THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION 30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In our secularized culture, we all struggle with belief in God, at least to some degree. An atheist man named Robert Bridges once wrote to his friend, the Jesuit poet Gerard Manley Hopkins, asking how he could possibly learn to believe in God. Hopkins pithily responded: "Give alms." Would that help someone tempted by atheism today, like you and me?

I think so, and here's why. This week, Jesus speaks of love for God and neighbor. These dual commands were nothing new when Jesus used them to sum up the Jewish law. What is new is the way he links them together in mutual dependency. In Jesus, God and man have become one. Human-love and God-love are now inseparably married forever.

The newness of the God-man means that there is now a permanently counter-intuitive way into the knowledge and love of God: love of our neighbor. To experience charity is to know God. That's what Hopkins was getting at for his friend. How we treat our fellow human beings is inseparable from faith in God. Do you want to have a stronger sense of God's loving presence and goodness? Commit to serving someone today and this week. Love him or her. Don't wait for love for God to appear in your heart before loving others. Jesus has united divine and human love. If you want to believe more in God, give alms.

~ Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, November 5th Readings

Sunday: Mal 1:14b—2:2b, 8-10/Ps 131:1, 2, 3/
1 Thes 2:7b-9, 13/Mt 23:1-12

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit
<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, November 5th

- The prophet Malachi informs the priests of Israel that God is aware that their instruction has caused many to stumble in their faith. Have you ever had to help someone who has lost their faith?
- Paul expresses his gratitude to the Thessalonians for their openness to hear and believe the word of God taught by them. Who in your life might be open to hearing the word of God from you?
- Jesus challenged the crowds and his disciples to be as servants to each other, acting always in humility. How might you be a servant to someone at work or at home?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

WHAT A BLESSED OCTOBER

Fall is a wonderful time to celebrate our catholic faith, and St. Charles did not disappoint. We blessed our pets on Oct. 4th and prayed the Rosary in downtown Hartland on Oct. 14th. How blessed are we!

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

27 Words That Matter

One of the quickest things you learn as a parent is how dangerous it is to explain too much, especially when your kid is teetering on the brink of a rebellion. The fewer words you use, the more power they have. A kid who is about to be carried away by their feelings needs to be brought back to earth with a tether made of short, succinct directions.

There are a lot of similarities between the Pharisees of Scripture and a toddler on the edge of a meltdown. Stay with me — this will make sense, I promise. Think about it: both toddlers and Pharisees have lots of feelings and lots of opinions. Both toddlers and Pharisees think you're out to get them. Both toddlers and Pharisees keep trying to trick you to get what they think they want.

A thorough Google search informs me that there are about 80,000 words in the Torah. Eighty-thousand words, and Jesus can boil it all down to 27: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind" and "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

It doesn't make the excess words untrue; it doesn't even make them unnecessary. Sometimes I need the long explanation, the full and complete picture.

Because sometimes, as much as I hate to admit it, I act like both a toddler and a Pharisee. I am carried away by my feelings. I don't trust God. I am about to bolt.

When that happens, I need to be told in short and simple terms what my salvation means. I need a tether made of short, succinct directions.

"The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."
— Matthew 22:40

COMING BACK TO CHURCH

Question:

I have been away from the Church for a few years and really want to get active again, not so much for me but for my children. Is this a bad reason to come back to Church?

Answer:

If you are on your way to the supermarket, and you are forced to detour from your usual route because of road work, does the food you buy taste different? Is the meal less filling? Are the vegetables less tasty? Of course not. In our faith journey, there are many detours called sin. Some are greater than others, some are even a bit longer. But God's grace comes to us in ways we understand and recognize and need. Your children leading you back to the Church is not as important as the fact that you are back.

This is an opportunity for you to renew, strengthen, and deepen your faith. Regardless of how we get to Church or what draws us closer to God, the fact is we are there. Do what you need to do to get right with God and the Church. Go to confession, begin good family religious practices, and be involved in the ministries your parish offers. Be more than a lukewarm parishioner. Be the kind of Catholic you want your children to be. ©LPi

NEW CHURCH TOURS NOVEMBER 11 & 12

We are pleased to report that exterior work on our new church is almost complete. Landscaping work is in progress and will be wrapped up soon. Floors are currently being tiled inside, which should be completed by the end of October. We are excited to announce that we will be offering self-guided walking tours of the new church on November 11 and 12 after all Masses so that parishioners can see all of the work that has been done since the tours we had in mid-April. No registration is required. We hope you will join us and see how incredible our new church is!

The parish's Northeast entrance (known as the former main entrance) is open. The doors will be open Monday through Friday from 6:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. and for weekend Masses. The Borromeo Room doors will not be open during these times. If you need to enter the parish after 4 p.m. on weekdays, you will need to use the Borromeo Room doors at this time. ## GET TO KNOW HANNAH OSBORNE, ST. CHARLES NEW ADULT DISCIPLESHIP COORDINATOR

Hello St. Charles family! I am so thrilled to be the new Adult Discipleship Coordinator here! I grew up in Hartland, attended St. Clare's in North Lake (now St. Teresa of Calcutta), and graduated from Marquette. After living out of state in Denver and Phoenix for seven years, it is a blessing to finally be back in Lake Country and closer to family. I also work part-time for Children's Wisconsin as a nurse practitioner in urgent care. My husband Greg and I have two boys, Welles (2.5 years) and Walker, who is three months old. I love spending my weekends running around the backyard with the boys, getting a family hike in at Nashotah Park, skiing at Heiligeer Huegel (Welles just got his first pair of skis!), and enjoying a glass of pinot noir around our bonfire pit.

I am so elated that God tapped me on the shoulder for this role. I hope to further the growth of the Small Group movement at St. Charles while accompanying others as they meet, know, love and serve Christ.

The Masses will air on network television on November 5 and November 12. Channel 24 is at 9:00 am, and Channel 6 is at 5:30 am. You may also view the Masses on Heartofthenation.org or on YouTube. The students were blessed to be able to share their musical gifts to minister to Catholics who are homebound and cannot attend Mass in person. We are super proud of these young music ministers! For information on how students in grades 5-8 can join Schola, contact Peg Kasun (pkasun@stcharleshartland.org).

Registration is now open for Trivia Night on Saturday, November 18 at 7 p.m.! Parishioners and school families are invited to join. The cost is $20 per person, and teams of eight adults will compete. If you do not have a team, you will be added to a group. Please complete the flier with team information and payment to the School Office. In addition, one person from each team must complete the Google form to capture the team name and all team members. Both the Flier and the Google form can be found on the parish or school websites. We hope you will join us!

Our Literati Book Fair is coming soon! School students will be able to visit the fair and purchase items on November 3, 6 and 7, and parents are welcome to shop during Parent/Teacher Conferences on November 8 and 9.

The Book Fair will also be open before and after all Masses on Saturday, November 4 and Sunday, November 5 in the Borromeo Room. This is a great opportunity for parishioners to start Christmas shopping while supporting our school!

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: 4lb Bags of Sugar, Brown Sugar, Deodorant, Toilet Paper, Paper Towels, Campbell's Chunky or Progresso Soups

In this Sunday's Gospel on the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time, we find that loving God isn't merely a matter of fervor in our hearts but that it must be expressed in doing good for the sake of others. Not all of us may be able to give material help to a neighbor in need, but we can spare a kindly word, an encouraging word for a neighbor weighed down with cares and troubles. All of us can pray for a neighbor who needs spiritual and temporal help.

A special "thank you" to the Modern Woodmen of America for their generous donation of food to the St. Charles SVPD Food Pantry. We would also like to thank the Knights of Columbus Council 3562 for their gift of jackets for the needy neighbors in our community. If you are in need of assistance or know someone who is in need, please contact us at 262-367-0800. The St. Charles SVPD Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland. It is open every Tuesday morning between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm.

FELLOWSHIP WEEKEND - NOV. 4 & 5

Join fellow parishioners NEXT WEEKEND for conversation and a donut/snack at Fellowship Weekend in the Parish Hall, November 4 and 5 after all the Masses. A big thank you to St. Charles Outreach Services Team who will be hosting this event and for the sponsors supporting it! Did you know that the St. Charles Outreach Services Team ministers to both local communities and abroad, organizing events and programs that bring together volunteers of all ages to engage in projects that better the living, learning, and general condition of all? Feel free to talk to one of the members serving to find out more about the Outreach Services Team.

VOLUNTEERS: Our next meeting is Tuesday, October 31st at 12:30pm in the Borromeo Room. If you would like to volunteer for Circle of Love, please call the above phone number.

YOU MAKE THE DIFFERENCE!

As part of being a Catholic, we are called to be good Stewards. Stewardship in a congregation is the sense of community and service adopted when parishioners do tasks for each other for the sake of the love for their neighbor and love of Christ. It is the application of what Christ taught us, to leave each other as He loved us. This could mean financial support or giving of one's time to our parish or greater community as a volunteer. We are always in need of volunteers for our different ministries and are hoping you can help serve not only our parish but also your fellow parishioners in various ways. Please visit the Volunteer Page on our website for a listing of the different ministries we have at St. Charles as well as what specific needs each ministry has. We are so grateful for your time and talents!

WHY RESPECT for CONSCIENCE MATTERS in HEALTH CARE

Fr. Justin Kizewski, Director of Intellectual Formation
St. Francis de Sales Seminary

With the many pressures surrounding end-of-life decisions, abortion, vaccine mandates and even transgender drugs and surgeries, how can doctors, nurses and patients stand strong in defending their conscience rights? What is conscience exactly, from the standpoint of Catholic teaching, and what is the way forward in this challenging time? And why, for patients, is it important that conscience rights of health care professionals are respected? Father Kizewski, with a Masters in bioethics, will explore these matters and more.
