THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

5TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man,” these words, uttered by Simon Peter, can be found on any one of our lips. What real significance do I have in the big picture of God’s Divine plan? Even though we try our best to hide it, we all suffer from a lack of faith. We get tired, confused, and often lack any sincere desire to put anything into our relationship with God. It’s easier to simply reap whatever benefits the world has to offer and call it a day. Floating along on the superficial currents of life doesn’t require much effort and seems to get us through the day. Confronting our own infidelity, apathy, weakness of spirit, and doubt in God’s providence, how can we even remotely be considered a worthy vessel of God’s presence or credible voice for His message?

This is the irony of faith. God doesn’t seek the perfect vessels. He likes the broken ones. There is something to be said about living honestly and sincerely, and wrestling with sin, imperfection, and weakness rather than skipping through the peripheries of life with pretention, arrogance, and mendacity. If we believe ourselves to be our own “god” and serve only ourselves, we close the door to ever being used by the real and only True God. But, if we at least acknowledge that there is One greater than ourselves, then even in our deepest poverty and lowliness, God can enter.

Lessons are best learned from those who suffer. Only someone who has been lonely and lost can attest to the beauty of both Divine and human friendship. Only those who have really lost their way know what happens when they are found. Only those who are afraid know what it is to be calmed by God. The Gospel is messy because life is messy. There are no black and white solutions to problems and challenges that are hazy and gray. When our hesitancy to encounter God gets replaced by friendship with God, we become more aware of our dignity and the fact that we are loved just as we are. We cannot be afraid to share our struggles, reservations, fears, and sinfulness with others. Our genuineness and sincerity will speak of the God who blesses us in our weakness. ©LPI

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

—Reflection questions for Sunday, February 13th—

- The prophet Jeremiah speaks of the blessings and good fortunes one receives by trusting in the Lord. How have you seen this reward present in your life?
- Paul challenged those in Corinth who did not believe that Christ rose from the dead. In what ways do you defend the faith with unbelievers?
- In presenting both divine blessings and woes to his disciples, Jesus emphasizes a great reversal of these conditions in the future. What does this teach us about God's sense of justice?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

True prayer is a way of life, not just for use in cases of emergency.

Billy Graham

HOW DO I PRAY IN THE MIDST OF MY DAILY LIFE?

What does prayer look like for YOU today according to your way of life? We invite you to ask this question according to your vocation in life. Are you a parent, does your job have you working five days a week, are you a student, are you retired? In all of these areas, you can pray!

- In the morning: Before you step out of bed. While in the shower. Changing a diaper.
- On your lunch break: Go for a walk. Make the Sign of the Cross before eating.
- In the evening: Praying the Rosary as a family. Reviewing the day you had with God.

Moms and dads with children: It's hard to set aside time alone – so pray while serving – as you fold the laundry, pray for your children's vocation and your marriage – as you make dinner, pray for the nourishment of body, mind, and soul for your family – as you clean the house, pray for right order in your family.

Retired: Sometimes the day can be empty and other times full – are you able to attend daily Mass – can you meet a friend for coffee and share a meal – are you able to serve your children and grandchildren by babysitting?

Student: This is your job right now, invest yourself in it! Will you do your homework well and on time – Will you serve your family by doing the chores you can at home – Will you listen to your family when they speak to you about tough conversations in the world?

Do not be afraid to live life in prayer. You may be able to pause in your day, or God may be inviting you to pray through your day. However it looks, let God speak into your day!

PLEASE BRING IN LAST YEAR'S PALMS NOW UNTIL MARCH 1ST!

Traditionally, the dried palms from the previous year's Palm Sunday celebrations are burned to make the ashes we are marked with on Ash Wednesday. We will be collecting palms beginning now through Tuesday, March 1st. Please bring your old palms and place them in the baskets in the Narthex.

YOUTH CHOIRS SING AT ADMIRALS GAME!

The Youth Choir and Schola were invited to sing the National Anthem on Saturday, January 29 for the Milwaukee Admirals game downtown. The kids sang beautifully, and it was a good time for all of the choir families to share community and enjoy each other's company. Everyone received a free Admirals scarf, and the Admirals won! Great job, St. Charles choirs!
