THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION
20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

An inward transformation occurs in a person who decides to follow Jesus Christ. Things change. They see the world differently, understand their journey more deeply and profoundly, have their sights fixed on eternity and union with God and hold themselves to higher standards and virtues. It requires a conscious choice to be a Christian, and this choice must be renewed at least daily. While the basic premise of Jesus' message may appear heartwarming and straightforward: love of God, neighbor, and self, the implications of doing so are challenging. The true disciple is called to live radically and often finds themselves at odds with the world or even with those in their own homes.

Holding ourselves to higher standards comes with a price. We have to leave other things behind. It is difficult to be people of faith, hope, and love in a world often fixated with its own fulfillment and self-absorption. Justice, temperance, prudence, and fortitude require sacrifice if they are to be lived with integrity. God's ways are not ours. This becomes crystal clear to those who have enough courage to stand against the tide. Putting love into action requires that we challenge accepted modes of doing business and fight complacency. This is what makes the saints stand out as witnesses. They are simply sinners, just like us, who persevere.

People do not want to be told that they're sailing their ships in the wrong direction. Clinging to their insistence and need to be correct, they can become defensive when challenged. This can happen even with those closest to us. As much as the Gospel calls us to unity, it also can easily create division. When we love seriously, we encounter more than feelings of warmth and acceptance. "What does love look like? It has the hands to help others. It has the feet to hasten to the poor and needy. It has eyes to see misery and want. It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of men. That is what love looks like" (St. Augustine). Love also has the courage and honesty to tell people what they may not want to hear but need to, and model, without wavering, a life of humble, loving, and faithful service. Don't lose heart! There are many examples of faith before us and around us. If Jesus endured the voices of opposition, so too can we. There is no need to apologize for speaking the truth. ©LPI

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE
Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, August 21st Readings

Sunday: Is 66:18-21/Ps 117:1, 2/Heb 12:5-7, 11-13/
 Lk 13:22-30

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days please visit
<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, August 21st

- The final prophecy in the Book of Isaiah speaks about the end times when God will gather "all nations and tongues" and all the world will finally see the full "glory" of God. Why do you think this event has been revealed to us?
- Our author of Hebrews speaks of the trials and tribulations of our lives as a "discipline" from God meant to teach and train us. Can you think of a lesson learned from some difficult situations in your life?
- As Jesus continues on his journey to Jerusalem, he teaches the crowds about the urgency to accept his invitation for salvation. Why do you think so many people lack this sense of urgency for their own salvation?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

A STEWARD'S GROWING PAINS

Have you ever written a check or seen the charge on the credit card machine that had far too many zeros on it for your comfort?

The brakes finally give up on the car you were hoping to nurse through the season. The water heater dies on the coldest week of the year. A medical procedure wasn't totally covered by insurance. We've all been here in this place, being asked to part with a not-so-small sum of money for a not-so-fun reason.

It's a little easier to bear when you're forking over dollar signs for a fun vacation or even a worthy cause like your child's education. But when it's something you weren't expecting, something negative, that uneasiness in the pit of your stomach can quickly become despair.

The next time this happens to you, embrace it. Celebrate it. Wrap your arms around it and welcome it as a growing pain.

We are often asked in life to give more than we wish. Our loved ones demand greater patience than we think we have. Our prayer life is stalling, and we feel God isn't holding up His end of the communication bargain. The daily grind seems to be grinding us down. We feel that uneasiness in the pit of our stomach, just as we do when we part with money we thought belonged solely to us.

That place of uncertainty propels us in life, in stewardship, in relationship. All forward motion comes from that feeling. Put out your hands and let yourself be thrust into the pit — He will stoop to take you out from the mud. Spread your arms on your cross — joy is waiting for you.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

There is a "great cloud of witnesses" found in the official saints of the church and in ordinary people we meet every day. They are faith-filled inspirations who, by their example, help us to persevere in our faith. Living in a sea of conflict, change, challenge, and confusion, it is easy to grow tired and get weary. With so many things in competition for our attention, it is challenging to keep our eyes fixed on Jesus and the Kingdom of God. We have to keep running the race and continue proclaiming the Good News. This message is not always welcome. It can cause division, challenge-accepted mindsets, ruffle peoples' feathers, and cause some folks to become defensive. God's ways are not always our ways. Even though often rejected by the world, the message of God in Jesus Christ must continue to be preached. We can rely on the examples of faith before us and around us and not lose heart. As Jesus endured the voices of opposition, so too can we. ©LPi

A PRAYER FOR TRUTH

All-Knowing Lord, I know that Your word is truth and the truth will set me and others free. I pray that You will help those who hear the gospel today to recognize it for the truth that it is. Lord, help me to speak the truth at all times as I go out to proclaim Your word. I praise You for Your truth.
In Jesus' name, I pray, Amen.

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: mayo and tissues

Thank you for your generous donations to the St. Charles' SVdP food pantry. With your help, our food pantry provides food for the hungry while honoring the dignity of our patrons. Shoppers choose their own items, filling baskets based upon family size. They are free to take what they need, prefer, and are not required to accept food they do not want. Volunteers also carefully check expiration dates of each donated item so our patrons do not receive expired food or hygiene items. In other words, at the welcoming St. Charles SVdP food pantry, families shop for their needs just like you shop for yours. God bless St. Charles parishioners and priests, other churches and benefactors, and our pantry landlord for keeping this possible.

The food pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland. It is open Tuesday mornings between 10 AM and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday of the month between 5:30 PM and 7 PM. If you need other assistance, or are interested in becoming a member of SVdP, please contact us at 262-367-0800.

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION 2022

Monday, August 15th is the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Normally, the Church considers this a holy day of obligation; that is, Catholics are required to attend Mass to honor the holy day. However, this year the Assumption falls on a Monday. Back in the 1990s, the Church came to the determination that when certain holy days fall on a Saturday or a Monday, Mass attendance is not required, although it is strongly encouraged. These three holy days are January 1 – Mary, Mother of God; August 15 – Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary; and November 1 – All Saints.

Even though it is not a holy day of obligation this year, Saint Charles Parish will have two Masses on Monday, August 15th to honor the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Masses will be at 8:30 a.m. and noon. Please come and pray with us as we honor our Blessed Mother.
