THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Do you ever feel restless? I certainly do. Daily tasks and challenges, but also the more basic demand of simply existing — sooner or later, this can all feel crushing and tire us out.

Which is why Jesus' words are such stunningly good news: "Come to me all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). How vastly weird that this man speaks as though he is capable of giving us the deep repose we desire. Is his claim the height of absurd grandiosity? No, because next he immediately proclaims that he is "meek and humble of heart." We here touch a mystery: Jesus is capable of giving us rest because he is the one who forever reposes in the heart of God the Father. He is "yoked" to the Father in his divinity. But he is humbly "yoked" to us, sharing in our humanity.

The good news, my fellow tired-out friends: we don't have to despair in our burdens and exhaustion, no matter how heavy they feel. This week, join me in opening our hearts to hear him say to us, "Come! I will give you rest." We come to him in the Church, Eucharist, the Scriptures, prayer, in the poor. There he will give us rest.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, July 16th Readings

Sunday: Is 55:10-11/Ps 65:1, 11, 12-13, 14 (Luke 8:8)/ Rom 8:18-23/Mt 13:1-23 or 13:1-9

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, July 16th

- The prophet Isaiah assured the Israelites who were exiled in Babylon that God's word is reliable and purposeful. How might you help friends or family trust more in God?
- Paul sees creation itself sharing in the redemption and future glory that awaits all believers — "For creation awaits with eager expectation the revelation of the children of God." What do you imagine earth would look like filled with God's glory, absent any "corruption?"
- Over the next few Sundays, we will be hearing many parables from Jesus. Today's parable of the sower and the seeds speaks to how people react differently to the Good News of the kingdom of heaven. How would you describe your reaction to Jesus's parables of the kingdom?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

I
AM

COME
VISIT
ME!

IS JESUS CALLING YOU TO BE A SUBSTITUTE ADORER?

It can be difficult to commit to a weekly Eucharistic Adoration Holy Hour, so now is the time to consider being a substitute. The Perpetual Adoration Team is building a list of subs to help out when a need arises. Visit the news story on our website to indicate your availability, and when needed, you will be contacted.

WHAT ADORATION MEANS TO ME

When I receive Jesus in the Eucharist, there is a small timeframe of love and gratitude before the Final Blessing. When I go to the Adoration Chapel, the timeframe is extended. If you have a good friend or neighbor with whom you sit in the kitchen sharing coffee and thoughts, that friendship and familiarity grows with each visit. That visit in person is so much better than a telephone call. And so it is with Adoration, that visit with Jesus Whom you welcomed in the Eucharist is in the Monstrance, and He is there for all the time that you need.

In my mind's eye, when I sit in the chapel, I imagine the saints and angels who are there with Jesus and me. If in that particular time I have many thoughts on my mind that I want to talk over with Jesus, I often ask for their help. Sometimes, after lots of words, I find myself apologizing to Jesus for my "babbling," after all, He knows it anyway. Sometimes, I just go in and sit in front of Jesus in the Monstrance... I think of St. John Vianney asking the farmer about his prayer and being told, "I look at Him, and He looks at me." Usually, I have to ask Jesus particularly to keep me "at home"... settling me for some quiet time.

I was reading a reflection of Blessed Charles de Foucauld about Adoration. A reminder, Jesus is as close to me in Adoration as He was to Mary and Joseph in Bethlehem or to the Apostles. He goes on to ask why one would feel a need to travel to the Holy places where Jesus was....He is right here, right now, in the Adoration Chapel.

I have an hour that is my hour with Jesus each Friday, an hour that often extends into the next. I look forward to that day and time, a set aside time, to be with Jesus in Adoration. With a set time, I don't find myself putting it off. I look forward to it as my quiet time with the Lord. I'm pretty jealous of that hour, it's important for me.

Fr. Robert Ross celebrated his Mass of Thanksgiving at St. Charles on Sunday, June 25. St. Charles Parish is proud of this young man!
