THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Ten lepers were cured. Only one returned to give thanks. When we fall victim to entitlement, we diminish our capacity to love. Never satisfied, we walk around with outstretched arms, eagerly searching for the next thing we want so that we can acquire it ourselves. Very rarely do entitled hands hold anything to freely give away to others. Entitled hands also find it challenging to reach toward heaven in a gesture of gratitude and praise. We are often more obsessed with celebrating our victories, securing our assets, safeguarding our futures, and stacking the deck of life in our favor rather than relishing and absorbing the gift of the moment and blessings received.

Entitled people find it difficult to pray properly. When the subject of our prayer is mostly about our needs and wants, we are falling into the trap of deception. We foolishly try to convince God that our tiny worlds are of greater importance than His. In ancient times, people would offer sacrifices to “the gods” to secure protection and favors. Our God desires mercy, not sacrifice, because He is about love and justice, not simply meeting our agendas. Every breath is a gift. Prayer, which is a celebration of that gift, acknowledges the Giver. Prayer strengthens the bond between Giver and receiver, creating a deepening awareness that nothing I am or anything I have can exist apart from His Divine Will. It also reminds us that we have done nothing to merit the unconditional love and mercy God showers upon us. Prayer is not just about getting what I need but celebrating who I am.

For St. Therese of Lisieux, prayer is “a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy.” When our hearts “surge” toward God, we rush to the Source of our restoration and wholeness, knowing our longing for God’s Divine embrace. Prayer is a response to God’s graciousness with an act of gratitude returned by us. In prayer, we gaze upon each other in that sacred space where I give myself to God as He is, and God gives Himself to me as I am. We cannot take another step without saying thank you. ©LPI

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, October 16th Readings

Sunday: Ex 17:8-13/Ps 121:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8/2 Tm 3:14 – 4:2/Lk 18:1-8

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, October 16th

- Moses had to depend upon his brother Aaron and his associate Hur to help defeat the Amalekites in battle. Who among your friends or family helps you to grow in your faith?
- Paul teaches Timothy that sacred Scripture is a tool for teaching, correction, and training. Do you have a favorite passage or story from Scripture?
- Jesus uses the parable of the persistent widow to teach the disciples about the importance of diligence in prayer. What does prayer look like for you?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER FOR OCTOBER

Lord Jesus Christ, We serve in your name as did your apostles before us. And we live, as they did, in anxious times, painfully aware of sin's presence in the world; a world in need of your Father's mercy.

As your disciples, we also live in hope, confident that your light is breaking through the changing moods of life – healing, embracing and transforming as your presence moves deep within us.

Help us see every hour of our lives as a moment of grace: a time when we open our hearts to you in prayer, discover your Truth in our work and leisure and live each moment as blessings to one another.

Make us better stewards of the great wealth of gifts you have bestowed upon us. And show us how to teach others to open their hearts to those who hunger, thirst or who are strangers.

Refresh our minds, renew our faith, and inspire us to proclaim your Gospel with a new energy in word and in deed, for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

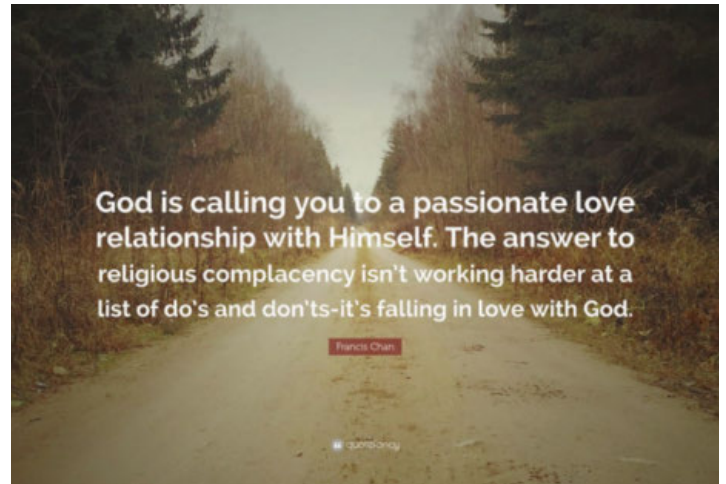

THE ZEAL OF THE CONVERT

When you work in the Church, professionally or on a volunteer basis, you become familiar with the phenomenon known as “the zeal of the recent convert.”

Sometimes, it really seems that the newly baptized are just stronger Catholics than the cradle Catholics. They smile more at Mass. They are awestruck by the Eucharist. They come out of the confessional beaming.

It's not that they are naive. It's not that they are in some honeymoon phase of religion, living outside of reality. It's simply that they remember. They remember what it felt like before the Eucharist or before Confession. They recall before the sacraments and the oil and the grace and the relief. It was more recent for them than for some of us older Catholics — especially those of us who were baptized as infants.

Let's ask ourselves: Have we become too comfortable? Do we receive God's grace with expectation instead of surprise? Have we ceased to marvel and wonder at the goodness of God? If the answer is a resounding yes, don't despair. Look at the Gospel — a literal nine times out of ten, God goes un-thanked and un-noticed.

So many of us have forgotten, or never understood, what it meant when the leprosy was washed from our souls. But when we remind ourselves, we become more keenly aware of the extraordinariness of the gift we have received.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Expressing gratitude is a sign of a loving heart. When we have received a gracious gesture, the appreciation experienced forms a bond between the giver and receiver. This can only happen when abundance and kind gestures are seen as gifts and not something to which we are entitled. The power of gratitude is more profound when we realize all that we are and all we are given do not have a human source but are of God. Walking around believing that our glass is only half full leaves us always wanting more. We are never satisfied. We become nothing more than entitled pursuers of whatever we can get. Instead, the one who is eager to count their blessings and appreciate the wonder and beauty of the gift of life itself is at peace. Before they take another step or venture off on another journey, they bow in gratitude to the presence of God himself. They are most keenly aware that all would cease to be without God. ©LPi

MASS FOR SISTER THEA BOWMAN

by Dr. Aaron Mathews
Music Director

During October and November, we will be singing and praying with the "Mass for Sister Thea Bowman," which was written in honor of the late nun whose cause for canonization is currently underway. Sr. Thea was a nationally-known professor, preacher, singer, and evangelist until her death in 1990 at the age of 52. She joined the Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration in La Crosse, WI as a teen and was the only African American woman to join that order. After taking vows, her religious order sent her on to earn master's and doctorate degrees in English literature and linguistics at Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.

Sister Thea taught in parochial schools and at Viterbo University. Her ministry grew and attracted national attention. Soon she was in demand to speak to congregations of all races, including the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

I am thrilled to share this music with St. Charles, and I hope that it inspires you to find out more about Sister Thea's legacy. For more information about Sister Thea, please visit: <https://www.fspa.org/content/about/sister-thea-bowman>. Also, there was a recent documentary of her life that aired on ABC in October entitled: "Going Home Like a Shooting Star: Thea Bowman's Journey to Sainthood." You can also catch the show on YouTube. Visit the website News story for the YouTube link.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: mashed potatoes, pasta sides, Manwich, Campbell's cream of mushroom soup

Following the footsteps of our namesake St. Vincent de Paul, we need to be merciful to those in need of financial, spiritual, physical, and emotional assistance. Donations to the food pantry and general fund help the members of St. Charles' SVdP ministry offer assistance where it is needed. Your generosity has kept families in their homes, fed seniors on fixed incomes, repaired vehicles, clothed children, and provided beds and other household goods for families in need. Your prayers have supported us. Thank you for helping us help others.

The food pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland. It is open Tuesday mornings between 10 AM and noon. It is open evenings on the second and fourth Tuesday of the month between 5:30 PM and 7 PM. If you need other assistance or are interested in becoming a member of our ministry of service to the poor and needy, please contact us at 262-367-0800.

LOVE GARDENING?
JOIN THE GARDEN CLUB!

LOOKING FOR AN EASY WAY TO SUPPORT ST. CHARLES?

One of the simplest ways to financially support St. Charles Parish and School without spending an extra dime is through RaiseRight formerly ShopWithScrip. Your everyday expenses for groceries, gas, gifts and dinner out can give back 1% to 15% of your purchase cost to St. Charles. By buying Scrip cards at the parish or online, you are providing a financial boost to St. Charles without spending a single penny more. Some cards are even easily refillable online. If all 2,500 parish households bought just $100 in Scrip gas cards a month at a 4% average rebate rate, you could provide us with $10,000 a month or $120,000 a year. By making everyday purchases this way, you provide St. Charles ministries the opportunity to serve and evangelize in our community.

You can order gift cards through www.raiseright.com and have them sent to St. Charles' Parish Office to pick up. You are also able to fill out the paper order form at the Parish Office to place your order or purchase Scrip in stock. Thank you!
