The things that we love tell us what we are.

- Saint Thomas Aquinas

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead." Regardless of how the message of faith is received, a total conversion of mind and heart is needed for it to take root and have meaning. It is easy to become complacent and comfortable with all that life can afford us. Life can become "all about me," preserving my livelihood and protecting my securities. Often, this drive can become so strong that we eagerly strive to protect our self-interests at the expense of others. Other people are necessary only to the extent that they are "useful" to us and profitable.

Merriam-Webster defines entitlement as "the belief that one is deserving of or entitled to certain privileges." In a world that pretends to offer us so many necessities, this is perhaps the greatest contemporary sin. When we feel "entitled" to something, even if it is perceived necessary, our relationships can get skewed. Unless we adopt a global vision of entitlement, wherein everyone is entitled to the same things, we risk becoming extremely self-focused and selfish. All we care about is defending our rights and protecting our turf. This impulse can be so strong that we pursue it even at the expense of another. Is this what God intends for his children?

Holding on to this myopic vision, the plight and station of others are off our radar and of no real concern to us. Relying on our own merits and becoming resilient to life's challenges, we replace the true and real God with the one we created ourselves. Jesus and the prophets before him have consistently reminded us of the dangers of wealth, ignoring the poor and the needy, and becoming too fiercely independent and arrogant. Yet, we conduct our lives as if that message has never been preached. We give our faith a nod and never consider for a moment that we may be wrong in terms of what we see as important. "The things that we love tell us what we are (attributed to St. Thomas Aquinas)." Ponder those words a bit and remember that when we leave this world and go to the next one, what we loved here is what we will look for there. What we sought here may not be there. ©LPI

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE
Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, October 2nd Readings

Sunday: Hb 1:2-3; 2:2-4/Ps 95:1-2, 6-7, 8-9/2 Tm 1:6-8, 13-14/Lk 17:5-10

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, October 2nd

- The prophet Habakkuk complained to the Lord about the violence and misery that existed in his time. In response, the Lord instructed Habakkuk to record the vision he sent him, and to be patient in waiting for its fulfillment. Where are you waiting for the Lord's vision or direction in your life?
- Paul urges Timothy to see his life and work as a model for passing on the faith, especially in times of hardship. Where do you feel it is hardest to talk about Jesus in your life?
- When the apostles ask Jesus to "increase our faith," Jesus challenges them to adopt the attitude of a servant. How do you think being a loyal servant to the Lord can increase your faith?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

COMPETING LIKE A STEWARD

Picture it: family game night. What are you playing? Monopoly? Clue? Chess? Poker?

Whatever your game of choice, I'll bet the night is a lot more fun when everyone tries their best to win. Sure, no one likes an obnoxiously competitive opponent — but if we're being honest with ourselves, it's actually more annoying to face off with someone who just doesn't care. A little competition gives the activity a pulse. It keeps everyone interested. It speaks to the worthiness of the endeavor.

We are told to "compete well for the faith." These are confusing words, perhaps, since cutthroat competition doesn't jive with the spiritual ideals of submission and humility. So why is God asking this of us? He isn't setting up some kind of cosmic contest to reward the smartest, strongest, and fastest among us with His mercy and grace.

Competition doesn't have to mean aggressive self-interest. It doesn't have to mean ferocity and lack of principle.

Competition can — and should — mean witness. Think of the Olympics. There's a competition that isn't a conquest or a performance but rather a testimony — a feat of strength! A celebration of ability, hard work, and effort. Does anything glorify God more than that?

Let's strive to be competitive but with the competitive nature of an everyday steward: that which seeks the good of all running the race.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

2 Corinthians 9:10 NLT

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We can be blindly arrogant and selfish. For some, the lens through which we view life is the lens of self-benefit. Having this myopic vision, the plight and station of others are off our radar and of no genuine concern. Being self-sufficient and resilient, we can wonder if all of this "God-talk" is for real. If we believe we are solely responsible for our destiny and well-being, what place is there for God? Tangible faith requires an actual change of heart, a conversion. It involves walking a courageous journey of transformation that consists of a shift in priorities and focus. Humility becomes the order of the day. An authentic loving relationship with God blossoms within a person's soul. God becomes an ever-faithful companion. Whether this faith is stumbled upon because of messages heard from prophets in our midst or from someone coming back from the dead, the journey is the same. Faith has to be owned and become something permanent. If we are unwilling to lose the arrogance, any truth-filled message will fall on deaf ears. ©LPi

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: baked beans, canned pears, cleaning supplies, tuna

On September 27th, St. Charles' SVdP ministry will be celebrating the feast day of its namesake, St. Vincent de Paul. Vincent de Paul is remembered for his compassionate service to the poor and needy and for starting the Daughters of Charity along with Louise de Marillac. It was Vincent de Paul's concern for the poor of France that inspired young Frederic Ozanam to name his charitable organization after the saint. St. Charles' SVdP ministry is able to continue St. Vincent de Paul's and Frederic Ozanam's work through the generosity of parishioners and other benefactors. Recently, our pantry and its patrons were the recipients of a generous donation from Modern Woodman. God bless all who help us feed the hungry.

If you are in need of food, the SVdP food pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland. It is open Tuesdays between 10 AM and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday of the month between 5:30 PM and 7 PM. If you need other assistance or are interested in becoming a member of our ministry of compassionate service to the poor and needy, please contact us at 262-367-0800.

2022 CIRCLE OF LOVE

For the past 36 seasons, members of St. Charles have brought gifts of clothes, toys, and food for the needy and lonely. For many, this was their only Christmas gift, food for a holiday meal, or gift card for a much-needed pair of shoes.

In continuation of this, Circle of Love Sponsor Sheets will be located in the Parish Hallway on the shelf across from the information wall next weekend, October 1st & 2nd. If you know of a person or family who has hit hard times due to a job loss or serious illness/injury, please consider sponsoring them this Christmas season. To be a Sponsor, we do require that you are a registered parish member of St. Charles.

If you have any questions or are interested in becoming a Circle of Love volunteer, call Kathy Gillstrom at 262-370-3306.

St. Charles Parish Welcomes New Staff!

St. Charles Parish and School is growing and to accommodate the growth new teachers and parish staff have recently been hired. If you see any of our new staff members please say hello.

PAULA JOECKS (4K TEACHER):

This is my first year at St. Charles but not my first year teaching! I am married to my husband Mark. We have two beautiful children named Emma and Brayden. We also have a sweet Boston Terrier named Cali who fills our home with wet kisses and snuggles. I am looking forward to sharing my faith with our youngest learners in 4K!

TARA LOUGHRIN (4K TEACHING AIDE):

This is my first year being a teacher's aide. I have really enjoyed my first few weeks with Mrs. Sonn's 4K class and can't wait to see how all of the kids grow in God's love this year! When I'm not in the classroom, I really enjoy watching my twins play soccer and traveling to Door County with family.

ANGELA MARCO (MIDDLE SCHOOL RELIGION TEACHER):

I'm so excited to be a part of the St. Charles School family! I just moved to Wisconsin from Mississippi, and this is my first year teaching middle-school Religion and 6th Grade Social Studies at St. Charles. I am most excited to get to know our students better and to help them meet, know, love, and serve Christ in new ways this year.

LAUREN REVERS (MUSIC TEACHER):

I'm so excited to be joining the St. Charles team this year! Before coming to St. Charles I ran my own music studio business, specializing in viola, violin, clarinet, piano, and voice lessons. I've also taught music at St. John Vianney Catholic School, Brown Deer Schools, and Messmer Catholic Schools. I hold Bachelors of Fine Arts degrees in Music Education (General and Instrumental) and Music Performance (Clarinet and Viola) from UW-Milwaukee, as well as a Masters Degree in Christian Doctrine from Marquette University. When not performing and teaching music, I like to travel, read, and spend time with my husband and 4 children. I'm looking forward to a great year!

SARAH SHEEHAN (3RD GRADE TEACHER):

I am so excited to join the St. Charles community as a 3rd Grade teacher! I am originally from a small town in Nebraska, and I am new this year to Wisconsin. I studied elementary education in Minnesota, and this will be my first year teaching. I have loved everything about this community so far, and I cannot wait to continue to meet and get to know all of the students and families of St. Charles.

NANCY SONN (4K TEACHER):

My family and I recently moved to Hartland, and we are loving this beautiful Lake Country area! I have three children, two who are at St. Charles. This is my fourth year teaching 4-year-old kindergarten, and this year, I am so happy to be at St. Charles and share my excitement with my students. Our classroom will be filled with fun activities, including making class books, working in centers, and celebrating special days. Kindergarten is truly an amazing place to be!

CARLY VONDRAK (5TH GRADE TEACHER):

I currently live in Menomonee Falls with my husband Nick, two cats (Zoe and Sophie), and two dogs (Zena and Guinness). I am an avid world traveler and enjoy spending time at my family's lake house in Door County. I am happy to be joining the wonderful staff at St. Charles for the 2022-2023 school year!

BRIANNA RASMUSSEN (LIBRARIAN):

Being an alumni and lifelong member of this wonderful community, I am thrilled to be joining St. Charles as the School Librarian! St. Charles has been crucial in cultivating who I am today, so I can't wait to give back and help our school community grow in their faith through reading! My husband and I were married at St. Charles and our two children (soon to be three) currently attend St. Charles School. When I am not reading, I love coaching, traveling, and helping on my in-laws' farm.
