THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST,
KING OF THE UNIVERSE

It's not unreasonable to think that if God wanted to make a statement he could do so in a very dramatic way. After all, he spoke through a burning bush that didn't actually burn, parted the Red Sea, sent manna to the Israelites from the sky, cured lepers, healed the sick and cast out demons. All of that is pretty dramatic stuff, and they made statements! Now, Jesus hangs dying on a cross. He has been referred to as a king. Considering all of the miracles Jesus did in his short time on earth, isn't one more in order? If Jesus came down off of the cross, defied death, and parted the waters of suffering and death, onlookers, believers and unbelievers alike, would take notice. It would prove who God is and show us what God wants us to do. Or would it?

Great spiritual masters remind us not to focus on miracles or consolations received from God. They can distract us. Doing anything other than what Jesus did would distract humanity as well, misplacing our focus. It's not about a miracle, at least not the dramatic kind people are eager to see. It's about something more profound. It all goes back to where it began for the earthly Jesus. God becomes one with humanity in Jesus Christ. All that goes into being human is holy and blessed, and that becomes a place where God is born, again and again. God, through Jesus, tells us to hold firm to all of the experiences of being human, the joys and the wonders, the disappointments and the failures.

God's lesson is found in Jesus' vulnerability. It is only when we are vulnerable that we learn how to love. When Jesus breathed his last, God's unconditional and tender love was realized. Jesus always had a soft spot for the weak, lost, vulnerable, and broken. God wants us to come to Him freely, not because we have witnessed some fantastic display of prowess. God desires that we find Him through who we are, as our hearts and souls direct. This will mean that our love is authentic as it will be born of the heartache, pain, and turmoil that are a part of life. The fragments of our lives need to be made whole. Our fragmented king, Jesus Christ, is the only one who can help put the pieces together. ©LPI

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, November 27th Readings

Sunday: Is 2:1-5/Ps 122:1-2, 3-4, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9/
Rom 13:11-14/Mt 24:37-44

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, November 27th

- The prophet Isaiah foresaw a time when all nations would unite in peace over their common belief and worship of Israel's God. What do you think a world totally at peace looks like?
- Paul taught the believers in Rome that salvation and the end of time were closely connected. Thus, he encouraged avoiding immoral behavior such as drunkenness, promiscuity, envy, or jealousy. What motivates you to live a moral life?
- Jesus taught his disciples that no one knows when the Son of Man will return to earth, so "be prepared" at all times. As we begin the season of Advent, how might you be better prepared for welcoming Jesus into your life?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

ADVENT ADORATION

Advent is a time of waiting; of preparing our hearts for a King. One way to grow closer in relationship to Christ during Advent is through the devotion of Adoration. As St. Charles moves closer to our long term goal of Perpetual Adoration, we have extended our hours for Adoration during the season of Advent. The added times are on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 7:00am to 8:20am. Please visit the St. Charles website to access the Sign-Up Genius and sign up for a slot. It is important that we have at least two adorers per session. For more information on our upcoming ministry of Perpetual Adoration, you may contact Ray Feller (rdfelleriii@gmail.com) or Peg Kasun (pkasun@stcharleshartland.org).

For other Adoration Opportunities see page 3 of the bulletin.

WE APPRECIATE YOU! YOU ARE THE BEST!
WE ARE GRATEFUL FOR YOU!

However we say thank you, St. Charles volunteers are the life of this Parish, and we praise God for you! With your help, we are able to fully embrace and fulfill God's call to serve. How we serve comes in many ways, from helping with the Mass to assisting in sharing the faith with our youth. Whether helping for a one-time event or leading a group, we are so thankful that you allow those who encounter you to meet and know Christ through your love of service.

We are excited to share that we now have a landing page on our website dedicated to volunteering. There is a volunteer handbook that may be used to reference the many ways that God may be inviting you to share your time and talent. It is divided into sections according to staff teams, which were formed to better serve the needs of the Parish. We encourage you to explore all the opportunities available, perhaps even volunteering for an area that may be new to you. On this webpage, you will also find that there is an online form to sign up to help in a ministry. Visit www.stcharleshartland.com/service-christ/volunteer-opportunities. If you have any questions, please call the Parish Office or talk to one of our Parish and School staff members.

REGISTRATION IS OPEN FOR THE SKI CLUB FOR 2023 SEASON

ADVENT SERVICE PROJECT FOR ST. CHARLES

Our St. Charles Elizabeth Ministry's goal is to affirm the sanctity and dignity of every life, no matter how small or unexpected or brief. We cherish children, encourage families, uplift the sanctity of marriages, and build community.

Two of our ministry services that we offer are celebration baskets and comfort bags to the parents, or a family, or a mother to show the support of the faith community at St. Charles. If you would kindly help us to serve others as Mary did and help us in this mission, we would be truly grateful.

Please bring any items to the designated box located in the Borromeo Room between December 1, 2022 through December 16, 2022. For all questions, please contact Nancy Neuser at nneuser1@gmail.com.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Confectioners Powdered Sugar, Brown Sugar, Flour, Sugar, Cream of Chicken Soup

Today as we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, may we open the door of our heart so wide that we may listen to the voice of Jesus calling us to help build His kingdom here on earth. In the month of November, through your generosity, the St. Charles Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to help build the kingdom of God by assisting families providing food, help with utility and rent bills and vouchers for furniture at our St. Vincent de Paul Thrift stores. Thank you for your donations of unexpired food and hygiene items to support our St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry. Envelopes for financial help are located at the SVDP collection boxes in the narthex and next to the sign-up shelf.

The food pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland. It is open Tuesdays between 10am and noon. Evening hours are available on the second and fourth Tuesday of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm. If you need other assistance or are interested in becoming a member of St Charles SVDP, please contact us at 262-367-0800.

COME JOIN THE ST. CHARLES CAROLERS!

St. Charles is resuming their joyful tradition of singing Christmas carols at the Hartland Lights Festival on December 2 from 6:00-6:30 pm. Come enjoy holiday activities, support our local businesses, and get your picture taken with Santa. All ages are welcome to come and sing, and families are encouraged to participate together. We will hold a brief rehearsal on Monday evening, November 28 from 6:30-7:00 pm in church. Please contact Dr. Aaron Mathews to RSVP or for more information at amathews@stcharleshartland.org.

One of the easiest ways to support St. Charles Parish and School is through the secured online e-giving system.
