PENTECOST SUNDAY

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you."
- Jn 20:21

The Holy Spirit is a healing spirit.
When the Holy Spirit is present,
anything is possible.

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

PENTECOST SUNDAY

I hope you'll acknowledge with me a simple fact: it's not normal to have tongues of fire "part and come to rest" on people. It is actually pretty strange. Yet that is precisely what we celebrate on this feast of Pentecost. How can this mean something to us in our daily lives?

Jews had a tradition that heaven is a temple made of bricks of fire. So, through the apostles, the heavenly temple is coming to earth. But this fire looks like tongues, not bricks. That means that heavenly speech will be crucial to building a dwelling place for God on earth among men and women. So, it's no surprise when the apostles begin to speak in a miraculous way that is understood by all language groups. They are speaking of what God has done in and through Jesus: bringing heaven to earth and uniting all peoples to God and to each other.

How often our speech divides: gossip, slander, insults, and so on. How strange and rare it is when people speak in ways that truly unite instead of divide. Imagine how powerful it would be if you and I began to speak at home, at work, and in our community in a way that made people hear heavenly speech. Imagine if you spoke of the mighty deeds of God in a way that everyone could understand. That's precisely what the Holy Spirit descends upon us to do. Ask Him to come as a tongue of fire to you once again, and He will. Then speak!

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, June 3rd Readings

Sunday: Ex 34:4b-6, 8-9/Dn 3:52, 53, 54, 55, 56 (52b)/
2 Cor 13:11-13/Jn 3:16-18

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, June 3rd

- At Mount Sinai, the Lord revealed himself to Moses as merciful, gracious, kind, and faithful. Do you see these positive traits in yourself?
- In the closing remarks of his second letter to the Corinthians, Paul encouraged the believers in Corinth to live in peace and love with one another, modeled after the grace, love, and fellowship of our Triune God. Where do you think you most need to show peace and love with others this week?
- Jesus taught his disciples that God loved the world and desired to save the world by offering believers eternal life. How do you think believers having eternal life saves the world?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI ADORATION

As we move toward our goal of Perpetual Adoration in the new church, we invite you to take part in the 40 Hours Devotion. On the weekend of the Feast of Corpus Christi, there will be opportunities for adoration beginning Friday, June 9 at 9:30am and concluding just prior to 7:00 am Mass on Sunday, June 11. After the 11:00 am Mass, the parish will celebrate a Eucharistic Procession. Both of these practices help to highlight and strengthen our devotion to the Eucharist. We look forward to more of these opportunities as we prepare to celebrate the Eucharistic Revival with parishes across the United States. Please visit our website for more information and to sign up for times for the 40 Hours Devotion.

Please know that each hour we need two people to commit to adoring our Lord, however, ALL ARE WELCOME. The Friday daytime hours are covered by our current weekly adorers, who have signed up in preparation for our Perpetual Eucharistic Chapel, and are not listed on this sign up.

Please pray for
DEACON ROBERT ROSS
(St. Charles Teaching Seminarian)
who will be ordained to the Priesthood on June 3rd
(Diocese of Gary, Indiana)

Deacon Robert's Mass of Thanksgiving will be at St. Charles on Sunday, June 25th at the 11 am Mass. A reception will follow, and all are welcome.

MEMORIAL DAY PRAYER

Dear Lord, on this day, we remember those who have served us by protecting our freedoms. When we celebrate our long weekend with our friends and family, help us remember, that our freedom to speak of you, and our freedom to worship you, and our freedom to do that which we ought to do, have all been bought at the price and sacrifice of many lives. Your Son died for our eternal life in heaven. So too, your children died protecting us here on earth. Help us be mindful this weekend and always of the sacrifices made by those in uniform for all our freedoms. Amen.

SAINT OF THE WEEK Venerable Fr. Patrick Peyton

Venerable Fr. Patrick Peyton was born in Ireland near the Ox Mountains on January 9, 1909, to a devout Catholic family with nine children who prayed the rosary together every single day. Despite his early interest in a priestly vocation, Patrick's rebellious side prevailed and he dropped out of school at an early age, shifting his focus to working on his family's farm. He worked hard on the farm during his youth and teenage years until two of his sisters, who had already immigrated to the states, sent for him and his older brother, Thomas, to join them. The young men immigrated to Scranton, Pennsylvania in 1928 when Patrick was 19 years old. They moved in with their sister Beatrice and her husband.

Originally hoping to embody the American dream and find a job to bring him and his family wealth, Patrick eventually landed as the sexton, or as he referred to the job — "a janitor" — in St. Peter's Cathedral under the guidance of Monsignor Paul Kelly. This job, which had Patrick in the Cathedral and among other religious daily, reignited Patrick's interest in a vocation. As he was lacking his high school education, Monsignor Kelly instructed him to pursue his education first and then investigate joining a novitiate. Soon after this directive, both Patrick and his brother entered the Congregation of Holy Cross in Notre Dame where they finished their high school education and went on to study at the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.

During his second year at the university, Patrick was diagnosed with tuberculosis and had to leave school to be transferred back to Notre Dame for more intense long-term care. During his time in their infirmary, he dedicated himself to constant prayer, seeking the help and intercession of Mary, Mother of God. It was this devotion to Mary that he credits for the miraculous healing of the disease. His lungs eventually cleared and healed completely so he returned to the university to finish his studies and take his vows as soon as he could. He was ordained on June 15, 1941, at the Basilica of the Sacred Heart at the University of Notre Dame, along with his brother Thomas, as priests of the Congregation of Holy Cross.

For his first priestly assignment he was sent to Albany, New York, as a chaplain of the Holy Cross Brothers of the Vincentian Institute. While there, Peyton began the Crusade for Family Prayer. He wrote letters to bishops, Catholic laity leaders, and other Catholic groups promoting the importance of praying the rosary together. Due to his life-long dedication to the Holy Mother and the rosary, he became known as "The Rosary Priest." He coined the now popular phrases — "The family that prays together stays together" as well as "A world at prayer is a world at peace."

Father Patrick's hope was to inspire 10 million Americans to pray the rosary together in their homes — a goal he would eventually meet and exceed many times over. As his efforts were being made during a time when the world was at war and anxiety was high among American families, he continually preached that prayer would lead to peace and safety saying, "The rosary is the offensive weapon that will destroy Communism — the great evil that seeks to destroy the faith."

His efforts with the Rosary Crusades were duplicated around the world and promoted in countries from Brussels to Brazil! As post World War II peace felt continually threatened by the Cold War, the Holy See recognized Patrick's efforts and spread his message even further across the world. In 1947, Father Patrick founded Family Theater Productions, which still exists today, and made himself a major pioneer of mass-media evangelism often rubbing elbows with celebrities, artists, and famous leaders. This mastery of media caused his Rosary Crusade to attract millions of people as he traveled around the world with his message of peaceful prayer. In fact, anyone on the planet who has access to the internet can still participate in a daily recording of the rosary that is livestreamed by an organization called Family Rosary. Founded by Fr. Patrick, Family Rosary livestreams a Mass and rosary on the Family Rosary Facebook page every single day to over 1,325,000 followers!

Father Patrick Peyton died peacefully in 1992 at age 83 while holding a rosary in his hands. Pope Francis declared that Father Patrick Peyton lived a life of heroic virtue on December 18, 2017, and gave him the title of venerable. © LPI

Thank you for your continued support.
