THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION
4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

St. Oscar Romero (1917-1980) was a “Salvadoran Roman Catholic archbishop who was a vocal critic of the violent activities of government armed forces, right-wing groups, and leftist guerrillas involved in El Salvador’s civil conflict (Encyclopedia Britannica).” As a voice of the voiceless, he was an outspoken champion of the poor who were the ones most affected by the civil unrest and violence. His advocacy provoked several attempts on his life. Nonetheless, St. Oscar Romero was convinced that before all else his faith in the resurrected Christ and the values of the Gospel trumped any earthly concern or worry. He walked with complete confidence and trust. On March 24, 1980, St. Oscar Romero was assassinated while celebrating Mass. Such is often the fate of those who challenge the socio-political agendas of the day.

We may look at the example of witness of St. Oscar Romero as something extraordinary. In one sense it is. Through the power of God, an ordinary human being did extraordinary things. But, in and of himself, St. Oscar Romero was simply a humble, loving servant of God. Oscar knew not only the power of love but the risk that comes when loving unconditionally. The beauty of God’s message was able to shine in and through him because he was able to step out of the way and be a vessel. One can assume that for St. Oscar Romero, one’s earthly life has no merit when faith, integrity, conviction, zeal and love are jettisoned. Fear and apprehension had no grip on this man who not only saw but spoke the truth.

Do we speak the truth? It makes us feel good to speak of God as love. But have we ever considered the ramifications of this radical message? There are assaults on human life occurring daily. More and more the value and worth of a human being is being reduced and minimized. We are becoming widgets in the production of life. In our whole simple humble ways, we too are called to be prophets. Knowing who you are and what is within your means to do, how can you make God’s love real, stand up for what is right, and give witness to the sacredness of all that is around you? ©LPI

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Take the 1% Challenge and get to know Jesus!

ASK (3 Minutes)

- Begin in the name of the Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit
- Take a moment to be still, rest and know that Jesus is here ...
- Ask Jesus to help you get to know Him during this prayer time.
- Say, “Lord, teach me to pray.”

SEEK (7 Minutes)

- After reading the day’s scripture, take some time to reflect in silence on one or more of the following questions:
  - What word or phrases in this passage caught your attention?
  - What in this passage comforted you?
  - What in this passage challenged you?
- Re-read the passage.
- Take a few minutes to simply listen and then respond with: “I hear the Lord saying to me ...”

KNOCK (5 Minutes)

- Based on what you hear the Lord saying to you, ask Him what He wants you to do today or this week in light of His will for you.
- Listen to His answer to you and then respond by saying, “I believe the Lord wants me to ...”
- Ask the Lord for what you need to respond to His word. Thank Him for being with you today.
- Close with an Our Father. End in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

FIRST CORINTHIANS AND THE STEWARDSHIP OF SOCIAL MEDIA

“Love is patient, love is kind ...” As familiar as these words are, they never seem to stray into the territory of becoming trite or silly. At their core they communicate a truth about us and about our Creator that never fails to inspire.

But despite the fact that you’ve probably heard it at many weddings over time, First Corinthians isn’t just for newlyweds. It wasn’t written for married folks. It’s for every single one of us, in every state of life and every social situation, in every country and culture and language across the globe.

Which means that First Corinthians is even for the online world. It’s for Facebook and Twitter and Instagram and all the other platforms I’m forgetting (there seems to be a new one every day, doesn’t there?).

A sense of division — whether rooted in politics, culture or anything else — is growing in our world, and it’s never more obvious than when we observe interactions online.

It is far easier, after all, to remember what love is when a human being of flesh and blood stands before us. When all we see is an avatar or a profile picture on a screen — especially accompanied by an opinion with which we vehemently disagree — even the most loving Christians can throw First Corinthians out the window.

As everyday stewards we know that we are charged to be not only gracious but grateful. We receive others, but we also give thanks for what they bring to us — even if that’s an opportunity to “strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts.”

So before the next time you post anything online, I suggest giving First Corinthians a read — and remember, love never fails.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Prophets possess an intimate knowledge of God and act on their experience of God. Prophetic messages usually challenge the status quo and draw us up and out of ourselves, focusing us on the bigger picture. We often think of ourselves and our own needs first. When we listen to someone speak, we judge the merit of the message by its degree of usefulness. If the message or vision contains no personal benefit or profit but a call to stretch and grow, we can become indignant. Prophets are usually the ones whose message challenges us and calls us to see things differently and love more perfectly and deeply. God is love. When listening to St. Paul speak about love, we witness the unfolding of this type of unconditional, other-centered, self-sacrificial perfect God. It is an invitation to life, freedom, and happiness that can be offered to us only by God. Jesus, who is God and Love incarnate, calls us to this richer expression of love. Are we ready to listen and be challenged and stretched? ©LPi

SERVING HOPE AT THE HOPE CENTER

One of the most powerful ways that we can support one another is to serve the poor, and that is what the St. Charles Outreach Services Team does monthly. Here they are serving parishioner Steve Houle's Smokin pulled-pork at the Hope Center in Milwaukee. We thank those that serve in that ministry and those that donate food to help those in need.

If you would like to get involved, please contact Terri Blazek at jtblazek@wi.rr.com or visit the Outreach Services Team page under the 'Serve Christ' tab on our parish website.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: juice, cooking oil, gift cards to Pick-n-Save and Piggly Wiggly

Donations to our St. Charles SVdP food pantry along with funding our ministry shares the love of Christ with Hartland's poor and low-income residents. It is only through generous hearts that the members of St. Vincent de Paul are able to offer assistance to help families find shelter, remain in their homes, repair their vehicles, purchase clothing and household items, and obtain needed medications. Pantry donations of food and hygiene items help others feed their families while reducing their expenses. Next weekend is SHARE SUNDAY, which is the once-monthly weekend dedicated to donations for SVdP and its food pantry.

If you need other assistance, please contact SVdP at 262-367-0800. If you need food, the pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland. It is open Tuesdays between 10 AM and noon. Evening hours are on the second and fourth Tuesday of the month between 5:30 PM and 7 PM.

The food pantry will close when Arrowhead Schools close for inclement weather. It will reopen the following week weather permitting.
