Discipline will never bring about love for God, but love for God will bring about discipline.

Matt Chandler

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The serious disciple knows the necessity and value of discipline. Thinking of discipline as something punitive in nature, we underscore its place in our spiritual lives. Discipline is really about a radical trust in God and his guidance. "When you are conducted by a guide who takes you through an unknown country at night across fields where there are no tracks, by his own skill, asking no advice from anyone, giving no inkling of his plans, what choice do you have but to give yourself completely to his guidance? If you are convinced that he is a good guide, you must have faith in him and abandon yourself to his care" (Jean-Pierre de Caussade).

If someone wants to be physically fit, they readily find a competent trainer who sets them on a rigorous schedule. Determined to reach their goals, they sacrifice personal pleasure and trust in his guidance. Why should it be any different with God? In order to remain true to the way Jesus places before us, we have to listen, learn, and be willing to change. Falling in love with God and maintaining that relationship requires an investment of time, energy, and hard work. Putting personal preferences aside in pursuit of the Gospel and giving proper attention to our spiritual lives is challenging work. At first, "all discipline seems a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who are trained by it" (Hebrews).

"What God does is essentially good. It does not need to be reformed or controlled...If you would live according to the Gospels, give yourself completely and simply to the action of God" (Jean-Pierre de Caussade). Submission to the holy will of God is not a submission to a set of pre-ordained set of circumstances. Rather, it is an abandonment and trust in God's creative, life-giving, and salvific power. God brings light out of darkness and life out of death. Nurturing this bond of trust and seeking God in all things creates an intimate and particular relationship and bond between our Creator and us. When He comes, there will be no issue with us recognizing Him or Him recognizing us. We will have met before. ©LPI

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, August 28th Readings

Sunday: Sir 3:17-18, 20, 28-29/Ps 68:4-5, 6-7, 10-11/Heb 12:18-19, 22-24a/Lk 14:1, 7-14

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, August 28th

- Sirach speaks of humility as a virtue to embrace. Why do you think Jewish wisdom tradition often saw humility as an admirable human trait?
- Hebrews speaks of the sacrificial blood of Jesus providing us with unprecedented direct access to God. How do you share this good news with others?
- Jesus spoke to the "leading Pharisees" about the importance of humility and to freely give to those on the margins with no expectation of repayment. When have you done so in your life?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

MONTHLY TUESDAY EVENING MASS

We hope that this Mass will be an opportunity to encounter some of the ancient treasures of the Mass. One of these treasures is the celebration of the Mass in a common direction. To celebrate Mass in this way, the priest and the people face each other when they are speaking to each other (e.g. "The Lord be with you...And with your spirit"), and they face a common direction – toward Christ on the crucifix – when they are together speaking directly to God (e.g. during the Eucharistic Prayer). Another treasure is the Latin language, the use of which the Second Vatican Council wished to preserve (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy n. 36). During our Tuesday evening Masses, we will use Latin to sing those parts of the Mass that do not change from week to week: e.g. the Gloria; the Holy, Holy, Holy; the Our Father; and the Lamb of God. The rest of the Mass will be in English. While these treasures are indeed ancient, they are also ever new. While some of us may not be familiar with them, they still exist in the Church's treasury, waiting to be brought out and encountered by the next generation. The next Mass will be on Tuesday, August 23rd. We hope you can join us!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS CHANGING THE NARROW GATE

From doctors to counselors, anthropologists to school teachers, it seems like everyone has their own parenting style to peddle, guaranteeing it will result in a happy and well-adjusted kid.

You've got "gentle parenting," predicated on respect for the child's feelings and needs. You've got "attachment parenting," based on the belief that kids need time to adjust to being outside of the womb. You've got "free-range parenting," where self-sufficiency reigns supreme.

But of all the parenting approaches I've come across, I've never encountered a philosophy that rejects discipline altogether. There are lots of conflicting opinions on how best to administer that discipline, but I've never heard any parent or parenting "expert" worth their salt say that a mother or father should completely ignore misbehavior that threatens the well-being of the child himself.

Discipline is in our human DNA. Consider for a moment what the world would look like if it came to be filled with people who had never been taught to reflect on their life challenges. People who bristled at the suggestion of personal growth.

And yet we become this way with God. Even the most "devout" among us shy away from occasions of divine constructive criticism. We avoid confession and forego daily examinations of conscience. We keep things superficial in our prayer life, avoiding depth of heart and real intimacy with God, afraid of what He will speak to us.

But when we do this, we rob ourselves of an opportunity to rely on God's fatherly strength, to rest in His mercy, to fill ourselves up with His goodness. We're putting up our hands, saying: "No thanks, Father, I'm good. You can keep your discipline. You can keep your grace."

When we do this, we are making a beeline for the "narrow gate," sure of our own strength and ability to pass through it. All I can say is this, proceed at your own peril. Are you so sure of yourself?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Discipline is necessary for us to focus our attention and develop and refine our skills. A disciplined person has integrity and can make difficult but necessary choices. Most people do not like discipline, especially children. When we have to rise above our impulses and desires and do something challenging, it can appear as a punishment. The struggles of living a good and effective Christian life, especially when we actively choose virtue over vice, are allowed by God and necessary for reaching spiritual maturity. God invites us to share in His Kingdom. Hearing and accepting that invitation requires an active, conscious decision on our part. Reforming our lives and changing how we do things does not come easily. But it is precisely what is necessary for us to enter through the narrow gate that leads to life. Discipline is essential if we are going to discover our desire for union with our Creator and live in God's house. In this way, we will not risk finding the door locked when we need it to be open. ©LPi

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING OUR MISSION CHAPEL

The words "Thank you" cannot fully convey the message from Fr. Javier Guativa regarding the welcome given him during his recent visit. Speaking about our Parish's Mission Chapel, Our Lady of Lourdes in the Dominican Republic, he hoped he conveyed what life is like for our fellow parishioners. As Fr. Ken stated, we should not only build a new church here in Hartland but we should also build one for those without one. Through our financial support, the villagers of Canada de Piedra not only have a place for worship, it also serves as a meeting place for religious events, educational gatherings, and a refuge from storms (it has already been a shelter during two recent hurricanes).

St. Charles' Outreach Services Team, who sponsored this event, will continue as our connection to them and will communicate future updates. An upcoming mission trip to include our parishioners and teen groups is in the planning. In addition to this ministry, the Outreach Services Team serves those in need in and around our community as well as coordinating our support of our partner school, St. Anthony's School on the south side of Milwaukee.

If you wish to know more about this Team and their activities, please contact Terri Blazek at 262-367-7608 or jtblazek@wi.rr.com.

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: cereal, jelly (not grape), flavored instant oatmeal, oatmeal canisters, mandarin oranges and paper towels

When you support St. Charles' SVdP ministry, you are extending a helping hand to a neighbor who is carrying the cross of financial hardship. When you contribute financially, you are providing food, shelter, clothing, furniture, utilities, vehicle repairs, and medical expense assistance. When you donate to the SVdP food pantry, you are putting food on their table. When you support SVdP you are bringing hope and solace to someone who needs you. God bless you for helping us help others.

The food pantry is open Tuesday mornings between 10 AM and noon. It is also open Tuesday evenings on the second and fourth Tuesday of the month between 5:30 PM and 7 PM. If you need other assistance or are interested in volunteering through our ministry, please contact us at 262-367-0800.

GET TO KNOW SHELLY BUCHAN, ST. CHARLES CHILDREN'S DISCIPLESHIP CO-LEAD

I am excited to be joining the St. Charles family as the co-lead of Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, working closely with Alicia Van Hecke to strengthen and grow this way of formation in the church and the school. I have been involved with Catechesis of the Good Shepherd since 2005 and am trained in all three levels. I am also in the process of becoming a Formation Leader – someone who can train adults in Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. I am a licensed elementary educator and have spent most of my work in the church and in Christian schools.

Because of my great love for the Good Shepherd and His precious sheep, I am thrilled to be working to share the good news of the Gospel at St. Charles through the method of Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. I hope to help all of us fall more in love with Jesus while we eagerly wait for His return. Thank you for giving me this great opportunity to grow in love and service.

LAKE COUNTRY LIFE TEEN REGISTRATION FOR THE 2022-23 SCHOOL YEAR IS OPEN!

LCLT is the middle and high school ministry of St. Charles that walks with young people on their journey of faith and invites them into a deeper relationship with God through vibrant community, inspiring witness, and life-changing truth. DO YOU LOVE CHILDREN?

Are you interested in helping bring our children closer to Jesus in some very needed and yet simple ways? The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS), Children's Discipleship at St. Charles, is looking for a team of volunteers to serve as 'hall monitors' during class sessions: Sunday mornings, Monday and Wednesday evenings. Our only requirement is that you be an adult with safeguarding training. This volunteer role does not require further training and does not involve any teaching, yet it is vital to our ministry. If you have time to volunteer once or twice a month or even if you are willing to be a sub in the event someone is ill, please contact Alicia Van Hecke at avanhecke@stcharleshartland.org or Shelly Buchan at sbuchan@stcharleshartland.org.

CANTOR MINISTRY INVITES YOU!

Soon we will be creating the Fall Schedule for our Cantor Ministry. If God has blessed you with the gift of music, please consider sharing your gift to help our parish community pray well. This is open to adults, high school, and junior high singers. Please contact Peg Kasun (pkasun@stcharleshartland.org) or Dr. Aaron Mathews (amathews@stcharleshartland.org) for more information.

IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM FR. KEN

At last weekend's Masses, Fr. Ken mentioned that we received a letter from the Village of Hartland that he wanted to make the parish aware of and that he needs our help. First, Fr. Ken thanked those who have used the West Lot to park during our new church construction. The Village has received complaints that some nearby residents are unhappy with the increased street parking since our new church construction. There are many different views and reasons for these complaints. (If you want to know what some of our nearby residents are saying, you are welcome to watch the August 8th Village of Hartland meeting on YouTube.) Fr. Ken is asking all parishioners to park in the West Lot and not on the street. Our North East Parking Lot will be open soon, so that is good news and will definitely help to alleviate the street parking. The doors at the West Lot entrance will be open if you are coming to church, or you may enjoy the summer weather by using the Renson Road sidewalk. Fr. Ken is grateful for your help and for helping to be the light of Christ in the beautiful community of Hartland!
