THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION
5TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

By Marianne Giovingo
 Discipleship Team Lead

Jesus in His Humanity established the fullness of revelation—so there is nothing new to be revealed and there is plenty new to be discovered. I know, you guys think I've lost it, just stick with me. We will know the fullness of God's revelation when we are face-to-face with Him in Heaven. Until that day comes, we have the privilege to slowly receive God's Goodness as He reveals it through the ordinary moments of the day. God's will for us is to live with and for Him in the present moments. If we are honest, this glimpse is all we are capable of handling, and it is more than enough; His Goodness is extravagant, relentless, abundant—beyond what any word can capture, and so its fullness would be too much for us to take in at one time.

Give God permission and time to name how you have encountered His Goodness today (and every day)—because He has revealed Himself to you! You may see a weakness within yourself that you believe limits you from receiving or proclaiming God in your life. Please gently hear me say, that is a lie. God will use your weakness and has called you probably most powerfully through your poverty and will speak His Love in you personally! It may come through the expression of peace you received as you made a decision and stepped forward in that action. Maybe you were able to talk to a friend after months and you experienced joy as if the time that had passed seemed so little. Possibly you had courage to have a difficult conversation with a loved one. These are all daily moments in which God speaks His Goodness 'simply' and profoundly through us, His children, His little ones! Receive the glimpse of God's revelation today and be filled with hope at the fullness to come!

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE
Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, February 12th Readings

Sunday: Sir 15:15-20/Ps 119:1-2, 4-5, 17-18, 33-34 (1b)/
 1 Cor 2:6-10/Mt 5:17-37 or 5:20-22a, 27-28, 33-34a, 37

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit
<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

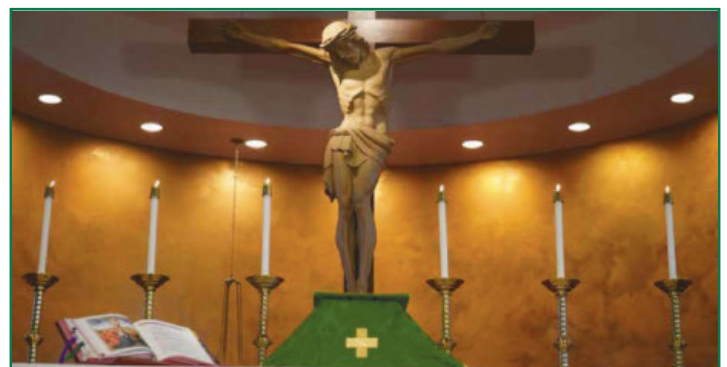

Reflection questions for Sunday, February 12th

- The Jewish sage Sirach speaks of the wisdom in being obedient and loyal to God's will and commandments. How can you exercise obedience and loyalty to God this week?
- Paul instructs the Corinthians about the power of the Holy Spirit who guides believers to a mature faith and to understanding God's wisdom. In what ways do you experience the Holy Spirit in your life?
- As Jesus continues with his Sermon on the Mount, he addresses a variety of topics in the daily life of his Jewish audience (the Law, anger, adultery, divorce, and oaths), only now filtered through God's point of view. How can Christians today live daily life according to these standards?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

FEBRUARY TRADITIONAL MASS

Do you desire to be drawn more deeply into the mystery of the Mass? Do you want to encounter some of the ancient treasures of the Church? Then join us for our monthly Traditional Mass here at St. Charles. Typically held on the Fourth Tuesday of each month at 5:30 pm, though February's Mass will be on Tuesday, February 21st.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

IF ...

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

It's a surprising little word — if. For such a short word, it holds an abundance of excuses.

Personally, I could buy a new car if I had a dollar for every time I used the word “if” to explain away my own flaws. “If I wasn't so tired. If we had more money. If the kids weren't always on my last nerve. If I had more talent. If life wasn't so hard.”

If, if, if.

I don't always feel like being the salt of the earth. Can't someone else season the dish? Sometimes it's more than I want to give, more than I want to do, more than I want to be. Sharing my bread, sheltering the oppressed, clothing the naked, and accompanying my neighbor — doing these things in the literal or figurative sense can be completely exhausting. Mediocrity is so easy. It's so comfortable.

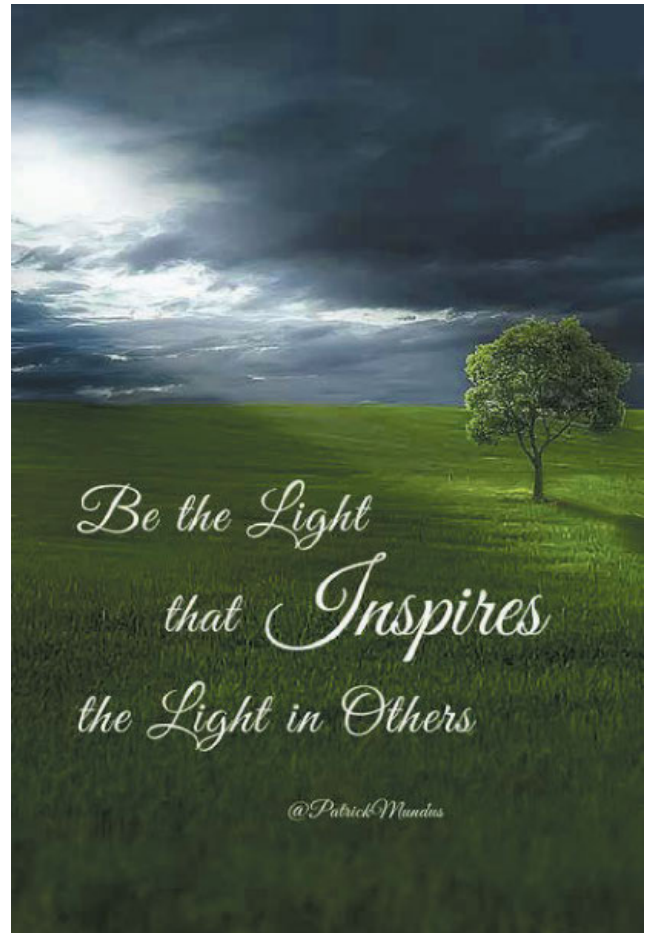

But if. It looms again, that short but powerful word.

“If” can be deep with excuses, but it can also be wide with possibility. If I bring it all to God. If I stop relying on my own abilities. If I prayed more than I talked. If I make my heart firm. If my faith does not rest on human wisdom.

If not me, who? If not now, when?

“You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden.” — Matthew 5:14

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT
Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this weekend's readings and psalm, the prevailing theme is that of light: We are the light of the world; our light breaks forth like the dawn; our light shines in the darkness; our light reflects generosity and justice. Good stewards know they are the lamp, and Christ is the flame that, through them, illuminates the earth. They know that they carry Christ's light in their hearts, and let it shine through their words and deeds. What are we doing to shine Christ's light on the hungry, the homeless and others most in need of God's mercy? How do we exercise good stewardship over the light of Christ that burns within each of us?

ADULT FORMATION

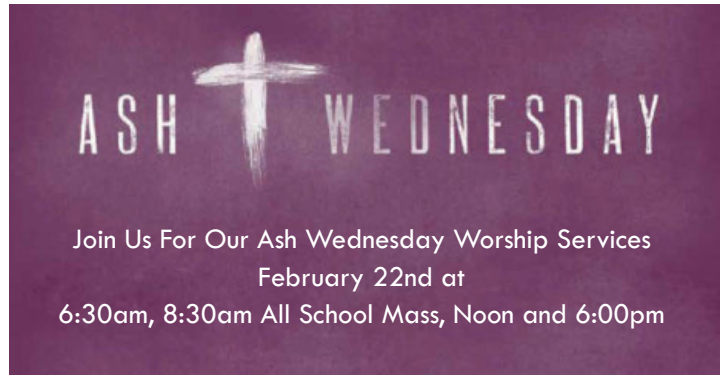

FEBRUARY LEADER HUDDLE

Please consider joining us at 11:30 am in the Chapel or 6:30 pm in the Life Teen Cafe. Do not hesitate to reach out to Maria Notch [mnotch@stcharleshartland.org] or Marianne Giovingo [mgiovingo@stcharleshartland.org] for questions or clarity.

HELP BRING THE ST. CHARLES GALA TO LIFE!

It is time to create the "track" for our Derby Gala! Families, individuals, and businesses are invited to be a Gala sponsor, silent or live auction donor, and/or a buy-in party host! For more information about supporting this year's event, please visit our website. Tickets will go on sale Saturday, March 4!

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Shampoo, Deodorant, Cereal, Mandarin Oranges

In the Gospel today, Jesus says "You are the light of the world." He is calling us to live our Christian vocation. When we are aware of God's presence in our own lives, then we are capable of illuminating the lives of others.

Be a "light" to those living in poverty and in a world of darkness by giving a donation to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. To become a member of this St. Charles ministry of service to the poor and needy while growing in holiness, please contact SVDP at 262-367-0800.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street and is open every Tuesday morning from 10am to noon and also from 5:30pm to 7pm on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month. If you know of someone that is need of our assistance, please have them call SVDP at 262-370-0800.

The food pantry will be closed when Arrowhead Schools close for inclement weather. It will reopen the following week, weather permitting.

STEWARDSHIP OF GOD'S WORD: READING THE BIBLE

February is a transitional month, especially with Ordinary Time ending on the 21st at the doorstep of Ash Wednesday, February 22, and the season of Lent. Many of us also begin to hope that spring will be around the next corner. The first seed catalog we find in the mail reminds us this must be true, yet we know it's not time to turn the soil. We wait in the quiet of late winter.

What better time than February, before Lent and the advent of spring, to settle in for some reading and praying with sacred scripture? February can be a quiet time of patient reflection for the Christian steward. The psalms, like so many biblical passages, remind us of the benefits of reading God's word: "Your word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path" (Ps 119:105).

Our liturgical year offers us a wonderful pathway to the Bible by providing Lectionary readings for each day. Our Sunday Gospel readings this year come to us mainly from Saint Matthew. In the month of February, we have an opportunity to reflect on Christ's teachings in his Sermon on the Mount with its hope-filled Beatitudes. This Gospel is ideal for spending time with the Lord in quiet meditation. In the month of February, we have an opportunity to reflect on Christ's teachings in his Sermon on the Mount with its hope-filled Beatitudes. This Gospel is ideal for spending time with the Lord in quiet meditation.

In the Gospel of Saint Matthew, Jesus gives us a guide to Christian living. If you choose to read this great book of the Bible, consider just one episode in the Gospel each time you read it. Put yourself into the scene. See what words strike a chord in you. Ask the Lord to help you know Him through the Gospel reading.

One of the hallmarks of Saint Matthew's Gospel is his emphasis on discipleship and what it means to follow Jesus. Christian stewards look to this Gospel to gain new insights into their journey of faith; and much like the desires of gardeners, long for the seeds of the Gospel, especially the Beatitudes, to be planted in their own hearts. Find some quiet time. Pick up your Bible. And use God's gift of these quiet February days to deepen your knowledge of Christ through sacred scripture.

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER for February

Heavenly Father, You made the light to shine out of darkness, a light that reveals the goodness of all you have created. Your Son tells us we are the light of the world. It is a dark world in desperate need of your infinite love and mercy. Help us to be good stewards of the light you shine in our hearts so that through this precious gift, we too may reveal your handiwork. And by the power of Your Spirit, show us how to shine our light before others, that they may see our good deeds and glorify you. We pray this in the name of Christ Jesus, your Son, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.
