A CHANGE TO RECEIVING COMMUNION

At all Masses (daily and weekend), we will be offering two "Communion in the hand only" lines in the aisle just right of the center aisle when you enter church (in front of the baptismal font). Receiving on the tongue and in the hand will be available at all the other Communion stations.

We must understand then, that even though God doesn't always give us what we want, He always gives us what we need for our salvation.

— Saint Augustine

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“What do you wish me to do for you?” Whether we realize it, this is a question God is always asking. It’s an important question because the answer we provide will reveal a great deal about where our hearts lie. Our requests of God can often appear very noble and altruistic. They consist of requests for healing for someone in need of prayers, successful resolution of a personal conflict, assistance in overcoming a disease and myriad other desires for both ourselves and others. We are especially concerned about those we love and can easily find ourselves bringing their struggles to God for a hearing in our prayer.

Is that really all that prayer is about? The woman in today’s Gospel, having been put in her place by Jesus, was only looking out for the wellbeing of her sons. She was doing what mothers do, protecting and securing the livelihood of her children. But she was sadly mistaken, her request was not granted. We all make this same misguided mistake from time to time. The goal of prayer is not to convince God of the worthiness of our agenda or to gain a hearing. Sometimes we believe that the more we multiply our prayers or discover the right combination of supplications that we will receive more of God’s attention. That’s not how it works. Even though God desires to hear, know, and be an intimate part of what is on our minds, it goes much deeper.

What we need from God is a relationship. It’s a relationship that guides and immerses us in the very stuff of life and in the direction of the Gospel. This relationship sees God’s kingdom and agenda, not our own, as what is most important. It builds the strength of character necessary to bring God’s Gospel into a world that may not receive it with open arms. It may cause us discomfort and suffering. We are asked to heroically journey with God through suffering, hardship, ridicule, and even death! Ultimately, our desire from God must become our desire for God. It is only when this happens that the powerful words “thy will be done” will be found with sincerity and humility on our lips. Whatever God wishes becomes what we wish as we see this glorious union of wills. Our humble lives will then become powerful witnesses, and what happens to us in God’s eternal kingdom the result of his mercy. We become true servants and find ourselves discovering God’s definition of success. That definition has nothing at all to do with status, income, or privilege. ©LP

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

— Reflection questions for Sunday, October 24th —

People may hurt you but God will heal you. People may humiliate you but God will honour you. People may judge you but God will justify you.

— Nicky Gumbel

- The prophet Jeremiah foreshadowed the joy that Israel would experience when the Lord delivers them from captivity in Babylon. What are some upcoming events you anticipate celebrating in the name of the Lord?
- The author of Hebrews tells us that God glorified Christ by making him “high priest.” What are some gifts that you have received from God?
- Jesus heard and responded to the desperate pleas of the blind man, Bartimaeus. What worries or fears do you need to bring to the Lord?

GET TO KNOW THE SAINTS

by Marianne Giovingo,
St. Charles Engagement and Discipleship Coordinator

St. Luke – October 18th & Sts. John de Brebeuf, Isaac Jogues and Companions – October 19th

These men were martyrs, witnesses of Christ willing to give their lives for love of God! Believe it or not, this is the call of every disciple. Not all of us will be asked by God to give our lives in a physical death (known as red martyrdom), but we ALL are asked to die daily in little ways to ourselves so as to Glorify God by the offering and sacrifices we make (known as white martyrdom). What could these white martyrdom experiences look like? Maybe you offer that second cup of coffee that you have in the afternoon to a family member or friend who is struggling? I know you'd agree that would be a sacrifice for love of the other. God will bless this 'little death' to yourself – maybe not in the exact way you are asking, but I promise you He hears you and will act according to His will, for our good! Another example could be doing the dishes before going to bed. When you're tired and just want to call it a night, God will give both you and the person you are offering this sacrifice a deep grace because you chose to die to yourself and not leave the dirty dishes for a day or a week.

Be attentive to the white martyrdom experiences God may be asking of you. Lean into them because you will want to resist it, but He will provide the strength for you to respond to His promptings.

St. Luke and the Jesuit martyrs are examples for us of holiness. Maybe take one chapter of Luke's Gospel each day and enter into the Gospel stories with Jesus, Mary and the Apostles. Pray through the intercession of the first North American martyrs to respond to tough situations in love, boldness, and courage. Believe that God is working in you, through you, and with you! May we be open to how God is using the ordinary to speak extraordinarily!

Strive to be faithful to that which God has called you.

Angela Merici

“In the twilight of life, God will not judge us on our earthly possessions and human successes, but on how well we have loved.”

Saint John of the Cross

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It's the positions of power and great authority that people often admire. We equate success with six figure incomes, high positions, management, and influence. We even go above and beyond to find favor with our bosses so that we can get a little extra recognition and maybe the next promotion when it comes up. This is the way of the world. Those who have their values set on earthly things are going to work by earthly rules. We forget that it doesn't work that way in the Kingdom of God. Success is measured not from the place of status, influence, or prestige but from the place of humility, service, and sacrifice. The authority that one hopes to achieve is not an authority over others but an authority that comes from wisdom and developing one's relationship with God. Jesus flips the tables on our priorities. Even the first disciples had a tough time understanding this. They really thought that they would somehow receive a privilege or bonus from being faithful. We often operate under that same illusion. ©LPI

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT

Respecting All Life!

Started in 2009, our Respect for Life ministry is focused on advancing the sanctity of human life and raising awareness in our community. This ministry furthers their mission of protecting innocent lives by participating in various activities throughout the year in our parish and beyond.

As you may have noticed, there are pink and blue flags in front of our Church this month. In honor of children who lose their lives to abortion each year, the Respect for Life ministry puts up these flags as a reminder of how many unborn babies do not live to see God's plan for them. In addition, they participate in 40 Days for Life campaigns in Fall and Spring, which includes going to an abortion clinic in Milwaukee to pray. They collect signatures from members of our parish and run an ad in the Waukesha Freeman annually on January 22 on behalf of Wisconsin Right to Life. They also host a Rose Sale after Masses during Mother's Day weekend to raise money for Respect for Life projects as well as saving for the purchase of a memorial monument for the unborn.

We would like to thank Ruth Chadwick for her tireless dedication to this ministry! Are you interested in leading or helping Respect for Life at St. Charles? Please call our Parish Office at 262-367-0800 for more information.

BLESSING OF THE PETS

St. Charles celebrated the Feast of St. Francis in style with our annual Pet Blessing on October 4th. Many people bring their pets to the church to be blessed on St. Francis' feast day because of his love for animals as expressed in his Canticle of Creatures.

Father Ken and Deacon Matthew Kirk were both there for the blessing, which included a prayer and sprinkling with holy water. There was a joyous gathering of guinea pigs, a bunny, two cats, a turtle, and lots of dogs. As Catholics, we can honor the teachings of St. Francis all year long by caring for the earth and its creatures.

"After receiving a personal invite to accompany a trusted friend to a Women of Christ Conference a few years ago, Gina has pursued ways to be more intentional in her faith life and in the life of our home parish of St. Charles in Hartland. To my delight, she now attends daily Mass, prays the Rosary frequently, hosts a faith-sharing group and has created a special prayer space in our home. Praise be to God for our stronger marriage," David Vogt.
