SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. - Mk 6:34

THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Burnout. Recent studies suggest that roughly two-thirds of doctors and nurses have signs of it. You probably know what burnout is: long-term stress leading to emotional exhaustion and a lack of a sense of personal accomplishment. Burnout can threaten anyone who tries to seriously serve and love others. How does our faith inform this challenging experience, and how do we find refreshment?

The apostles face something like burnout this week in Mark 6. They are run down from their missionary work, and Jesus says, "Come away by yourselves to a lonely place, and rest a while." For them, and for us, it takes humility to intentionally rest. It means the world can go on without us. It stings our pride to admit God is necessary and we are not. Choosing to leave our good work to be with him — whatever the cost — is an act of humble faith. And that trust in God begins to revive us.

But there's more to it. Hilariously, Mark tells us that throngs of needy people find out where the apostles are going and arrive ahead of them. Imagine the exasperation of the burnt-out apostles. "Can we please get a minute to ourselves? This is not healthy!" And Jesus seems to encourage the boundary violation by telling his frayed followers to feed the crowd. Look: once we move into humble rest, he calls us to more work, because we are made for love, not for rest. But Jesus does the vast bulk of the labor. He himself is the one who multiplies the small offering until everyone is satisfied.

What finally gives our heart rest isn't more vacation time. It's experiencing the super abundant generosity of God for us and those whom we serve.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, July 28th Readings

2 Kgs 4:42-44/Ps 145:10-11, 15-16, 17-18 (see 16)/
Eph 4:1-6/Jn 6:1-15

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit
<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, July 28th

- Trusting in the Lord, Elisha was able to feed a hundred people with just twenty barley loaves and fresh grain. Can you think of a time when you had to trust in the Lord?
- Paul urges the church in Ephesus to live in unity and holiness. What are some signs that a community is holy and united?
- After Jesus fed the crowds with the multiplication of loaves and fish, he withdrew to the mountain alone. When do you find the need to be alone?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

NEW CALMING ROOMS & NURSING ROOM

As we continue to settle in to our new church, we want to make you aware that we have two Calming Rooms, one on each side. These rooms each have six rocking chairs and are to be used by parents who have infants and young children who need a moment to be calmed. The room adjacent to the corridor also has a nursing mother's room connected to it that has a chair, sink, refrigerator, and a changing table.

LOVE BEGINS HERE (LBH) MISSION TRIP

This June, St. Charles Middle School Teens and Bri Alexander, Student Discipleship Lead, traveled to Lumen Christi to do small things with great love! Here is a message from our teens:

"Hi, our names are Alivia, Avery, Madeline, and Dez. We saw God in the people we served through their smiles after our work was done. Our favorite part about LBH was working together with friends. We had a blast, and we hope to make an appearance next year with more friends!"

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Paper Towels, Deodorant, Creamy Peanut Butter, Shampoo, Dish Soap, Canned Whole Tomatoes

In today's Gospel on the Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus tells his disciples to "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." We who are Jesus' disciples today have also been sent to share the Gospel with others. Perhaps our commitment to following Jesus as His disciple leaves us feeling tired and overwhelmed. In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus affirm the importance of times of rest and renewal. Jesus wanted his disciples to come away and spend time alone with him. This is what we seek and find in our life of prayer and in our celebration of the Eucharist.

Please say a special prayer for the poor and forgotten as you place your monetary gifts in the SVDP Poor Box or make your donations to the St. Charles St. Vincent da Paul (SVDP) Food Pantry Barrels (located in the back of the Church).

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm. If you are in need of assistance or know of someone in need, please contact us at 262-367-0800.
