THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION
29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

With little more than a year until the United States' national elections, I find myself feeling, like many Catholics, both dread and energized. Dread because our democratic republic can be a messy endeavor and campaigns a long, nasty, and unedifying slog; energized because hope for positive societal change can be enticing and engaging. As a pastor, I see similar conflicting attitudes in those whom I serve. How can Catholics best engage our political arena in a way which is truly helpful and worthwhile?

This week's gospel reading offers wisdom in this regard. Jesus says, "Render therefore to Caesar the things are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." This riddle forces us to answer for ourselves a hidden question: what is the relationship between political and divine authority? Two common but false answers lead to mischief. If we answer that the two are equivalent, politics becomes our absolute authority. This happens whenever religion is slave to the state, as in the travesty of the pro-Nazi German Christian movement in the 1930s and 40s. It also usually occurs when there is an official state religion. If we answer that the two are totally unrelated, we end up with an unchecked aggressive secularist state as we often experience now. Thus, religion becomes a weak and private pastime.

What's a better alternative? At our best, Christians hold that political authority does indeed have its own legitimate autonomy but is nested within God's all-encompassing authority. Think, for example, of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s respect for politics while also being able to criticize unjust human laws because he recognized a higher heavenly law. In other words, Caesar owns politics — and God owns Caesar. So, we should allow Jesus' words to lead us to have a deep respect and willingness to peacefully engage in politics without making that engagement our religion. We bring our faith to bear on our politics knowing confidently that Caesar isn't God — but he is indeed God's.

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE
Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, October 29th Readings

Sunday: Ex 22:20-26/Ps 18:2-3, 3-4, 47, 51 (2)/
1 Thes 1:5c-10/Mt 22:34-40

*To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit

Reflection questions for Sunday, October 29th

- We hear today some of the laws that Moses received from God on Mount Sinai. Namely, God's expectation that we show compassion for those most vulnerable in society. How could you show care for those in need this week?
- Paul praised the Thessalonians for being role models of the faith for the surrounding regions of Achaia and Macedonia. How do you model your faith to family and friends?
- For Jesus, love of God and love of neighbor and self are the most important commandments. Which of these commandments do you do best?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Tax of Caesar

Too often, I confuse this world with the next.

Every day has its set of problems that need dealing with. Some are very easily discernible as problems of this world: I am tired, and I need a nap and a latte. Some are very obviously problems of eternity: I need to ask for forgiveness, but I'm not ready to admit it.

Most problems are a subtle, maddening mix of the two: my body feels tired, obscuring how tired my soul also feels, while making me very cranky, which is keeping me from asking for the forgiveness I need.

It's not that the nap and the latte aren't solutions. Heaven forbid! I would never propose such a thing. Sleep and coffee, I am confident, can fix almost any problem in this world. This world.

Too often, I slap a one-size-fits-all earthly band-aid on all my problems and rush on to the next thing. But if the problem is an issue of my soul, I may as well pay for a parking ticket in Monopoly money.

I render unto Caesar, and I forget about what is owed to God. I apply solutions meant for the here and now to problems that have eternal consequences. The spiritual problems are dismissed, shoved to the back of my mind. For when I have time, I tell myself. For when I am ready.

But the only time we have is now. God is no king of this earth, and he does not ask for a tax offering. He asks for our heart. He doesn't want us for minions but for children.

"I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not." — Isaiah 45:4

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus offers us a profound teaching on stewardship in this weekend's reading: What belongs to Caesar? What belongs to God? Christian stewards recognize that everything they have belongs to God. God created them, and God has claims on every part of their existence. They also realize that the sovereign is an institution whose nature and purpose is to promote the common good and protect the welfare of its citizenry. As long as it accomplishes this mission while treating every single person with deep respect, justice and compassion, it merits the steward's support and cooperation. Christian stewards know what belongs to the Lord, and they are better citizens when they live their lives according to his Gospel.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Saltine Crackers, Canned Pineapple, Salad Dressing, Kleenex, Toilet Paper, Deodorant, Sugar (4lb bag)

In the Gospel on the Twenty-Ninth Sunday of Ordinary Time, Jesus says, "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." When God is the center of our lives, there is no problem with giving others their due. Through your generous gifts to the St. Charles Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you are helping your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless and frightened to know that they belong to God.

If you are in need of assistance or know someone who is in need, please contact us at 262-367-0800. The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland. It is open every Tuesday morning between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm.

YOU MAKE THE DIFFERENCE!

As part of being a Catholic, we are called to be good Stewards. Stewardship in a congregation is the sense of community and service adopted when parishioners do tasks for each other for the sake of the love for their neighbor and love of Christ. It is the application of what Christ taught us, to leave each other as He loved us. This could mean financial support or giving of one's time to our parish or greater community as a volunteer. We are always in need of volunteers for our different ministries and are hoping you can help serve not only our parish but also your fellow parishioners in various ways. Please visit the Volunteer Page on our website for a listing of the different ministries we have at St. Charles as well as what specific needs each ministry has. We are so grateful for your time and talents!

LUNCH ROOM
COORDINATOR NEEDED

Our school is in need of a Lunch Room Coordinator! This position is part-time from approximately 10:45am-1:15pm on weekdays when school is in session. For more information about this role, please contact the School Office at 262-367-2040 or school@stcharleshartland.org.

NEW CHURCH UPDATES

We are pleased to report that exterior work on our new church is almost complete. Landscaping work is in progress and will be wrapped up soon. Floors are currently being tiled inside, which should be completed by the end of October. We are excited to announce that we will be offering self-guided walking tours of the new church on November 11 and 12 after all Masses so that parishioners can see all of the work that has been done since the tours we had in mid-April. No registration is required. We hope you will join us and see how incredible our new church is!

Also, we are happy to announce that the parish's Northeast entrance (known as the former main entrance) is now open. The doors will be open Monday through Friday from 6:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. and for weekend Masses. The Borromeo Room doors will not be open during these times (starting on Monday, October 23rd). If you need to enter the parish after 4 p.m. on weekdays, you will need to use the Borromeo Room doors at this time. We will share updates with you about any other entrance changes. Thank you for your patience as we continue to make progress on our new church.

We are excited to announce that St. Charles has reached 81.36% of our 2023 goal for the Catholic Stewardship Appeal. Dollars raised within the Archdiocese of Milwaukee stay here and are used solely for the purpose of supporting its ministries and programs. Many of these programs have no other means of financial support, and their reach extends well beyond what any parish or school can provide on its own.

You still have an opportunity to give. Your generosity makes a real difference in people's lives and in the Church. Every gift makes a difference, no matter the amount. Visit <https://donate.catholicappeal.org> for information.
