THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

And to another he said, "Follow me." In every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling us. We can easily get distracted and not hear it or simply ignore it, pretending it wasn't even heard. When we do hear it and favorably respond, there are some conditions that must be met. Jesus makes it clear that once we say yes to his invitation, we must stay focused and forge ahead. We cannot keep looking behind or worry about unfinished business. There are some tasks, and discipleship is one, that require our full devotion.

There are many "masters" vying for our attention. We need something or someone to give us direction. Human nature requires it. Our motives and actions reveal what has our allegiance. It is tempting to give ourselves to masters that lure us with intriguing promises. When given the choice between a "master" that promises worldly success, abundant wealth, status, privilege, and security versus a "master" that asks for self-sacrifice, hardship, suffering, ridicule, and death, to whom do we go? While the promise of immediate pleasure is enticing, there is always a catch. For all that secular masters can promise, they always keep us looking behind, checking on ourselves, second guessing choices, calculating options, and being slaves to excessive worry. Our guard can never come down. Only one master really promises life: Jesus Christ. Hearing His call, we either trust Him or we don't.

Saying yes to following Christ does come with a risk. But it also comes with the brightness of future hopes and dreams. There is no need to keep looking behind. Sins are forgiven and regrets serve no effective purpose. God is not there. He's moved beyond all that stuff. God is in the today and the tomorrow and what He can continually do with our daily affirmation to follow Him. All we need to do is be obedient. St. Gianna Molla is credited with saying, "The stillness of prayer is the most essential condition for fruitful action. Before all else, the disciple kneels down." Begin with prayer. We will not only hear God's call but find the courage to trust that He will guide us where we need to be. God uses us in the most ordinary of ways through the simple daily expression of our lives. ©LPI

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, July 3rd Readings

Is 66:10-14c/Ps 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16, 20 [1]/Gal 6:14-18/
Lk 10:1-12, 17-20 or 10:1-9

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days please visit
<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, July 3rd

- Upon their return from exile in Babylon, the prophet Isaiah speaks of God's restoration of Jerusalem, characterizing Jerusalem as a nurturing mother feeding and loving her child. Why do you think Isaiah uses such sensuous and bold imagery?
- In his closing remarks to the Galatians, Paul comments that he "bears the marks of Jesus on his body," a clear reference to his own physical sufferings. Paul's scarred body gave him credibility as an apostle. How would you demonstrate your credibility as a believer in Jesus?
- During his public ministry, we hear how Jesus sent out his followers to begin evangelizing (preaching, healing, and exorcising) in his name. How best can we evangelize non-believers today?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

This Summer Session consists of gathering six consecutive weeks on Tuesday nights from 6:30-8:30pm the second half of the summer (July 19th - August 23rd). Each time together we will pray, dive deep into scripture, build our evangelical toolbox, and discern what the Lord is calling us to. EVERYONE who has gone through this process has voiced how incredibly powerful this journey has been, so we truly hope you'll join us!

Please contact Maria Notch with any questions and/or to sign up by July 12th for the summer session at mnotch@stcharleshartland.org.

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Chili (no beans), Manwich, deodorant, cleaning supplies

The 1st year Daisy Scouts from St. Charles Troop 1381 recently visited the SVdP food pantry along with donating many wonderful and needed items. One of our members provided a tour of the pantry to acquaint the Scouts with the pantry's function and needs of the community. The Scouts' visit was much enjoyed and appreciated.

Next week is SHARE SUNDAY! Please remember to bring your donations of unexpired food and hygiene items and fill the barrel located in the Borromeo Room. Financial assistance may be placed in the SVdP collection boxes and will be used to provide food, shelter, utility payments, clothing, household goods, or vehicle repairs to those in need. The food pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland. It is open Tuesday mornings between 10 AM and noon. Evening hours are on the second and fourth Tuesday of the month between 5:30 PM and 7 PM. If you need assistance or are interested in joining our ministry of service to the poor and needy, please contact SVdP at 262-367-0800.
