A CHANGE TO RECEIVING COMMUNION

At all Masses (daily and weekend), we will be offering two "Communion in the hand only" lines in the aisle just right of the center aisle when you enter church (in front of the baptismal font). Receiving on the tongue and in the hand will be available at all the other Communion stations.

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION
28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to be expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing, and in following a voice other than our own. St. Teresa of Calcutta rightly instructs us that for “love to be real, it must cost, it must hurt, it must empty us of self.” Being in love with God requires more than just checking the boxes of the commandments. It requires a sincere and unconditional self-investment. Desiring God with our whole heart, mind, and soul means that I must also desire a relationship with my neighbor with that same degree of fervor.

Biases and prejudices usually occur when people are kept at a distance and treated as objects. We cannot truly know our neighbors, especially if they are different than us, if we keep them in boxes and do not listen to their stories. When we open ourselves to listen to another person's story, we begin to realize more how similar we are than dissimilar. Being overly attached to our possessions, ideologies, agendas, lifestyles, and personal needs are absolute barriers to achieving the type of personal investment love demands. This is why following Christ can be difficult. It is less a matter of intellect and more a matter of heart and soul. It requires that we transfer our treasure from an investment in tangible secular things and move it into the Kingdom of God. It is only the gift of wisdom and discernment that can help us decide what to do and how to do it.

Contemporaries of Jesus would know that a camel could not enter through the portal of a city weighed down with the baggage it was carrying. In order to enter, the baggage must be removed so that the animal could fit through the entry way. The same is true for us. We carry a lot of excessive baggage around with us that keeps us tethered to our past histories, wounds, myopic world views, prejudices, fears, and suspicions. To invest ourselves in the Kingdom of God, do God's work and live out our love relationship with God, we need to shed the extra weight. While it may seem that a lot of that stuff is necessary, it really is not. We are much more than the things that we think define us and more secure than we think. The more there is to hold on to and the more that we carry with us, the harder it will be to leave it all behind. Many choose not to and walk away sad because they are not ready to trust. ©LP

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Reflection questions for Sunday, October 17th

- Isaiah speaks of our redemption through the suffering of the Lord's servant. When have you experienced God's presence in your suffering?
- Hebrews tells us that Jesus is able to sympathize with our weaknesses because he, too, "has been tested in every way." What are some ways that you are tested in life?
- Jesus uses the request of James and John as a teachable moment for his disciples on the importance of humility and service to others. What other qualities do you think are necessary for true discipleship?

Readings for the Week of October 10th

- Monday: Rom 1:1-7/Ps 98:1, 2-3ab, 3cd-4 [2a]/Lk 11:29-32
- Tuesday: Rom 1:16-25/Ps 19:2-3, 4-5 [2a]/Lk 11:37-41

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

IF HEAVEN WERE LIKE HARVARD

There's no getting around it: life on earth can seem easier if you're rich. Most of the bodily and material needs a person could have are fulfilled if you've got a little bit of money behind you. So why doesn't this same theory apply to entering the kingdom of Heaven? Why isn't Heaven like an Ivy League school, where a connection and a hasty tuition check might open a lot of doors?

When you think about it, the virtues required to enter Heaven — things like charity and justice and courage — should be even closer within the grasp of those who never had to worry about where their food is coming from. In theory, your capacity for good works should only increase with the resources at your disposal.

The same is true for stewardship potential. Let's say I've got a lot of talent. Maybe I've got a lot of free time. On paper, it should be easier for me to give freely of these gifts, because I have the luxury that eluded the widow and her two coins: I can see my ample gift being put into action, when so many can only offer what they have and remind themselves that God sees it and appreciates it.

But here we get into the mess of humanity: if we have a lot of something, it means we have a lot of something we could use any way we want. And then we hear the whisper of the serpent: Think of what this (money, time, talent) could do for you.

May we pray for God to give us the heart of the widow, no matter our resources. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

A PRAYER TO BE GENEROUS

Teach me, Lord Jesus, to be generous:

to serve You as You deserve;

to give, not counting the cost;

to fight, not heeding the wounds;

to toil, not asking for rest;

to labor, not seeking any reward,

save that of knowing that we do Your will.

Amen.

LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Presumption can be a great sin. We can easily convince ourselves that as long as we do the bare minimum or master the basics, it is sufficient. Love doesn't operate this way. If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to get expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing and in following a voice other than our own. This is what those who are truly in pursuit of wisdom come to realize. Just like any human relationship worth achieving reveals, we never reach a plateau in following the Gospel or growing in wisdom and holiness. Wisdom is the rudder that guides us through all of life's attractions and options. It alone determines what is worth pursuing and what must be left behind. That is why those who are only concerned about checking the boxes and doing the least amount possible often walk away sad when offered God's gift of life eternal. They are not truly in love. ©LPi

BECOMING FULLY CATHOLIC
ST. CHARLES PARISH & SCHOOL

Becoming Fully Catholic is for those adults considering initiation into the Catholic Church, receiving adult confirmation, or exploring conversion to Catholicism from another faith tradition. Meetings are generally held the first and third Sunday of the month in the school music room from 10:15-11:30 am. Registration is always open and you may begin at any time. Please contact Deacon Rob Mitchell at rmitchell@stcharleshartland.org or call the Parish office for more information.

THANK YOU A "LOT"!

A special thank you to all who are using our two parking lots - our North East lot off of Circle Drive and our new West lot on Renson Road. If you are not, we encourage you to use these lots, which will help ease the disruption to our neighbors during the construction of our new church. In addition, we have designated the entire row adjacent to the grass area in our North East Lot for handicap parking.

The church is not a religious community of worshippers of Christ but is Christ himself who has taken form among people.

Our food pantry patrons are wonderful people who are grateful for the kindness of St. Charles' parishioners and other benefactors. If you would like to donate items to the food pantry, please drop off your donations in the SVdP barrel located in the parish foyer (main entrance).

The food pantry is open Tuesdays between 10 AM and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evening of the month between 5:30 PM and 7 PM. If you need other assistance or are interested in becoming a member of our ministry to the poor and needy, please contact SVdP at 262-367-0800.

Grieving with Great HOPE

FIVE-WEEK GRIEF SUPPORT WORKSHOP AT ST. CHARLES

November 13, 20 and 27 & December 4 and 11
Saturdays, 9:30 - 11:30 am in the Borromeo Room

Grieving with Great HOPE is a five-week grief support workshop using a video on-demand format offered by St. Charles Bereavement Ministry. It offers a prayerful, practical and personal approach for anyone who is mourning the loss of a loved one. If you have lost a spouse, a child (including pregnancy loss), a grandchild, a parent, another family member or a friend, you are encouraged to attend. Presenters will include two priests as well as John and Sandy O'Shaughnessy from Good Mourning Ministry, a Catholic bereavement organization.

If you would like to register for the workshop, visit the parish website and click on the NEWS story to find the online registration form. For more information or questions, please contact Maria Notch at mnotch@stcharleshartland.org.

RESPECT FOR LIFE MONTH LOOK FOR THE PINK & BLUE FLAGS AT ST. CHARLES!

During October, there are pink & blue flags placed on the grounds at St. Charles. October is Respect for Life Month. The St. Charles Respect for Life Ministry asks that everyone continue to pray for the Holy Innocents who are aborted every hour in the United States. We also ask that you pray for all the mothers and fathers who are seeking our love and forgiveness. Please know your prayers are being heard by our loving and merciful Father as Wisconsin abortions are decreasing.

"By abortion, the mother does not learn to love, but kills even her own child to solve her problems. And by abortion, the father is told that he does not have to take any responsibility at all for the child he has brought into the world. That father is likely to put other women into the same trouble. So abortion just leads to more abortion. Any country that accepts abortion is not teaching the people to love, but to use any violence to get what they want. That is why the greatest destroyer of love and peace is abortion" - Mother Teresa

From September 22nd to October 31st, 40 Days for Life Campaigns will take place on the sidewalks outside abortion and birth control centers all over the world. Wisconsin vigils will take place this fall in Madison, Milwaukee, La Crosse, Sheboygan, Green Bay, and a number of smaller communities. For information on vigils in your area, visit www.40daysforlife.com or join the St. Charles Respect Life Ministry on Tuesdays from noon until 1:00pm. If you need a ride, please be at the church parking lot at 11:30am and parishioners can carpool. Any questions, please call Ruth Chadwick at 262-367-8976 with questions.

*"There are two victims
in every abortion:
a dead baby and
a dead conscience."*

St. Joseph

Faithful Protector of Mother and Child

The infant Christ “came into our world in a state of great vulnerability. He needed to be defended, protected, cared for and raised by Joseph” (PC 5). The humble and often hidden carpenter of Nazareth accompanied Mary in her pregnancy, assisted at the birth of the Messiah in a stable, presented Jesus in the Temple, fled with his family far from their homeland to protect them, and lovingly raised Jesus as his own son in the years to come.

While the angel of the Lord appeared to Mary to announce that she would bring forth the Savior of the world, it was revealed to Joseph in a series of dreams how God’s plans would be brought to fulfillment. As Pope Francis highlights, “God trusted Joseph, as did Mary, who found in him someone who would not only save her life, but would always provide for her and her child” (PC 5).

Dear St. Joseph,
help us to imitate your faithful trust and courage.

Like every other human family, the Holy Family had to confront real and concrete challenges. Yet, “in every situation, Joseph declared his own ‘fiat’” (PC 3). His “yes” to the Lord meant that regardless of the hardship and personal sacrifice to himself, he consistently chose to put the needs of Mary and Jesus before his own. Joseph’s devotion helps reveal to us our own call to show special care for the lives of those whom God has entrusted to us.

During this Year of St. Joseph, each of us can find in him “an intercessor, a support and a guide in times of trouble” (PC, Intro). Joseph shows us how to say “yes” to life, despite our own fears, frailties, and weaknesses. For it is Joseph who was “chosen by God to guide the beginnings of the history of redemption. He was the true ‘miracle’ by which God saves the child and his mother” (PC 5).

May we, too, be miracles in the lives of those who are most in need, especially at the beginning and end of life. Dear St. Joseph, you who were “able to turn a problem into a possibility by trusting always in divine providence” (PC 5), help us to imitate your faithful trust and courage.

WHITE Mass

The White Mass is the traditional name given for the Mass for medical professionals, drawn from the white coats that physicians still wear and the white uniforms worn by nurses in times past. St. Luke was an educated Greek physician, author of the Gospel of St. Luke and a companion of the Apostle Paul who remained with him when he was imprisoned in Rome. He is a worthy patron of the medical profession.
