USCCB

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

What virtue is the cornerstone of discipleship? Love. Jesus preached about it, lived it, and summarized his greatest commandment featuring it. Love is in our DNA. To follow Jesus, then, is to follow the path of love. While this may appear to be an attractive and easy option, it most assuredly is not. Authentic love always comes with sacrifice. It is the complete giving of oneself to another. The sacrificial character of love always requires that we leave something aside and pursue something else. This is at the heart of self-denial. Love asks us to make choices that are often difficult.

There is a reason Jesus asks that the love of God come first. "Charity is the right attitude of mind which prefers nothing to the knowledge of God. If a man possesses any strong attachment to the things of this earth, he cannot possess true charity (St. Maximus the Confessor)." "If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple." A devoted disciple must be single-minded in her quest for God. She cannot allow anyone or anything to have more power over her soul than God. When any earthly attachments become more important than Love, we can get ourselves into trouble.

The Gospel calls us to walk boldly into the darkness, confusion, and emptiness of the world clothed in the mantle of love. We are asked to walk with others on their journey, offering a supportive, healing, challenging, and faithful presence. Ours is not to judge. To walk this sacrificial journey means that I must put myself aside and focus on the needs of others. "A sacrifice to be real must cost, must hurt and must empty ourselves (St. Teresa of Calcutta)." Love helps us walk straight and focus to see things more clearly and help others to do so, as well. Many folks struggle to find joy and meaning in life. People may simply need someone with the freedom to sit with them in their pain so they don't feel so alone. Through acts of kindness, gestures of acceptance, and words of compassion, burdens can be lightened. Believe in God's love and seek it above all other things! ©LPI

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, September 18th Readings

Sunday: Ex 32:7-11, 13-14/Ps 51:3-4, 12-13, 17, 19/
1 Tm 1:12-17/Lk 15:1-32 or 15:1-10

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, September 18th

- The Lord is persuaded by Moses' prayer of petition not to punish the Israelites for their apostasy. When has the Lord answered one of your prayers of petition?
- Paul speaks of God's abundant mercy in the context of his former life as an arrogant, sinful, and ignorant man. In what ways do you think the Lord has been patient with you?
- The parable of the prodigal (lost) son is one the best-known parables of Jesus. Which of the characters do you most resonate with: the father, the older son, or the lost son?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

DO YOU LOVE CHILDREN?

Are you interested in helping bring our children closer to Jesus in some very needed and yet simple ways? The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS), Children's Discipleship at St. Charles, is looking for a team of volunteers to serve as 'hall monitors' during class sessions: Sunday mornings, Monday and Wednesday evenings. Our only requirement is that you be an adult with safeguarding training. This volunteer role does not require further training and does not involve any teaching, yet it is vital to our ministry. If you have time to volunteer once or twice a month or even if you are willing to be a sub in the event someone is ill, please contact Alicia Van Hecke at avanhecke@stcharleshartland.org or Shelly Buchan at sbuchan@stcharleshartland.org.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

WHERE'S THE SACRIFICE?

"It's not that I want you to do it. It's that I want you to want to do it."

If you're married or in a relationship, your partner has probably either said something like this to you or you have said it to them. If one of you hasn't said it, you have probably wanted to, and it's likely that a big argument or two was had where you dance around the sentiment, these exact words flashing in your mind like an old-time movie marquee.

The "it" never really matters much. Taking out the trash, painting the bedroom, traveling to your in-laws' for Christmas — whatever the subject matter of the disagreement is, it's all just so much set dressing. The heart of the matter is the sacrifice and desire. That's what it all hangs on. Am I with a person who will sacrifice for me?

When Paul writes to Philemon that he is sending Onesimus to him, he says exactly this. He tells Philemon that he would prefer to keep Onesimus with him, but that he does not want to deprive Philemon both of Onesimus and the opportunity to make a sacrifice worthy in the sight of the Lord.

The point is not who gets to hang out with Onesimus. The point is, as it says in the Gospel, who is willing to carry his cross? Who is willing to renounce his possessions? Who is willing to do the good deed for the sake of the other?

God doesn't care that much about what we have to offer. He cares much more that we have the strength to offer whatever we have.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"Stand up straight and don't slouch!" Many a child has heard these words bellowed from their mother's lips. We need the perspective of others to help us understand when we are not walking as straight as we could be. God sends us the Holy Spirit to correct and guide us so that our paths through life can be straight. Without this assistance, how we see and understand ourselves and the world around us is incomplete. We will also lack the virtue of fortitude. It takes courage to listen to the Holy Spirit and devote ourselves to the task of discipleship. We have to put aside things that the world says are necessary and follow a path placed before us by Jesus Christ. Jesus is asking us to follow him. We must consider what we have to do to be free enough to do so. God needs us to show the world a complete picture of what life is meant to be, correct its vision and tell it to stand up straight! ©LPi

It's that time of year again when the kids are going back to school and fall is upon us, which means cooler weather and more indoor activities. What a great time to reconnect with FORMED On Demand and watch a great movie or listen to a uplifting spiritual talk, alone or with the family.

GRATEFUL TO OUR ELIZABETH MINISTRY!

Molly Modrzynski
St. Charles Parishioner

As a cradle Catholic, I grew up attending Mass but didn't really understand what was going on and didn't open a Bible on my own accord until college when my faith became my own. When I moved to Hartland in 2015, St. Charles quickly felt like home. My husband and I married in January of 2015, and by 2017, we were seeking help to grow our family. God bless the St. Gianna Clinic!

We are now blessed with three little ones – each baptized at St. Charles. When John (Bear) was baptized in October of 2018, we received our first basket. The Mother's Manual, a rosary, blanket, little socks, and a fun Tupperware bowl was included. Bear was only a month old, and I felt like I had no idea how to be a mom! I eagerly sought answers from that manual. I started to pray a consecration prayer for my child to Mary during our morning nursing time not fully knowing what a consecration prayer was. I am so glad I did. I am so thankful for the grace that has been bestowed on my child and our family through all the prayers in the Mother's Manual. It has helped me grow in my own faith. Because I have a better understanding than I did three years ago, I am able to more adequately pass on my knowledge to my children as I eagerly learn more and more about our beautiful faith every day!

Thank you for the gift of this ministry!! God has a plan for my family and my children, and the Mother's Manual was my start!

To learn more about Elizabeth Ministry, join us at our next meeting September 14 at 10 am at Birch and Banyan Coffee Shop in Hartland. For more information, questions, or to join contact Nancy Neuser at nneuser1@gmail.com or 262-719-0067.

CANTOR MINISTRY INVITES YOU!

This is open to adults, high school, and junior high singers. Please contact Peg Kasun (pkasun@stcharleshartland.org) or Dr. Aaron Mathews (amathews@stcharleshartland.org) for more information.

THURSDAY MORNING MEN'S GROUP STARTS SOON!

The St. Charles Thursday Morning Men's Group kicks off their "Live" in-person meetings on Thursdays starting Sept. 22nd in the Borromeo Room at 5:30 am (doors open), program starts at 6 am then discussion, and 7 am you're out the door. Coffee, crullers and hot breakfast will be available.

The program this Fall is "The Turning Point" by Allen Hunt from Matthew Kelly's Dynamic Catholic, which takes a deep dive into the gospel of John and offers an invitation to a closer relationship with Jesus Christ. We encourage you to come aboard to deepen your faith in a more personal encounter with Jesus Christ. Come for great comradery with new friends or old ones!

SCHOLA SEASON START-UP!

Singers in grades 5-8 are invited to share their musical gifts in our Junior High Choir: Schola. Schola rehearses once a week on Tuesdays from 3:20-4:30pm in church. Highlights of this season include singing a televised Mass with Catholic composer Sarah Hart and leading the music at the Fall Fest Tent Mass. Other opportunities include singing for School Mass, select parish Masses, and our annual Christmas Caroling Party. For more information, contact Peg Kasun (pkasun@stcharleshartland.org).

YOUTH CHOIR SEASON BEGINS!

All singers in grades 3 and 4 are invited to join the St. Charles Youth Choir. Rehearsals take place on Mondays from 3:20-4:15pm in the church. Students learn proper singing technique, play handbells, and are trained as cantors to lead prayer at Mass. Special events throughout the year may include singing the National Anthem at sporting events, singing at the Cathedral, and singing at the Christmas Eve Family Mass. For more information, contact our Worship Team Lead Peg Kasun (pkasun@stcharleshartland.org).

BECOMING FULLY CATHOLIC

ST. CHARLES PARISH & SCHOOL

YOU ARE INVITED!

Are you or anyone you know missing any of the sacraments of initiation? Our Becoming Fully Catholic (BFC) formation will begin on Wednesday, September 14th. Becoming Fully Catholic is a journey for those who desire to be fully integrated into the life of the Church through the sacraments of Baptism, Communion and/or Confirmation. The Church envisions that every journey of faith is accompanied by a personal encounter with Christ. As such, Becoming Fully Catholic seeks to facilitate this "encounter" through formation and experience.

Our formation is designed to provide an immersion into the Church's life of faith through Her beauty, goodness, and truth. Put simply, BFC is not a class or a program, so to speak, but a journey of faith whereby candidates will learn about and experience the Church's tradition through conferences, witness talks, visits to architecturally inspiring churches, and awe-provoking ministries.

To do this, BFC consists of gathering together as a group on the 1st and 3rd Sunday of the month from 10:15-11:45 at the Parish and one-on-one mentorship on alternating weeks, which will take place at a time convenient to the candidate and mentor. Please contact Fr. Ariel aorozco@stcharleshartland.org or Marianne Giovingo mgiovingo@stcharleshartland.org, for more information. You may also call our parish office 262-367-0800.

IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM FR. KEN

At recent weekend Masses, Fr. Ken mentioned that we received a letter from the Village of Hartland that he wanted to make the parish aware of and that he needs our help. First, Fr. Ken thanked those who have used the West Lot to park during our new church construction. The Village has received complaints that some nearby residents are unhappy with the increased street parking since our new church construction. There are many different views and reasons for these complaints. (If you want to know what some of our nearby residents are saying, you are welcome to watch the August 8th Village of Hartland meeting on YouTube.) Fr. Ken is asking all parishioners to park in the West Lot and not on the street. Our North East Parking Lot is now open, so that is good news and will definitely help to alleviate the street parking. On the weekends, doors at the West Lot entrance will be open if you are coming to church. Fr. Ken is grateful for your help and for helping to be the light of Christ in the beautiful community of Hartland!

Note: Daily Mass attendees should use the North East lot.

Prayer for the 108th World Day of Migrants and Refugees

September 25, 2022

Lord, make us bearers of hope,
so that where there is darkness,
your light may shine,
and where there is discouragement,
confidence in the future may be reborn.

Lord, make us instruments of your justice,
so that where there is exclusion, fraternity may flourish,
and where there is greed, a spirit of sharing may grow.

Lord, make us builders of your Kingdom,
together with migrants and refugees
and with all who dwell on the peripheries.

Lord, let us learn how beautiful it is to live together as brothers and sisters. Amen.
