PALM SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION

Palm Sunday

OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

The centurion and the men with him who were keeping watch over Jesus feared greatly when they saw the earthquake and all that was happening, and they said, "Truly, this was the Son of God!" ~ Matthew 26:54

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

PALM SUNDAY

By Marianne Giovingo
Discipleship Team Lead

'The master has need of them.'

What has Jesus been asking of you throughout this Lent? We made resolutions six weeks ago to help us offer that which was making us enslaved to the world and create space for God to enter and help us refocus on Heaven. These are the very 'things' that God 'has need of' from us. He wants us to give Him our weaknesses, our shame, all that we innately want to hide—He invites us to reveal them to Him in vulnerable selfless love so He can make them beautiful and use them for good. I know, that is intimidating and overwhelming and maybe makes you want to hide more. Don't give in.

As we hear about Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem on this Palm Sunday, will we allow God to see all of us? Are we willing to lay down our lives to give honor to the One we know we owe everything to? As we journey through Holy Week, we witness the example Jesus sets for us on what it means to live according to God's will. In Jesus' humanity, He felt as though God had abandoned Him—and we too may relate to these questions of wondering where God was at a certain point of our life. Under the guidance of someone you trust, go back in your prayer and mind's eye and revisit that painful time of what seemed like rejection from God. I promise you, He was there—look for Him from this lens of faith and see that He never left you!

Run to Jesus when you find Him in that moment and just sit with Him. Let Him love you, embrace you, hear your heart's desire, and trust in Him again. We are in the holiest of weeks liturgically where we remember the cost of God's love for us! My prayer, brothers and sisters, is for us to pause this week; may it look different as we remember the gift of our faith. Jesus' offering of His life on the cross redeemed us. May we join Christ on the cross and offer our life anew in response to the Love we have received!

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, April 9th Readings

Sunday: Acts 10:34a, 37-43/Ps 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23 (24)/Col 3:1-4 or 1 Cor 5:6b-8/Jn 20:1-9 or Mt 28:1-10

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, April 9th

- Peter speaks about himself and the other apostles as “witnesses” to Jesus’ public ministry as well as his death and resurrection from the dead. What are some ways you could give witness to the risen Jesus this week?
- Paul encourages the Christians in Corinth to see themselves as a community defined by sincerity and truth rather than malice and wickedness. Does this describe your circle of friends?
- The two women (Mary Magdalene and the other Mary) experience a range of emotions (from fear to being overjoyed) as they encounter first the angel and then the resurrected Jesus. How do you imagine you would react to encountering Jesus risen from the dead?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

CELEBRATING HOLY WEEK

CELEBRATING HOLY WEEK AT ST. CHARLES

We begin the observance of Holy Week on Palm Sunday, and it leads us into the celebration of the Paschal Triduum of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday. This most sacred week of the church year is one in which we are drawn ever-deeper into the mission of Christ on earth and eventually His passion, death, and resurrection. The days between Palm Sunday and Holy Thursday (Maundy Thursday) are known as Holy Monday, Holy Tuesday, and Holy Wednesday (Spy Wednesday). Spy Wednesday is called this because of the Gospel reading (Matthew 26:14-25) where we learn that Judas, one of Jesus' disciples, had become a spy and betrayed Him. After this comes the Triduum, which is seen as one continuous liturgy running from Thursday through Saturday.

Part of St. Charles' rich tradition of worship is Daily Mass and Morning Prayer. During the Triduum, however, there can only be two Masses: one on Holy Thursday and one on Holy Saturday. So instead of Daily Mass on these days, we observe Morning Prayer. During Morning Prayer, we sing multiple Canticles and Psalms and hear sacred scripture then a brief reflection given by a member of the St. Charles community. It is a beautiful opportunity for our priests to pray as part of the assembly and to be fed by the preaching of a lay person, seminarian, or deacon.

There are many beautiful and rich traditions of Holy Week, including the Palm Sunday Procession, the return of the rice bowls, the reception of the Holy Oils, the footwashing, the collection for the Holy Land, Stations of the Cross, Adoration of the Cross, Adoration of the Eucharist, the Easter Fire, and the blessing of food for our Easter tables. Through the Scripture readings we hear during Holy Week, we once again experience the history of our salvation as the People of God, from the creation of the world by God through his Son's passion, death and resurrection. And music! So much beautiful music that helps us experience the jubilation, pain, suffering, grief, and then eventually a return to joy! We as Christians believe that Holy Week is truly the holiest week of the liturgical year, and the days of the Triduum are the holiest three days, each one greater than the day before. If you have never experienced Triduum, I invite you to come to all three services. Catholics have been doing this for hundreds of years and coming away renewed and affirmed in their faith in Christ, as well as in the beauty of the Church's traditions, prayers and symbolism.

CELEBRATING THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM

THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM AT ST. CHARLES

Many Catholics have never experienced the Paschal Triduum in its entirety. The Triduum is one continuous Rite, consisting of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday when we celebrate the Easter Vigil. Each of the three days of the Triduum is rich with sacred scripture, powerful rituals, and beautiful music.

GOOD FRIDAY AT ST. CHARLES

On Good Friday, we gather at 1:00 pm in silence. Baskets will be available in the narthex for the collection for the Holy Land. Good Friday is not a Mass, and it is not a Holy Day of Obligation. The observance begins with a silent procession, and the ministers prostrate themselves in front of the altar. Then, in the Liturgy of the Word, we hear the psalmist lead Psalm 31: "Father into your hands, I commend my spirit." We proclaim the Passion reading. We sing the Solemn Intercessions, and then the cross, which has been covered, is unveiled. We then have the opportunity to adore and reverence the cross. This year we will do so by genuflecting or bowing. During the adoration of the cross, we sing "O Sacred Head," "Were You There," "Behold the Wood," and "Jesus Remember Me." Holy Communion, which was reserved from the previous night's Mass of the Lord's Supper, is distributed. All are invited to participate in Stations of the Cross that evening at 7:00 pm.

HOLY THURSDAY AT ST. CHARLES

The Triduum begins on Holy Thursday, April 6 at 7:00 pm. After the Gathering Song, we experience the Reception of Holy Oils, which were consecrated on Holy Tuesday by Archbishop ListECKI at the Chrism Mass. First is the Oil of the Sick for healing in body, mind, and soul. Next is the Oil of Catechumens for anointing those preparing for Baptism. Lastly, the Oil of Chrism, which is used to anoint babies after Baptism, those who are being confirmed, Bishops and Priests at Ordination, and altars and churches when they are dedicated. In the Gospel, we hear the story of Jesus sharing a Passover meal with his disciples but first tenderly washing their feet. During our Mass of the Lord's Supper, twelve members of the St. Charles community will have their feet washed by our priests. Music selections include "Glory in the Cross," "Ubi Caritas," and "What Wondrous Love." At the end of Mass, there is a procession to take the Blessed Sacrament to the chapel. We will sing Pange Lingua, and all are invited to adore the Blessed Sacrament in the chapel until midnight. Lastly, the entire sanctuary is stripped, and the crosses are removed from church.

HOLY SATURDAY AT ST. CHARLES

On Holy Saturday, there is a blessing of the Easter foods at 4:00 pm in church. At 8:00 pm, we gather outside in the northeast parking lot for the Easter Fire. The Easter Vigil is the high point and holiest day of the entire church year. The church begins in darkness, and the Exultet will be chanted by Father Ariel. The Paschal Candle is lit, and from that one light of Christ, we too light our taper candles until the entire church shines with the light of Christ. In the Liturgy of the Word, we hear the story of our faith from Genesis to the Resurrection: nine scripture readings and eight psalms. Music will be led by the Adult Choir accompanied by a brass quartet under the direction of Dr. Aaron Mathews. There will be a Sprinkling Rite to remind us all of our own Baptism and our call to live that out in our daily lives. Our joyous music tells the story of resurrection as we are finally able to proclaim "Alleluia! Christ is risen!"

TOUR THE NEW CHURCH!

You too can be as happy as Dr. Aaron Mathews when you see the progress that has been made on the inside of our new church!

All parishioners are welcome to take a self-guided walking tour of the inside (first floor only) of the new church on Sunday, April 16 after all morning Masses from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Parishioners will exit Mass, forming a line at the North East entrance. The line will be continuously moving so we can get as many people as possible inside. This tour will be a loop that will begin and end at the North East entrance. Signs will be posted identifying areas and rooms. Please wear comfortable, close-toed walking shoes (no heels). No registration is required.

Parents with young children, please note that this is an active construction site. Some pathways may be narrow. We are looking at a viewing area for walkers, strollers, wheelchairs, and those who have difficulty walking.

HEART OF THE NATION EASTER TV MASSES

St. Charles' Music Ministry participated in the Heart of the Nation: My Sunday Mass, which is the most widely distributed televised Mass in the country, reaching tens of millions of homes coast to coast on broadcast, cable, and satellite channels. The Heart of the Nation TV Mass serves the faithful who cannot attend church in person.

St. Charles filmed the Masses for Easter Sunday, Second Sunday of Easter, and Third Sunday of Easter, and they will air on April 9, 16, and 23, respectively on Channel 6 at 5:30 a.m. and Channel 24 at 7:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. Additionally, they will be available on the Heart of the Nation website, Facebook page, and YouTube channel: www.youtube.com/heartofthenation.

SAVE THE DATE FOR THE YOUNG @ HEART'S NEXT EVENT!

St. Charles Young @ Heart group invites you to join us in celebrating our one-year anniversary at the Golden Mast Inn on Okauchee Lake, May 25, 2023.

Cost is $35 per person, featuring the Golden Mast famous terrace buffet - delicious variety for all tastes.

This event is an ideal opportunity to simply have meaningful time to spend enjoying the love of family and favorite friends. It is also a great time to meet those nice ladies we may often see each week in church but haven't learned their name. This invitation is open to all women of the parish and their guests.

We welcome you all and hope to see you there. The invitation cards with RSVP are available on the information wall in the hallway next to the church office. If you have questions, call Kathy Nawrocki at 262-727-7205.

Grieving with Great HOPE

FIVE-WEEK GRIEF SUPPORT WORKSHOP AT ST. CHARLES

April 22, 29 and May 6, 13 & 20
Saturdays, 9:30 - 11:30 am in the Life Teen Cafe

Grieving with Great HOPE is a five-week grief support workshop using a video on-demand format offered by St. Charles Bereavement Ministry. It offers a prayerful, practical and personal approach for anyone who is mourning the loss of a loved one. If you have lost a spouse, a child (including pregnancy loss), a grandchild, a parent, another family member or a friend, you are encouraged to attend. Presenters will include two priests as well as John and Sandy O'Shaughnessy from Good Mourning Ministry, a Catholic bereavement organization.

If you would like to register for the workshop, visit the parish website and click on the NEWS story to find the online registration form.

For more information or questions, please contact Maria Notch at mnotch@stcharleshartland.org.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Fruit Juice, Maple Syrup, Paper Towels, Peas

Today is Palm Sunday and the beginning of the holiest of Christian weeks. Let us pray for the grace to take up our own cross and to follow Jesus through death to new life. Please support the St. Charles St. Vincent de Paul Society so that together we can help the poor as they carry their cross of suffering and pain.

A special thanks to St. Catherine's in Mapleton for their generous food donation to our pantry.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street and is open every Tuesday morning from 10am to noon and also from 5:30pm to 7pm on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month. If you are in need or know someone that is in need of our assistance, please have them call SVDP at 262-370-0800.

The food pantry will be closed when Arrowhead Schools close for inclement weather. It will reopen the following week, weather permitting.

MODERN DAY SIMON OF CYRENE

Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week. As we walk with Jesus this week, we remember the countless women, children and men who carry heavy crosses even today: crosses of hunger, of vulnerability to climate change, or of a lack of resources. How – like Simon of Cyrene – can you help to carry the crosses of our sisters and brothers in your local community and around the world? Visit crsricebowl.org/holy-week to learn more.

One of the easiest ways to support St. Charles Parish and School is through the secured online e-giving system.
