15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

— Reflection questions for Sunday, November 28th —

- The prophet Jeremiah speaks of God's promise to fulfill the covenant made with King David, four hundred years earlier in 1000 B.C. As we enter into the season of Advent, how might you show your fidelity to God?
- Paul's prayer for the believers in Thessalonica is to abound in love and strength for one another in preparation for the return of Christ. How do you think communities of faith can support each other during the Advent season?
- In Jesus teaching the disciples about the coming end of times and judgement day, he warns them not to be too distracted by the stresses and anxieties of daily life. How do you keep focused on your spiritual life amongst the many daily challenges we face?

COME LET US ADORE HIM
EUCHARISTIC ADORATION DEVOTION

Adoration is the highest form of worship given to God alone. We adore Jesus' fully present Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the Blessed Sacrament present in the consecrated Host from Mass. Jesus is placed in a gold container called a Monstrance. In Latin the word 'monstrare' means 'to show'. We are invited then to sit with Jesus, to speak with Him and allow Him to love us. In return, our presence delights Jesus abundantly and is a way in which we can love Him in return.

We have been living this devotion at St. Charles through offering Adoration on Monday, Tuesday, and Friday. It is exciting to invite you to join us during the Advent Season for Adoration on Wednesday and Thursday mornings from 7-8:15am (immediately following the 6:30 am Mass). This is an opportunity from God to Meet, Know, Love, and Serve Him anew through this devotion in the Church.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God is wonderfully and surprisingly creative! He turns the tables on our understanding of what it means to be a king by sending us a king who embraces poverty, insults, suffering, ridicule, rejection, and even death. This is our king. Jesus is not the king of prestige or grandeur but the king who brings light to darkness, hope to despair, sinners to mercy, and new life out of death. God dances on, around, in and through all of the silliness and ugliness of the world bringing all of creation to the eternal dance of new life and hope. Whether we accept it now or hope that we one day do, Christ is king of the universe. Christ is the alpha and the omega, the beginning and the end. Every human being, even those who scorned and rejected him and failed to see him in the least of our brothers and sisters will look upon him. Only those who understand truth will understand that we are on this awesome universal journey to Christ. It is a journey of surprises but also a journey of enlightenment when we will one day see and experience with the deepest joy our being in Christ. We will be restless until we are all one day together united in Christ our King.

Who is Marianne Giovingo and where can you find her?

That is not an answer you will ever say for a Trivia Night or while watching Jeopardy but maybe something you will say if you find yourself needing help around St. Charles. I have two offices, so it's kind of like a Where's Waldo: You can find me in the front office or in the Discipleship Office (and if you count the Church and Chapel, you might find me there, too!) God led me to St. Charles, which is the truth that all of us can claim, but it does require a response from us to bend our ear to how God speaks in the ordinary of the day.

I grew up in Rockford, Illinois, went to college at Loras in Dubuque, IA, and have a degree in Secondary Education. I find life by hanging out with others – it doesn't matter what we're doing. It also is thrilling to have conversations with strangers – to enter into a part of their life and see a story unfolding; what joy! My love is Jesus Christ! I have discerned two Religious Orders, and though He is still calling me to be consecrated to Him, He has allowed me to say YES at this time to being back in Milwaukee and serve at St. Charles.

As Engagement and Discipleship Coordinator, I have the privilege to walk with you as parishioners to help you hear God's voice in how He is calling you to Meet, Know, Love, and Serve Him according to your specific needs and desires. The Lord has gifted me with a to help build a bridge between parishioners who are new and want to get involved or who have been with this parish for decades and are wanting to go deeper. I'm here for you; how I can help you, how I can pray for you, how you hear God calling your family to both receive and serve St. Charles! We are lifelong learners, so our formation doesn't stop at a certain age, but we must constantly seek to be in relationship with Jesus. Come and see me – I'll be waiting with a smile!

THURSDAY MORNING MEN'S GROUP NEW SERIES

Thursday morning Men's Group will be starting a new series, Metanoia, on December 2nd. This series is beautifully filmed on location in the Holy Land. Each of the 10 episodes explores areas of our life where conversion is so often necessary. Metanoia will examine topics such as who is Jesus, what must we do to inherit eternal life, and many other significant matters of faith. With preaching from Fr. Dave Pivonka as well as personal testimonies from men and women, young and old, religious and lay, their stories will inspire you to seek to encounter Jesus and the new life He is constantly inviting us to.

Please join us Thursdays from 5:30-7 am. Contact us at mensgroup@stcharleshartland.org or call Jim Dunn at 262-751-7345 with questions.
