THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

32nd Sunday
IN ORDINARY TIME

"Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood." ~ Mark 12:43-44

NOVEMBER 11th

VETERAN'S DAY PRAYER

Dear Lord,
Today we honor our veterans,
worthy men and women who gave their best when they were called upon to serve and protect their country.
We pray that you will bless them, Lord,
for their unselfish service
in the continual struggle to preserve our freedoms, our safety,
and our country's heritage, for all of us.

Bless them abundantly for the hardships they faced,
for the sacrifices they made for their many different contributions to America's victories over tyranny and oppression.
We respect them, we thank them,
we honor them, we are proud of them,
and we pray that you will watch over these special people and bless them with peace and happiness.
In Jesus' name we pray; Amen.

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION
32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

On December 10, 1979, a very petite holy woman known as Mother Teresa of Calcutta spoke these words in her Nobel Peace Prize Acceptance Speech, "But I am sure in the families and many of our homes, maybe we are not hungry for a piece of bread, but maybe there is somebody there in the family who is unwanted, unloved, uncared, forgotten, there isn't love. Love begins at home. And love to be true has to hurt. I never forget a little child who taught me a very beautiful lesson. They heard in Calcutta, the children, that Mother Teresa had no sugar for her children, and this little one, Hindu boy four years old, he went home and he told his parents: I will not eat sugar for three days, I will give my sugar to Mother Teresa. How much a little child can give. After three days they brought into our house, and there was this little one who could scarcely pronounce my name, he loved with great love, he loved until it hurt. And this is what I bring before you, to love one another until it hurts, but don't forget that there are many children, many children, many men and women who haven't got what you have. And remember to love them until it hurts."

Living authentically and walking with holiness always involves sacrifice. It has to hurt. Only actions springing from true and deep sacrifice demonstrate true integrity. Without sacrifice, even what is apparently a generous gesture can be nothing. It is no wonder that the widow who contributed from her poverty received great admiration from Jesus and the young child in our story above. It is easy to make the houses of our lives look like they are in perfect order when in fact they are in shambles within. Religion can sometimes make this hypocritical masquerade easy to accomplish. We can find ourselves in all the right holy places, reciting all of the correct prayers, participating in community collections, and reciting the proper doctrines only to find ourselves empty, shallow, self-focused, and overly anxious about personal concerns.

The one who learns to discover their inner poverty, their spiritual poverty, is the only one who can truly place him or herself at the mercy of God. It is only when we allow ourselves to be empty that we realize Who we actually need to fill us. This is the real meaning of trust. Many of us are afraid to take the plunge. We allow ourselves to detach from only so much, always keeping a watchful eye on the protection of our securities. We understand the value of poverty, but we do not want to become too poor. As long as we are able to recognize this tension, our reluctance to let go and our struggle, we can continue our journey of humbly learning how to love so deeply that it hurts. God understands and waits.

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Reflection questions for Sunday, November 14th

- The prophet Daniel foresees a time of "unsurpassed distress" where all receive divine judgement of either everlasting life or everlasting disgrace. Do thoughts of the end times bring you comfort or concern?
- The author of Hebrews continues to emphasize Jesus' death as the definitive and final sacrificial offering for sins. Why do you think this is a central theme in the Letter to the Hebrews?
- Jesus speaks of his Second Coming at the end of time and warns his disciples: "Be watchful! Be alert!" How are you preparing for judgment day?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

THE LOOK

Have you ever made the mistake of telling your spouse that you're out of something — only to see them respond with The Look? Then you realize it: of course, he or she knows you're out of butter. They knew it before a butter shortage was even a blip on your radar.

We might go to the fridge and lament the complete lack of ketchup. Then someone moves a couple items and shows us the ketchup that so savagely eluded us just moments before.

Sometimes, we all have “the look” when dealing with God. We tell Him our stores are empty. “I'm out, God! I can't do any more! Can't give any more. Can't take any more. It's all gone.” But we forget: God is the keeper of our stores. He is the one who fills them, and the one who watches as they empty.

See, we don't know how much we are capable of loving. We don't know how much we are capable of serving. We don't know how much we are capable of hoping. We see everything with spouse eyes. Only our Creator truly knows the limits of His creation.

Do you ever make the mistake of telling God “I'm done?” Be careful the next time you do. Chances are, He's far from finished working.

LORD, you have probed me, you know me: you know when I sit and stand; you understand my thoughts from afar. You sift through my travels and my rest; with all my ways you are familiar. Even before a word is on my tongue, LORD, you know it all.

Psalms 139:1-4

LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It all really boils down to a matter of the heart, and actions do speak louder than words. We cannot hide from the truth. A problem with religion is that it is possible for someone to make everything appear to be right when actually it is not. We can say all of the right prayers, perform all of the prescribed rituals, claim that we adhere to orthodox doctrines and still lead a distorted, empty and sometimes pitiful life. Only actions springing from true and deep sacrifice demonstrate true integrity. Without sacrifice, even the noblest looking actions can amount to nothing. It is no wonder, then, that the widow who contributed from her poverty received great admiration from Jesus. While it may not always appear to be the case, God has a special care and regard for those who depend upon him in times of trouble and want. Only the person who is truly poor is the only one who can see this. Because of a lack of trust, the one who has much is afraid to take a risk and sees only what they possess as their only security. ©LPi

STEWARDSHIP (TIME, TALENT AND TREASURE)

PLEDGE COMMITMENT WEEKEND NOVEMBER 13 & 14

Last weekend, Fr. Ken talked at all the Masses during the homily about financial stewardship. First and foremost, Fr. Ken said thank you to everyone for their support! The unflinching generosity, even during a pandemic, has not gone unnoticed. He also presented the unique opportunity for parishioners to give two gifts this year to St. Charles. The first gift is to pledge support to the parish and its ministries - keeping the parish operational on a day-to-day basis. The second gift is to help reduce the financing for the new church. A letter from Fr. Ken and pledge commitment cards were mailed to all parish households this past week. An offering prayer was distributed at these Masses for all to pray while considering their support to St. Charles this year. All are asked to bring their completed card with them to Mass the weekend of November 13 & 14. If you prefer to make your commitment online, you may do so on our parish website (QR code included with the mailing). Of all the gifts at St. Charles, we are most thankful for you!

OFFERING PRAYER 2021

*Father God,
We come to You as Your children in thanksgiving for all You have done, are doing, and will do in our lives and in that of Your Church here at St. Charles.*

As we pray, we ask for the grace to be generous with the amount we offer towards the building of our new Church and the weekly tithe we offer in union with the Body of Christ. Lord, in confidence, we entrust back to You what You first gave us, and believe that You will give back a hundredfold what we have pledged to give in love.

Amen

FAMILY Thanksgiving MASS

FAMILY THANKSGIVING MASS
WEDNESDAY, NOV. 24TH
AT 6:00 PM

All are welcome to attend St. Charles Family Thanksgiving Mass held on Wednesday, Nov. 25th at 6 pm.

During this pandemic it is even more important to celebrate our blessings and give thanks to the Lord. We hope you and your family will attend.

STAIRWAY TO "HEAVEN" (actually to the entrance and exit)

If you are using the west doors to come to Mass, we ask that you please use the east stairwell in the school (across from the Renson Road doors) when entering or exiting the church. This will help alleviate parishioner traffic around our Catechesis of the Good Shepard atrium. The elevator will still be available to those who need to use it. Follow the bright pink direction signs.

St. Charles is resuming their joyful tradition of singing Christmas carols at the Hartland Lights Festival on December 3 from 6:00-6:30 pm. Come enjoy holiday activities, support our local businesses, and get your picture taken with Santa. All ages are welcome to come and sing, and families are encouraged to participate together. We will hold a brief rehearsal on Monday evening, November 29, from 6:30-7:00 pm in church. Please contact Peg Kasun to RSVP, or for more information.

The meal will be hosted by the St. Charles Garden Club, and they prepare a Traditional Thanksgiving Meal. We also offer blood pressure readings before the meal.
