THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL REFLECTION

by Marianne Giovingo

St. Charles Engagement & Discipleship Coordinator

27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"For it was fitting that He, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the leader to their salvation perfect through suffering."

Brothers and sisters, the Scripture is living and effective! We must be sensitive to how God wants to speak to us, especially as we avail ourselves before the Lord at Mass.

After listening to God speak to me about the readings for this Sunday, this passage from Hebrews really revealed something about Jesus to me! God the Father sent Jesus to be our Savior, so don't try to do it yourself! Let yourself be known, valued, and loved so as to admit that you need help. There is freedom in this acknowledgement – to trust that you are sharing the 'yoke' with One who can endure it!

I have an alarm that rings hourly from 6am-10pm and which reads, 'God, I need You,' for the simple reminder that that is the truth of my heart at every moment. This has invited myself and others to pause every 60 minutes and refocus our minds and hearts back to the Lord.

The last part proclaims that our salvation came through suffering. If we are honest, we would admit that we would rather avoid suffering – but it's there as a part of our lives. We must seek to follow after the One who modeled for us that salvation comes through the cross.

This week, allow the Holy Spirit to speak through the circumstances of your day and believe that God is using all for your good!

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Reflection questions for Sunday, October 10th

SEEK THE KINGDOM OF GOD ABOVE ALL ELSE, AND LIVE RIGHTEOUSLY, AND HE WILL GIVE YOU EVERYTHING YOU NEED.

Matthew 6:33

- Today's reading presents wisdom and prudence as life's most precious gifts. Why do you think these virtues were held in such high regard by ancient Israel?
- Hebrews connects the power of the word of God with divine judgement — one day we must all "render an account" of our lives before the Lord. How often do you think about your own judgement day?
- Jesus teaches the rich man and the disciples that while wealth can often hinder one from entering the kingdom of God, self-sacrifice and discipleship can earn eternal life. How well do you balance these realities in your life?

- Monday: Jon 1:1—2:2, 11 / Jon 2:3, 4, 5, 8 / Lk 10:25-37
- Tuesday: Jon 3:1-10 / Ps 130:1b-2, 3-4ab, 7-8 [3] / Lk 10:38-42
- Wednesday: Jon 4:1-11 / Ps 86:3-4, 5-6, 9-10 [15] / Lk 11:1-4

THEREIN LIES THE...RIB

“If I were God...” is a dangerous way to start a sentence, but how many of us do this? Probably more regularly than we would like to admit. Even if we don’t verbalize the sentiment, we likely think it from time to time. Most of us finish that statement with some genius, original idea for eradicating difficulty and pain from the world. If I were God, I wouldn’t let anyone go hungry. If I were God, all wealth would be equally distributed. If I were God, war wouldn’t exist.

I imagine that, when we think thoughts like these, God shakes His head and wonders why we don’t look a little harder at the whole of His creation – because I can promise you, it’s never lacking.

When Adam had a need for a companion, God used what was available: Adam’s rib. Everything that He had put into place was already perfect, already complete. Woman was a new creation but not a new species. Adam searched through all of creation to find the perfect mate, but God had tucked the answer inside of His creation all along.

I’m guilty of it as much as anyone else – looking to Heaven with a chip on my shoulder. “Why haven’t you sent me what I need? I’ve been asking over and over again.” But have I even thought to look inside of myself?

Where is the rib you are missing today? What are the opportunities God has set before you? What are the needs that He is ready to fulfill, if only you would stop wasting time lamenting all the solutions that don’t fit the bill? – Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

“What God has joined together.” We are all familiar with these words. Because man and woman are essentially of the same substance, although also distinctively different, there is an innate desire to be connected and united. Admittedly, marriage covenants can be extremely difficult to negotiate and, at times, very painful to experience. But they can also be celebrations of great union and happiness. This is proven by couples who have been married for many years who still have that same twinkle of devotion in their eyes that was present on their wedding day. God designed it to be this way. By God’s power, the two become one. This is not of human design. The true intimacy of marriage is a Divine Intimacy. It is a bond created by a power far greater than any found in the two people who are joined. Marriage is where the virtue of love is most fully expressed. ©LPi

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER
for October

My Lord Jesus,
As the rains hide the stars,
as the autumn mist hides the hills,
as the clouds veil the blue
of the skies,
so the dark happenings of the world
hide the shining of your face
from me.

Yet, if I may hold your hand
in the darkness,
it is enough, since I know that,
as the steward of your grace,
though I may stumble on this journey of mine,
you will not let me fall.
Amen.

Stewardship and the Joy of Opening Our Hearts to Christ

Excerpt from a homily by the Most Reverend Thomas Wenski, archbishop of Miami, at the Eucharistic celebration to open the 59th annual conference of the International Catholic Stewardship Council in Orlando, Florida, on September 12, 2021.

In Saint Mark's Gospel we have witnessed the beginning of Jesus' ministry when he gathered a group of disciples to himself, and he went about Galilee doing good through some remarkable miracles.

As I remind the priests in the Archdiocese of Miami, Jesus didn't start off talking about the cross. He started off by first making friends, establishing relationships with people; people whom he met at their level, speaking their language.

I think this is perhaps the genius of Pope Francis. He understands that evangelization is first about an encounter. "Come and see," Jesus tells those first disciples. They come, they spend time with him and they follow him because his personality, his words, his deeds are attractive. In a word, they experience the joy of the Gospel.

"Restore our Joy!" This is a wonderful theme for the ICSC conference this week, especially as you prepare for a transformational future beyond this current Coronavirus environment. But I would be remiss if I did not thank you, not only in my name, but also in the name of all the bishops for gathering together to pray, reflect and strengthen each other for the task ahead and for all that you do for the Church to promote stewardship.

All of our parishes and dioceses have experienced some financial pain during these past several months in which the normality of our lives has been disrupted. Our diocesan stewardship offices around the country have done great work in encouraging people to give online, not only to help our parishes but to help our people who also were hurting financially because of this virus. Even if it did not infect all of us, it certainly has affected every one of us.

Of course, stewardship is not about increasing the Sunday offertory collection. It is not about fundraising. Stewardship is not a program. It is a way of life. It is the way of life for those who have opened wide the doors of their hearts to Christ.

The road map towards a transformational future and the restoration of our joy lies in presenting Christ as he really is. For to be a Christian is not a burden but a gift, having encountered him is the best thing that has happened to us and to share him with others by the gifts of our time, talent and treasure, even at the cost of our very selves, is good stewardship. And it brings us joy.
