Joy in life comes from trusting God

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Since God created human beings, we have struggled to keep our focus on God. We wrestle with the question of “who is God” and foolishly believe some of God’s job description can be better completed by us. We wander in different directions, lose our way, think that happiness can be found elsewhere and even construct golden calves to worship. Are we simply too independent or just blatantly stubborn? It’s a good question to ask. Even with all of our silliness and distractions, God compassionately and patiently waits. He lets us assert our wills and knows that perhaps one day we will actually wake up and realize how lost we are.

“Since happiness is nothing other than the enjoyment of the highest good and since the highest good is above, no one can be made happy unless he rises above himself, not by an ascent of the body but of the heart. But we cannot rise above ourselves unless a higher power lifts us up... Divine aid is available to those who seek it from their hearts, humbly and devoutly; and this means to sigh for it in this valley of tears, through fervent prayer (St. Bonaventure).” One of the biggest human struggles is discerning what exactly is the highest good. We are ordered to achieve it, but if we pursue it with clouded vision, we will never truly find it.

One of the greatest obstacles to God’s power and love is a stubborn, closed heart of stone. When we are fiercely determined to set our sights elsewhere for happiness or simply ride the popular currents of the day, we will never satisfy the deep ache and longing within. We know that ache well. It is precisely why we scurry all over the place, attempting to find the next best thing to take away its pain. Nothing in the created world ever can or will. We continue our journey. One day, people may wake up and realize that they are grazing in the wrong pasture and putting themselves in harm’s way. When this awakening occurs, it will be a most joyous day as we will see God’s wide-open arms waiting to receive us. “Lead me, Lord, in your path, and I will enter in your truth. Let my heart rejoice that it may fear your name (St. Bonaventure).” ©LPI

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE
Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, September 18th Readings

Sunday: Am 8:4-7/Ps 113:1-2, 4-6, 7-8/1 Tm 2:1-8/
Lk 16:1-13 or 16:10-13

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, September 18th

- The prophet Amos warns those who exploit the poor and the vulnerable will be harshly condemned by the Lord. In what ways do you defend those marginalized in our society?
- Paul teaches Timothy to be open, generous, and inclusive in his prayer life. How would you find this spiritual advice a challenge in your life?
- In the parable of the dishonest steward, Jesus praises the steward for resolving his dilemma, in the end, with prudence. With his parable, Jesus teaches his disciples an important lesson on the dangers of monetary wealth. How do you avoid the trap of choosing money over God?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

RISE, AND GO TO YOUR FATHER

“If you pull into my driveway and honk, you better be dropping off a package, because you're sure not picking anything up.”

I first read these words in the pages of W. Bruce Cameron's “8 Simple Rules for Dating my Teenage Daughter” (that's Rule No. 5, by the way).

There's a certain respect that is shown by someone who takes the time to come to the door, ring the bell and wait to be greeted. Being willing to go through the niceties for the sake of appearances is a small act of deference on the part of the person doing the picking up, even if it's not for a date. Without it, the whole scenario becomes entitled.

I want you to think of something that you want or need but do not have. Is it peace? Is it financial stability? Is it strength? Is it friendship?

The brother of the prodigal son had a lot of unexpressed desires. He sees his brother heaped with gifts and favors, feasting on the fattened calf, and he is enraged. I haven't been given half of that, he thinks, and I've worked so hard.

But for all his faithfulness, one has to wonder — did this son ever simply ask for what he needed? Did he get out of the car, so to speak, and ring the bell? Or did he sit in the driveway leaning on the horn?

God wants us to come before Him. He wants us to ask. He wants us to be like Moses — sure enough of our Father's indulgence to boldly ask for it. Think again about what you need but do not have and ask yourself: Have I approached the door and rung the bell?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It is easy to worship things other than God. Our perception of reality gets distorted as well as our understanding of truth. Ideologies and theories that find a popular reception are extolled when they are simply lies. Human beings easily get lost. God came to us in the person of Jesus Christ to rescue us from our sins and keep us where we need to be. But we have to realize that we are living in darkness before we can ask for light. We have to recognize that we are lost so that we can desire to be found. And, we have to know that we have sinned so that we can repent. God always patiently waits. God is delighted when one of His children chooses life over death and runs toward His unconditional Mercy. Let's not be so stubborn and stiff-necked that we fail to recognize that we may have wandered into the wrong pasture. ©LPi

It's that time of year again when the kids are going back to school and fall is upon us, which means cooler weather and more indoor activities. What a great time to reconnect with FORMED On Demand and watch a great movie or listen to a uplifting spiritual talk, alone or with the family.

Week of September 11, 2022

Exaltation of the Holy Cross

Every year Catholics celebrate the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, but why? Join Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Ben Akers as they discuss the history and meaning behind this feast.

Hildegard's Gift by Megan Hoyt

Hildegard's Gift was not wrapped in shimmering paper and tied with gold ribbons. It was much more special than that. This beautiful children's picture book not only celebrates the life and work of Hildegard von Bingen. It also shows children that they, too, have hidden gifts and talents, just waiting to be discovered.

Drawing Strength from Our Lady of Sorrows by Kimberly Hahn

Speaker and author Kimberly Hahn, is a convert to the Catholic Faith. Although honoring Mary was difficult for her to understand initially, she began to encounter Mary's loving guidance in little ways on a daily basis. In this presentation, Kimberly reflects on the joys and sorrows that Mary prayerfully experienced during her time on earth, and shares how her example leads us closer to Christ.

DAILY MASS TIME CHANGE
SEPTEMBER 5-12

The Daily Mass time will be moved from 8:30 am to 9:00 am for September 5-12. Also during this time, we will be canceling Morning Prayer and Rosary. Since the Fall Fest grounds will be in the West Lot, this will hopefully help to alleviate the crossover traffic of school drop-off and parking for Daily Mass in the North East Lot during this time. On September 13, Morning Prayer will return to 7:30 am, Rosary to 8:00 am and Daily Mass to 8:30 am. Thank you for helping during this week of prep, set up and take down of Fall Fest!

BECOMING  FULLY CATHOLIC
ST. CHARLES PARISH & SCHOOL

YOU ARE INVITED!

Are you or anyone you know missing any of the sacraments of initiation? Our Becoming Fully Catholic (BFC) formation will begin on Wednesday, September 14th. Becoming Fully Catholic is a journey for those who desire to be fully integrated into the life of the Church through the sacraments of Baptism, Communion and/or Confirmation. The Church envisions that every journey of faith is accompanied by a personal encounter with Christ. As such, Becoming Fully Catholic seeks to facilitate this "encounter" through formation and experience.

Our formation is designed to provide an immersion into the Church's life of faith through Her beauty, goodness, and truth. To do this, BFC consists of gathering together as a group on the 1st and 3rd Sunday of the month from 10:15-11:45 at the Parish and one-on-one mentorship on alternating weeks, which will take place at a time convenient to the candidate and mentor. Please contact Fr. Ariel aorozco@stcharleshartland.org or Marianne Giovingo mgiovingo@stcharleshartland.org, for more information. You may also call our parish office 262-367-0800.

TESTIMONIAL BY PARISHIONER CATHY ROBERTSTAD

When I got the invitation to attend REACH MORE, I immediately SIGNED UP! The timing for me could not have been more perfect – my schedule was open, and I yearned for more Catholic instruction to improve my prayer life. Little did I know that Intercessory Prayers of Fasting could eliminate the competitiveness between my husband and I with regards to evening dishwashing! Who knew that we would review a lesson on sanctifying ordinary life through becoming a better listener and what that actually looks like. So many hidden treasures are divulged in this course. In fact, one could actually feel the presence of the Holy Spirit during each of our sessions.

I have nothing but appreciation for our sweet, God-loving facilitator Maria Notch. Her friendly and approachable demeanor is very inviting. The content of the program was almost as beautiful as each one of the participants who humbled themselves to be transparent and authentic despite having just met six weeks prior. In closing I am binding my sadness for the termination of our sessions as well as the fears of the unknown and loosening joy with respect to future Catholic discipleship and may God's will be done!

BECOME A MEMBER OF ELIZABETH MINISTRY!

Join us at our next meeting September 14 at 10 am at Birch and Banyan Coffee Shop in Hartland as we discuss the upcoming plans for Respect Life Month in October along with updates on ministries offered to our families celebrating the gift of life.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: cereal, jelly - not grape, pasta sides, ketchup, Saltines, tissues

On September 9th, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul celebrated the feast day of its founder Blessed Frederic Ozanam. Frederic was a Parisian university student who was moved by the plight of Paris' poor. At the age of 20, after being challenged by non-Catholics to offer aid, he and a group of friends founded a charitable ministry and named it after the great saint of the poor St. Vincent de Paul. Frederic's ministry has since expanded to be an International lay organization dedicated to the spiritual growth of its members while offering aid and a voice to the world's poor. St. Charles' parish has a St. Vincent de Paul conference with members who actively assist those who contact the ministry or Parish for assistance with financial needs such as rent, utility payments, household needs and food. Its members also run a food pantry located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland, which exists entirely on donations.

The pantry's operational hours are Tuesday mornings between 10 AM and noon. It is also open evenings on the second and fourth Tuesday of the month between 5:30 PM and 7 PM. If you need other assistance, please contact SVdP at 262-367-0800.

Prayer for the 108th World Day of Migrants and Refugees

September 25, 2022

Lord, make us bearers of hope,
so that where there is darkness,
your light may shine,
and where there is discouragement,
confidence in the future may be reborn.

Lord, make us instruments of your justice,
so that where there is exclusion, fraternity may flourish,
and where there is greed, a spirit of sharing may grow.

Lord, make us builders of your Kingdom,
together with migrants and refugees
and with all who dwell on the peripheries.

Lord, let us learn how beautiful it is to live together as brothers and sisters. Amen.
