15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

— Reflection questions for Sunday, November 21st —

The kingdom of God is available to you in the here and the now. But the question is whether you are available to the kingdom.

Nhat Hanh

quodians

- The prophet Daniel has a vision of the “everlasting dominion” of the “son of man.” Why do think the Lord revealed this vision to Daniel?
- John teaches his community that Jesus “has made us (believers) into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father.” How should knowledge of this reality affect your spiritual journey?
- In his trial Jesus tells Pilate that his kingdom is not of this world. What do you think prevents the Kingdom of God from being more fully present in our world?

DEVOTIONS AT ST. CHARLES

There are an overflowing number of devotions that exist in the Catholic Church. What a gift that Holy Mother Church has given Her children to pray in such varied ways according to what uniquely moves our hearts. Yet, when we are honest, praying all of them would be exhausting and would lose the meaning behind the intention we were seeking.

At St. Charles, we have chosen three intentional devotions that we believe encompass best the heart of our Parish family: Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Mother of Perpetual Help, and the Divine Mercy Chaplet. In the weeks to follow, we will unpack these devotions and hope to invite your family to join us in praying for and with each other.

The decision to give ourselves to others is a daily taking up of the cross.

Charles R. Swindoll

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

GIVING UNTIL IT HURTS

In the time of Christ, sacrifice was nothing new to the Jewish people. The Israelites were experts at sacrifice. So, after centuries of every kind of offering imaginable, what was so special about Christ's? What made it so different from the sacrifices offered by the Levitical priests for centuries before his death?

Well, to adequately answer that question would consume whole volumes. And, of course, the first and most important reason is that Christ was the son of God and the Savior of the World, not a random (if “unblemished”) lamb offering. It was only by the blood of Christ that we could be redeemed.

But another answer is this: Christ's sacrifice cost him. In fact, it cost him everything. The offerings made by the Israelites through their priests cost them too, of course. They gave of their flocks, of their household stores, of their wealth. But Christ gave differently. He gave of himself. He gave until it was all gone.

Such is the highest form of stewardship: the gift of self to the point of discomfort. It can take a multitude of forms and I am not saying we are all called to be nailed to the cross. In fact, for most of us, our gifts will not involve physical discomfort at all. But certainly, stewardship demands discomfort. It demands that we go against our human nature of putting ourselves first, of thinking primarily of our own needs and desires. And most of all, it demands love. For that, above all else, distinguished the gift Christ gave us.
