strength, worry, and doubt. Things have been bad for so long, I just don't see how they will change. I need Your help to overcome my lack of sight. Amen.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Life can be challenging and frightening. Sometimes, it really hurts to be a human being. We face brokenness of all kinds: physical, emotional, and spiritual. For no apparent reason, life can quickly fall apart. What we knew to be familiar is gone and something we relied upon is taken away. We are left sitting with our incompleteness and swimming in the pools of our sadness. Be strong! Fear not! These admonitions flow from the mouths of prophets and are echoed by Jesus. It is difficult to trust that restoration, healing, and rejuvenation will one day come, and remain steadfast in our faith. But we are here because of a God who loves us, not as the result of a random occurrence. When we reach for that truth about who we are and who God is, life changes for us. We are healed from our old distorted way of seeing things. Our eyes, heart, and soul are opened to the beauty and magnificence of life. The pulse of our loving Creator is felt in all things, and we can't wait for God to come and touch us again. God made us, God loves us, and God keeps us. He has done all things well. ©LPi

Do you enjoy sharing God's love?

There are many St. Charles parishioners who are homebound and unable to celebrate the Holy Eucharist with others each week at Mass. For many of these individuals, it is the hardest part about being homebound. We are looking for volunteers to bring the Holy Eucharistic to our fellow parishioners in their homes. Do you enjoy sharing God's love? Please consider this most worthwhile ministry. For more information, please call Kerry Shannon at 262-696-4128 or call the Parish Office at 262-367-0800.

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT

Lake Country Life Teen Large Groups and Camp are Back!

Teens need Catholic community more than ever. This past year was challenging in many ways. Many teens already struggle with loneliness, depression, and anxiety, and these trends have only increased. Teens need the support of their Christian communities more than ever. This past year, we were able to continue to meet in a limited way in socially-distanced small groups. This year we are excited to be able to offer more to respond to the needs of our teens.

Our middle and high school ministry walks with young people on their journey of faith and invites them into a deeper relationship with God through vibrant community, inspiring witness, and life-changing truth. This year we are blessed to again be able to offer a wide variety of activities and events such as large and small group gatherings, camps, mission trips, and retreats.

Relational ministry like this is impossible without adults who care about teens enough to walk with them in this crucial time of their life. That's why we have dedicated areas of our ministry for adults to get involved with Life Teen and show teens what it means to be a disciple of Jesus.

If you are interested in getting involved in supporting our young people or hearing more about what we offer at Lake Country Life Teen, visit our website at lakecountrylifeteen.com or contact Nick Scanlan (nscanlan@stcharleshartland.org) for high school ministry and Rachel Heffron (rheffron@stcharleshartland.org) for middle school.

Their purpose then, as today, is to bring the graces of Fatima and Our Lady's message of hope, peace, and salvation to those many thousands of people who may never have an opportunity to make a pilgrimage to Fatima itself. For more information, visit www.bluearmy.com. All are welcome to come pray with us!
