THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Near my house there is a school for the blind. Often, I see blind people learning how to navigate the world with only a walking stick, even on a busy street with roaring traffic. I'm amazed to see how adept and carefully they get around without sight. Nevertheless, often a sadness arises in me that he or she cannot see all the beautiful colors, images, and persons filling the world around them. Those days, I find myself deeply grateful for the basic privilege of sight.

That's part of why the mystery of Jesus as the sight-giver is so moving to me. This week, it's wonderful how Bartimaeus the blind man is no longer content with his limitation and bellows out his desire for Jesus' mercy. In beautiful simplicity, he cries out to the Lord, "Master, let me receive my sight." Jesus quietly heals his sight. And off he goes, fully taking in the world around him. Imagine the delightful new way in which he is able to respond to the world.

Like blind Bartimaeus and the courageous people in my neighborhood, we may be able to get around reasonably well in our daily lives. But we are blind to the gestures of heroic love of people close to us. We can't see the desperate need of the hungry, thirsty, imprisoned, exploited, endangered, and so on in our midst. We can't see Jesus drawing near to us in so many ways, but he is. This Sunday let's cry out to him: Lord have mercy on me! I want to see! And little by little — or perhaps in a flash — we'll see once again or perhaps for the first time.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, November 3rd Readings

Dt 6:2-6/Ps 18:2-3, 3-4, 47, 51 (2)/Heb 7:23-28/Mk 12:28b-34

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, November 3rd

- Moses taught the Israelites the importance of passing on the faith and keeping the Jewish prayer, the great Shema ("Hear, O Israel..."). What are some faith traditions your family practices?
- In Hebrews we hear that Jesus is the eternal and perfect high priest who intercedes for us before God. Do you have a friend or co-worker who needs you to pray for them this week?
- Jesus and the scribe find common ground on agreeing that the two greatest commandments are to love God and our neighbor. Do you value making peace with people you disagree with?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

WEDDING BANNERS

2nd Bann ~ Agata Kosek & Michael Ruka

FEAST OF ALL SAINTS & ALL SOULS NOVEMBER 1ST & 2ND

The Feast of All Saints is a Holy Day of Obligation and is celebrated on November 1. On this feast, we remember saints and martyrs and are reminded that all of us are called to be saints and live a holy life. Here at St. Charles, we will have a Vigil Mass the night before at 6 p.m. On November 1, Masses are at 6:30 a.m., 9 a.m. (All-School Mass), and 6 p.m.

The Feast of All Souls falls on November 2 and is not a Holy Day of Obligation. On this day, we remember and pray for those who have died, especially the souls in purgatory. Because this falls on a Saturday this year, we will celebrate the Memorial Mass at 10 a.m. We will not have an 8:30 a.m. Mass that morning. There is also a service at the St. Charles Cemetery at noon. Due to the morning Mass, the sacrament of Reconciliation after Mass will not be celebrated on Saturday, November 2.

Prayer for All Souls' Day

*Merciful Father,
hear our prayer and console us.
As we renew
our faith in Your Son,
whom You raised from the dead,
strengthen our hope
that all our departed brothers and sisters will share in His resurrection, who lives and reigns
with You and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

BIG WEEKEND AT ST. CHARLES!

Come and join in the excitement as we celebrate our growing parish!

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD (CGS) CORNER

Colors and the Church Year

Colors help the youngest child connect us to life in the Church. Purple is the color for preparation of the feast: Advent and Lent. White is the color for celebration of the feast; Christmas, Easter, Holy Days of obligation and many feast days for the saints. Green is the color for Ordinary Time when we focus on growing deeper in our love of Christ. Red is the color for Pentecost and feasts of great love (or martyrs). The altar always has a white cloth for the consecration, but we change the color of the banner at the ambo, where God's word is proclaimed, and the priest's vestments to reflect the color of the season.

For children ages 3-8, ask them what time of year is it in the church? (preparation, etc.) What season are we celebrating in the church? (Advent etc.)

Consider placing a colored cloth during each season on a prayer corner or even at the center of the dinner table with a candle or centerpiece to remind your family what time of year it is in the Church. Children love to help change the color at the proper time!

Lisa Dedinsky, CGS Catechist

Our Literati Book Fair is coming soon! School students will be able to visit the fair and purchase items on November 1st, 4th, 6th and 7th, and parents are welcome to shop during Parent/Teacher Conferences on the 4th & 5th by the school library.

The Book Fair will also be open before and after all Masses on Saturday, November 2 and Sunday, November 3 in the Borromeo Hall. This is a great opportunity for parishioners to start Christmas shopping while supporting our school!

For more information and/or to check out the online store, please visit the News story on our website.

SCHOOL JINGLE SHOP

We are excited to announce that the Jingle Shop will be returning to our school this year on Wednesday, December 4! The Jingle Shop is a favorite fundraiser of the students that allows them to purchase gifts for their family at Christmas. We are collecting small, new items for the kids to choose from. We are also in need of gift wrapping materials (wrapping paper, gift bags, tissue paper, ribbons, and tape) as well as plastic bags (Sendik's, Piggly Wiggly, etc.). Cash donations are being accepted for the purchase of items for the Jingle Shop. Proceeds from this year's shop will go toward improving our Tot Lot area near the preschool classrooms. We are accepting donations through Tuesday, November 26 in our Parish and School Offices. Thank you for supporting our school!

YOU MAKE THE DIFFERENCE!

As part of being a Catholic, we are called to be good Stewards. Stewardship in a congregation is the sense of community and service adopted when parishioners do tasks for each other for the sake of the love for their neighbor and love of Christ. It is the application of what Christ taught us, to leave each other as He loved us. This could mean financial support or giving of one's time to our parish or greater community as a volunteer. We are always in need of volunteers for our different ministries and are hoping you can help serve not only our parish but also your fellow parishioners in various ways. Please visit the Volunteer Page on our website for a listing of the different ministries we have at St. Charles as well as what specific needs each ministry has. We are so grateful for your time and talents!
