THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

People who are concerned with their own advancement and agenda have little room for anyone else. With an almost addictive pursuit of esteem and acknowledgment from others, they become little more than entitled embodiments of the vice of pride. Public humiliation or embarrassment can hit them hard. While avoiding humiliation and embarrassment may be advantageous to obtaining worldly success, they are much less desirable motivations for entering the Kingdom of God. Avoiding embarrassment is a self-serving motivation. Pride and all of its manifestations have no place on God's agenda, neither do worldly success and fulfillment. In fact, we have been clearly told that if we love our lives, we will lose them. Therefore, if you really want to find your true station in life, learn to give yourself away.

While this may sound foolish to secular ears, it actually makes perfect sense. God, who is love, makes each of us in His image. Love, and therefore God, is in our DNA. That being the case, love is never love if it is kept to oneself or hoarded. Love needs to be shared and given away. Therefore, it is the only proper motivation for entering the Kingdom of God. The door to happiness is only opened when we realize that all we are and all we have is due only to God's grace. Without God we are nothing.

Love is the remedy for pride and protects us from ourselves. God asks us to be humble. Only when we are free from the traps of pride and arrogance that we can begin to follow the path to true humility. Only one who is humble can rightly love and be of service to God. "God makes use only of the humble as his instruments" (Jean-Pierre de Caussade). The humble one does not need others to give them worth and value. Their self-esteem comes from the much more secure foundation of God. Only those who are entirely free can give themselves freely to others. Love must always be our motivation for doing all things. Be content that God has invited you to the banquet of life. Concern yourself with accepting the invitation, and don't worry about where you will sit. ©LPI

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, September 4th Readings

Sunday: Wis 9:13-18b/Ps 90:3-4, 5-6, 12-13, 14-17/ Phlm 9-10, 12-17/Lk 14:25-33

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, September 4th

- Our Jewish sage teaches us that the mystery of God can only be understood through wisdom provided by the "Holy Spirit." When do you pray for the gift of wisdom?
- Paul urges his partner Philemon to see Onesimus no longer as a slave but as a "brother" now that Onesimus is a believer in Christ. When has your faith provoked an examination of conscience?
- Jesus teaches the crowds that true discipleship demands one to "renounce all (your) possessions." In other words, one's ultimate concern should be solely the possession of the gift of salvation. Why do you think this is not self-evident to many?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

"Jesus, the Light of the World, is calling us to move from the darkness into the light."

— Allen Hunt, Turning Point

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

HUMILITY AND STEWARDSHIP

Some people have “the rich relation” in their family tree. Aunt Cindy, who is always traveling somewhere new and exciting. Cousin Richard and his lake house. Your sister and brother-in-law who buy a new car every year.

Oftentimes these relatives take great happiness in sharing their wealth. You can usually count on an exotic gift from Aunt Cindy’s latest adventure or an invitation to go out on Richard’s pontoon boat at the end of the summer.

Yet sometimes, that person wants something in return. Not money, of course, but something else. Attention. Flattery. Gratitude. Cindy wants you to ask her where she got the priceless artifact in Istanbul so she can talk about the many antiquities dealers she visited. Richard wants you to ask about his new boat so he can talk about how well business has been this year. Maybe the person just wants to know you like the gift or that the experience offered is pleasing to you.

This is a natural inclination that we all possess. There is nothing wrong with wanting to be the person people count on. There is nothing wrong with wanting to offer worthy gifts. There is nothing wrong with hoping that maybe, just a little, we might be appreciated.

What matters is the spirit we carry within our hearts when we do it. What matters is our destination as we approach that proverbial table. Are we headed for the place of honor, expecting it to be waiting for us? Or are we making our way to the lowest place, simply thankful to be invited to the meal?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

“Humble yourself the more, the greater you are.” These words from Sirach are packed with wisdom. Who we become, and the success we achieve, is due not only to our own merits but also to God’s grace. Without God, we cease to be. This is a simple fact. If we ever feel entitled to honor, superior treatment, or privileges, then we are deluding ourselves. The person who truly understands and is responsible for their well-being and success will quickly become a servant of others. We tend to forget how important service is. Being generous and kind, especially to those who cannot repay us, is the hallmark of the Christian life. Are we willing to put ourselves last? An easy way to seek an answer is to determine how much value you place on sitting in the seat you occupy today or the space you choose to park your car. Would you offer these to someone else? ©LPi

It's that time of year again when the kids are going back to school and fall is upon us, which means cooler weather and more indoor activities. What a great time to reconnect with FORMED On Demand and watch a great movie or listen to a uplifting spiritual talk, alone or with the family.

FORMED NOW: POPE SAINT GREGORY THE GREAT

In the history of the Church, there are less than five popes esteemed with the title “the Great.” One of the lesser known members of this impressive group is Pope St. Gregory the Great. As a late sixth century leader, Gregory is known for his prolific writing, his radical humility, his emphasis on missions, and his dedication to almsgiving. In honor of Gregory’s feast day this week, enjoy this discussion between Dr. Gray and Dr. Sehorn.

TESTIMONIAL BY PARISHIONER MIKE GROSS

For a long time now I have been praying that my relationship with God would be more intimate. When I pray or think of God, I have not been able to personalize my feelings toward Our Father. I have felt so unworthy and even undeserving of his intimate love. Over the last few weeks that we have been meeting I feel that personal relationship deepen. I've adopted your expression "Father God." That one change has helped significantly. I understand that "intimate relationship" doesn't mean an over-familiar buddy type of relationship but a loving type of "fear of God" in a gentle and kind sort of way.

It's hard to explain... I do want to add that prior to meeting with our group I felt a sense of being stuck... standing still.. not growing enough. Now I'm moving forward again. The two hours that I am with the group races by. I just can't believe how quickly those two hours go by.

Thank you for allowing me to participate in your ministry of "Reach More."

FALL REACH MORE TRAINING

You are invited to dive into your relationship with Christ this fall and to learn how to more effectively impact those in your life.

If you're excited about going through this process, you're welcome to join the Fall Session. This session will run for 12 consecutive weeks on Tuesday nights from 6:30-8pm (September 6th - November 22nd). Each time together we will pray, dive deep into scripture, build our evangelical toolbox, and discern what the Lord is calling us to. EVERYONE who has gone through this process has voiced how incredibly powerful this journey has been, so we truly hope you'll join us!

Please contact Maria Notch with any questions and/or to sign up by September 1st for the fall session at mnotch@stcharleshartland.org.

IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM FR. KEN

At last two weekend's Masses, Fr. Ken mentioned that we received a letter from the Village of Hartland that he wanted to make the parish aware of and that he needs our help. First, Fr. Ken thanked those who have used the West Lot to park during our new church construction. The Village has received complaints that some nearby residents are unhappy with the increased street parking since our new church construction. There are many different views and reasons for these complaints. (If you want to know what some of our nearby residents are saying, you are welcome to watch the August 8th Village of Hartland meeting on YouTube.) Fr. Ken is asking all parishioners to park in the West Lot and not on the street. Our North East Parking Lot is now open, so that is good news and will definitely help to alleviate the street parking. On the weekends, doors at the West Lot entrance will be open if you are coming to church. Fr. Ken is grateful for your help and for helping to be the light of Christ in the beautiful community of Hartland!

Note: Daily Mass attendees should use the North East lot.
