THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION
24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We need to get our bearings straight and properly lay life's cornerstone. Otherwise, the rest of our journey will be skewed, and our judgment clouded. We can recall Jesus' famous rebuke of Peter, "You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Even he, as one of Jesus' closest friends, struggles with understanding things and grasping the big picture. Pierre Teilhard de Chardin (1881-1955), a renowned and learned French Jesuit priest, often has these words attributed to him: "We are not human beings having a spiritual experience. We are spiritual beings having a human experience." Whether they were actually from his lips, they certainly mimic his thought. These wise words orient us and capture the essence of who we really are.

Many people consider spirituality an option. It is no wonder that they come to this conclusion when they predominantly define themselves using human terms and concepts. Immersed in this world view, they struggle finding any semblance of God because God does not work according to human expectations! This is especially true when suffering and death enter life's picture. If we are only human beings having a spiritual experience, then we wrongly expect our spirituality to serve us as we desire. The human expectation is that my spiritual life is something that is useful in avoiding pain, hardship, and death, not something that gives the courage to live through it!

So, when we protest and get upset with God because our journey is becoming difficult, painful, treacherous, disappointing, and even pointing us toward death, Jesus rebukes us as he did Peter and gently reminds us how to see. It is God who inspires and opens hearts to see truth and beauty. In God, the true meaning of things is understood, and we receive a depth of insight and understanding that is not found following purely human paths. It is not our task to understand God, as God is beyond human understanding. Ours is the joyful privilege of simply resting in God's presence simply because God is God, and we are who we are. As spiritual beings having an exciting and adventurous human experience, it is in our DNA to do so. Through prayer we can let go and let be. This is how we lose our lives but then save them. ©LP

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

— Reflection questions for Sunday, September 19th —

- The Wisdom writer reveals the mentality of the wicked, characterized by revenge and treachery. How best should people of faith respond to such behavior?
- James offers insight into the human condition as it relates to how often our ambitions and passions can lead us astray. How do you keep yourself grounded in holy intentions?
- We hear today how the disciples were afraid to ask Jesus questions and reluctant to share with him some of their tensions. Why do you sometimes hold back from opening up to the Lord?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Can You Walk the Walk?

I've met and talked with enough people to feel confident that if you polled 100 fallen-away Catholics about why they didn't want anything to do with the Church, the term "accountability" would pop up in almost all of their answers. And to be fair, a lack of accountability isn't just a Catholic problem. Talking the talk but not walking the walk has been a shortcoming handed down throughout the ages, across all creeds and nationalities.

Loving our neighbor, welcoming the stranger, clothing the naked, feeding the poor – it all sounds fantastic, especially when we're the ones saying it. But the doing – well, that's a different story, isn't it? We would do well to remember that Christ calls one of his best friends "Satan" when Peter tries to convince Jesus to stray from his destiny.

Have you ever been called Satan by one of your good buddies? I'll bet it's not a great feeling. But think about what Peter was doing. He had just said, "You are the Christ." And now, mere moments later, he's saying: "Don't say these things. Don't say you're going to suffer. Don't say you'll be killed."

He was telling Christ to squander what the Lord had given him. He was telling him that having faith was fine, but being faithful? It's just a little too hard. God has a destiny for you, too, and He's asking you to be open to it. Maybe it's not in your comfort zone. Maybe you don't think you can do it.

Lord, give us faith – but help us, also, to do the work.

– Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

PRAYER TO DO GOD'S WORK

God, please continue to shape me into someone who encourages other people. Show me what it means to do good to all people, and then help me to live this out. Make me aware of the opportunities to serve others that You place around me, and help me to act on them. I want every area of my life to reflect Your kindness and compassion.

In Jesus' name, Amen

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT

Harmonize with the Music Ministry!

What is the importance of having music at Mass?
 Mass music performs a sacred act that enhances the sacred liturgy. Sacred music elevates the spirit and our earthly senses towards higher levels such as prayer, adoration and the sacred truths of our faith. This is why our music ministry is so important.

As we embark on a new season of music ministry this year at St. Charles, we ask you to share your precious gifts of music with us! We have one of the most comprehensive programs in the Archdiocese, and St. Charles has something for everyone. We have two Children's Choirs, a Praise Group, Adult Choir, Men's Choir, Women's Choir, Resurrection Choir, Cantors, Psalmists, Instrumentalists, Handbells, and a Seasonal Choir. Some are scheduled regularly, some based on availability according to your schedule.

On Wednesday, September 15, we are hosting the Catholic Choir Comeback beginning at 6:00pm in the Borromeo Room. This is an opportunity for everyone who is interested in Music Ministry to come together to share food, fun, and fellowship and get to know other music ministers. For more information, contact Scott Currier (scurrier@stcharleshartland.org) or Peg Kasun (pkasun@stcharleshartland.org).

PILGRIM FATIMA STATUE TOUR

SEPTEMBER 26TH

You are welcome to join us at St. Charles on September 26 from 2-4 pm in the church for quiet, private prayer and reflection in front of the Fatima Statue.

The message of Fatima spread throughout the world after World War II largely through the Pilgrim Virgin Statue tours, which began in 1947 from Fatima. Their purpose then, as today, is to bring the graces of Fatima and Our Lady's message of hope, peace and salvation to those many thousands of people who may never have an opportunity to make a pilgrimage to Fatima itself. For more information, visit www.bluearmy.com. All are welcome to comepray with us!
