THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION
27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus' parables are much stranger than most people realize. This week is an attention-getting example. He tells the religious leaders a parable about a completely absurd situation. Blood-thirsty and insane tenants violently abuse and kill the servants of their landlord. Inexplicably, the owner keeps sending them more victims of increasing value — up to and including his own son. Weird.

Usually, we hear this parable and assume it's an allegory: Jesus is the murdered son, the servants the prophets, etc. Fair enough. But notice — and here is where the weirdness deepens — Jesus seems to disagree with the Pharisees' interpretation that the landowner should and will punish the inheritance-obsessed murderers. So, is Jesus praising the psychotic and greedy murderers?! You can imagine the furrowed brows and deriding laughter as the scoffing crowd shuffles away.

If we stay with this tough parable, perhaps this truth emerges: God wants us to have an over-the-top obsession with a totally undeserved inheritance. Of course, we are forbidden to use violence. But the parable's violence gets our attention because it highlights the crazy goodness of the landowner. Jesus reveals that God is not merely in the business of rewarding the good and punishing the bad. He is playing a much stranger game — one marked by a kind of over-the-top mercy, a breathtaking giving of what is not deserved. What would our week look like if we embraced this kind of desire for God's kingdom on earth, even if others think we're nuts? This week let's seek God's kingdom with a passionate confidence in God's desire to give the good things we don't deserve.

~ Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, October 15th Readings

Sunday: Is 25:6-10a/Ps 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6 (6cd)/
Phil 4:12-14, 19-20/Mt 22:1-14 or 22:1-10

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit
<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, October 15th

- The prophet Isaiah speaks of a future when God will be fully present, and we will experience complete joy. What gives you hope for the future?
- Paul shares with the Philippians that regardless of his circumstances, he has learned to draw strength and gratitude from his faith in Jesus. How does your faith sustain you in good times and bad times?
- Jesus's parable of the wedding feast offers a warning to be open to God's invitation to answer His call. How do you stay open to God's presence in your life?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

St. Charles Adoration Speaker Series

As we prepare for Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration in the new church and in honor of the Eucharistic Revival, we are pleased to present an entire series on Adoration for our parish family! Come join us for our Adoration Speaker Series! We are delighted to announce our last guest speaker:

Our very own Fr. Ken Omernick will be sharing "How to Pray in Adoration" on Sunday, October 22 at 12:15 pm.

The presentation will take place in the church and end with an invitation to participate in Adoration with your fellow parishioners. We hope you can join us!

THANK YOU

Thank you to everyone who joined us for our second Adoration Speaker Series session with Fr. Brad Krawczyk on September 26! We had over one hundred attendees come to learn more about Adoration before having an opportunity to participate in Adoration afterward. Didn't get a chance to attend? Please visit the News story on our website to view the presentation. Don't forget to save the date for our next session on Sunday, October 22 at 12:15 p.m. with Fr. Ken!

The local Public Square Rosary Rally will take place at 163 E. Capitol Drive (Michael Finn's Law Office) in downtown Hartland.

Contact Carol Betzhold at 262-719-7155 for more information.

RESPECT FOR LIFE MONTH LOOK FOR THE PINK & BLUE FLAGS AT ST. CHARLES!

During October, there are pink & blue flags placed on the grounds at St. Charles. October is Respect for Life Month. The St. Charles Respect for Life Ministry asks that everyone continue to pray for the Holy Innocents who are aborted every day in the United States. ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Variety Pack Oatmeal, Brown Sugar, Single Serving Applesauce, Spaghetti, White or Brown Rice

The good news of the Gospel of the Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time is that all we need to do is let God tend us and bring us to produce good fruit. All we need to do is be faithful; God will take care of the rest. Please help the St. Charles Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring the love and mercy of Jesus to those who feel left out and abandoned in our area. In the month of September, we helped 68 families at the pantry and provided rent and electric bill payments for our neighbors.

If you are in need of assistance or know someone who is in need, please contact us at 262-367-0800. The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland. It is open every Tuesday morning between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm.

SCRIP FOR YOUR HALLOWEEN NEEDS!

PARISH KITCHENS USE AND SAFETY

Many different individuals and groups volunteer and use St. Charles' kitchens; those collecting items for or serving a meal program, a funeral meal, a reception, the men's group, school programs, the Parish festival or simply storing items in the cooler and more. If you're one of the group leaders, you were recommended to have orientation to that kitchen use. There is a binder in the Borromeo Room kitchen with some of the guidelines and equipment use as well as a checklist to be filled out at the end of events. The checklist is there as a reminder of safety issues. Please notify Vickie Flask through the office at 262-367-0800 if you would like a review or have questions.

We want everyone to be safe and keep things working in proper order, including for the next group using the kitchen. With your cooperation, the kitchens will continue to be available for parish activities.

Recent Safety Concerns/Reminders:

- Be sure the stove gas is turned completely off.
- If a GFCI outlet is tripped, notify the office.
- Close the freezer door tight. It's been left open a number of times resulting in ice build-up.
- Be sure to label, with name and date, items left in the cooler/freezer. Leave nothing on the floor.
- Clean the kitchen before you leave, especially things you've used. Clean up any spills and keep the floor tidy.
- Turn off the lights when you leave; that includes lights in the cooler/freezer.
- If you prop open any outside doors, be sure to close them.
- Lock the exterior building doors before you leave.
