THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

“I am made glorious in the sight of the LORD, and my God is now my strength!”

By Marianne Giovingo
Discipleship Team Lead

The Christmas Season is jam packed with some powerhouse Solemnities, Feasts, and Memorials – St. Stephen; St. John; the Holy Innocents; the Holy Family; the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God; Sts. Basil the Great and Gregory Nazianzen; the Holy Name of Jesus; St. Elizabeth Ann Seton; St. John Neumann; the Epiphany; and the Baptism of the Lord! Holy Mother Church celebrates for more than one day and is calling you to step into Ordinary Time with a recommitment to your longing for deeper holiness. You are called to live from both a place of joy and the reality of the cross as a Christian following Jesus; do not be afraid to claim how difficult this is to live faithfully.

God has made you glorious! He delights in you! He loves you so intimately that He became one like you to Redeem you and prepare the way for Eternal Life. Think about this: Jesus sees and knows you when you are at your best after a good Confession or attending Mass with an open disposition. He sees and knows you just as well during the very sin/addiction you seemingly try to hide from Him and everyone else. He doesn't love you any more after Confession than when you are sinning—the truth is He LOVES—unconditionally! He is your strength—He permits you to fall and gives you the grace to turn back to Him. Do not stay in the mess!

This week, trust a little more that God has called you just as He did John the Baptist to be His Voice and proclaim to those you encounter the Goodness of God in Jesus Christ! He dwells in you, His Spirit is alive in you, and you can point to Him by the way you live your life and the words you choose to speak! “Now I have seen and testified that He is the Son of God.”

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE
Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, January 22nd Readings

Sunday: Is 8:23—9:3/Ps 27:1,4, 13-14 (1a)/1 Cor 1:10-13, 17/Mt 4:12-23 or 4:12-17

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, January 22nd

- The prophet Isaiah foresaw a future reversal of fortune for the people living in the land of Zebulun and Naphtali. When have you received an unexpected blessing or gift in your life?
- Paul urged the believers in the city of Corinth to be of one heart and one mind as a community of faith, united in Jesus. How do you resolve division or conflict in your home or workplace?
- In the Gospel reading we hear about the beginning of Jesus' public ministry in Capernaum which included teaching, healing, and calling the first four disciples. How do you think people initially reacted to Jesus?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

CELEBRATE THE TRADITIONAL MASS

Do you desire to be drawn more deeply into the mystery of the Mass? Do you want to encounter some of the ancient treasures of the Church? Then join us for our monthly Traditional Mass here at St. Charles, held on the fourth Tuesday of each month at 5:30 pm. The next Mass is on January 24th.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

SHOWING UP

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

I broke my foot once, when my second child was only 12 weeks old, and I was about to move houses. For six weeks I was confined to a chair, a shrieking newborn in my arms, a toddler running circles around me, and my right foot rendered useless by a plaster cast. I couldn't do anything without assistance. I couldn't eat or get a drink or change my clothes or feed my children.

My family was in dire straits. A lot of people offered help, but there was a core group of friends and family members who really saved us.

These are the people who turned up in my driveway with empty vans and cooked meals. These are the people who blocked off their Saturdays to haul furniture, mow our lawn, and run after unruly kids. These are the people who said: "Here I am. Give me a job."

If you've ever really, really needed another person's help, you know that "showing up" means more than saying: "Let me know what you need." It means saying: "I'm already here. Tell me what to do."

So often, I pay lip service to the idea of submission. "What do you want, God?" I ask, and I secretly hope that what He wants isn't one of those things that I'm not willing to give.

What if I really strove to "show up" for God? What if I was ready to give what He asks of me, whatever it is?

Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will. — Psalm 40

If you give God your attention, He'll always exceed your expectations.

Pray to be ever ready for God's will even when it takes you by surprise.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

John the Baptist had been told that he would see the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world. He listened, he believed, and he kept his eyes open. He was ready when God revealed the truth. Let's ask ourselves: are our eyes open? Are we ready? ©LPi

ANOTHER MARRIAGE-SAVING WEEKEND IS COMING SOON

Retrouvaille helps families stay together. What Retrouvaille is NOT - Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-VI with a long I) simply means rediscovery. This program is not counseling. It is not group therapy. There is no mandatory sharing among participants. It is, however, a life-changing opportunity that has helped tens of thousands of couples. A former participant says: "This program is very powerful. It has helped our marriage immensely."

For confidential information about or to register for the program beginning with a weekend February 17-19, 2023 in Racine, please call (414) 502-7685 or email: Milwaukee@HelpOurMarriage.org or visit the website at <http://www.HelpOurMarriage.org>
